

Trahan leads defensive effort

'Maroon Maulfia' does the job on Baylor

That good old Baylor line gave and gave and finally died on the teeth of the Aggie defense as the "Maroon Maulfia" did everything but punt.

By beating the Bears 20-0, the Farmers stretched their streak of not allowing a score to eight quarters. In Southwest Conference play A&M has allowed only one touchdown in three games. Another streak maintained by the Aggies is not allowing the opponent to score in the second quarter in any of their games this year.

So complete was the domination of the Aggies over Baylor that the Bears reached A&M territory twice, never in the second half. A&M ran 74 offensive plays to 49 for Baylor. The Aggies held the Bears to 149 yards total offense and to four first downs.

Baylor Head Coach Grant Teaff complimented A&M as being more physical than Oklahoma. Baylor running back Steve Beard (who netted 71 of the Bear's 105 rushing yards) tabbed the Aggies as having the best defense he had faced.

The closest Baylor came to scoring was in the fourth quarter when a black and white spotted dog reached the A&M twenty. Rather symbolically however, a small boy came off the Aggie sideline to lead the dog from the field.

The Aggie offense was able to drive almost at will on the Bears but were never able to sustain the drive long enough to cross the goal line. A&M got one break when halfback liams snatched his third interception of the year and Pat Thomas picked off his fifth. Warren Trahan intercepted the first pass of his career and made it count by carrying it across from the one.

"It was a screen pass and I just tipped it and caught it," said the Aggie's big tackle. "I figured they would check off so I dropped back and the ball came right to me." It marked the first time Trahan had scored in his career.

With Bean leading the way, the offense gained 310 yards rushing. And the Aggies again showed they could pass when they had to by hitting several key passes for first downs.

Bubba Bean fumbled after a ten yard gain and Carl Roaches, scooped up the loose pigskin and raced 56 yards for a score.

It was the only six pointer the Ags could manage against a Bear defense that toughened within their own thirty. Randy Haddox made sure the Aggies did not come from the well dry, however, by kicking field goals of 42 and 41 yards.

Also in the kicking department for A&M, Mark Stanley improved his national standing by averaging 47.3 yards a kick on four attempts. He is ranked fourth nationally.

But it was the defense that made what was supposed to be a close game a mismatch. The Baylor offense was so totally negated by the Farmer defense that they could muster only one first down in the entire second half.

The game puts A&M alone atop the SWC since SMU fell to Texas Tech. However, one slip could be fatal because Texas, Tech, Baylor and SMU remain just one game off the pace.
