Trahan convinces opponents of Aggie desire for victory

Staff Sports Writer Contrary to popular belief, defensive tackle Warren Trahan does not chew nails as an appetizer. He isn't locked in a cage all week and fed frog legs before the TCU game or bacon before playing Arkansas. But it would be hard to convince the Aggies' previous opponents other-Trahan, a 6-4, 268 pound senior from Duson, La., has been a difficult man to maintain by Ag opponents. He has 30 unassisted tackles and 16 assists for a total of 46. He has caused two fumbles, sacked opposing quarterbacks seven times and has 17 tackles for 66 yards in losses.

Against TCU, Trahan led a devas tating Aggie defense that held the Froggies to minus 58 yards rushing. He sacked the quarterback three times for 21 yards in losses.

"He's a very good pass rusher, Coach Emory Bellard said of Trahan. "He's got the burning desire to get to the passer and the quickness and speed to get by the Last year Trahan had a good season, but Bellard says his improvement is mainly because he is able to use both hands.

"Last year Warren had two bad wrists and I mean really bad," Bellard said. "He had a broken bone in one and a severe sprain in the other. It is almost impossible to play defense when you can't use your hands, but he did a pretty good

"The key to our defense is Trahan," linebacker Ed Simonini said. "I don't think many people realize just how good he is."

As the season progresses, people are beginning to notice the brilliant play of Trahan. Over national television he keyed an Aggie defense that shutout the ninth ranked Texas Tech team until late in the fourth quarter.

With the Aggie defense as tough as it is, opposing teams can't afford

Bonds goes to Yankees

NEW YORK (AP) — Baseball's inter-league trading period got off to an impressive start Tuesday when the New York Yankees sent Bobby Murcer to the San Francisco Giants for Bobby Bonds in an exchange of two of the game's biggest stars.

WARREN TRAHAN takes a breather during preparations for Baylor. Head Coach Emory Bellard says he thinks Trahan is playing as well as any defensive lineman in the country. "I don't see how he could play any better," said Bellard. (Photo by Glen
