Soccer team shuts out Baylor, 4-0

The A&M soccer team upped its season record to 2-1-2 with a 4-0 smashing of Baylor in Waco. The Ags were outstanding defensively in their first shutout of the year. Goalie Dan Byerly, despite being injured played a superb game making numerous outstanding saves. Byerly saved a high corner shot on a penalty kick late in the game to completely and finally stop the Baylor offense.

The Ag offense took the initiative and midway through the first half took the one point lead that was good enough for the win. Captain Merhad Farrokhnia took a lead pass one-on-one with the Baylor goalie and chipped in a short shot to his right. Wallace Rivas popped in another to make the halftime score 2-0.

Rivas came back in the second half as the Aggies continued their relentless pressure to score again. Ricardo Schwartz ended Aggie scoring midway through the second half.

The second team led by John Magee's hat trick bombed Baylor's Cubs 6-1. Baylor scored early on a chip pass just to the right of A&M goalie Tony Gallucci. Magee scored soon after to tie up the score. Greg Ingram scored on an indirect kick from Kyle King to give the Ags the lead 2-1 at the half.

The second half, the Ags poured it on scoring three goals in five minutes. The triple quickie on shots by Magee, Ingram and a beautiful head shot by Cery DiMarco completely frustrated Baylor's worn out defense. Magee scored again late in the game to complete his spree.

The Aggies, now 2-1-2, will be traveling to Dallas for their first meeting of the season with conference leaders SMU. The Mustangs will be sporting a speedy forward line and freshman goalie Joe Hight, a high school All-American. The second team is 2-0 after two wins over Baylor and is expected to travel to Dallas.

After returning from Dallas the Ags will host Stephen F. Austin, Le Tourneau, Texas and SMU in four games on two weekends to finish the season.

Aggies stay in eighth place; Texas moves ahead of Tech

(AP)—The nation's Top Ten college football teams maintained their positions in The Associated Press ratings Monday with runner-up Oklahoma chipping away slightly at No. 1-ranked Ohio State's comfortable lead.

The next five positions again went to Southern California, Notre Dame, Texas A&M, Nebraska and Penn State.

Carlen says Murphy will miss game

LUBBOCK, Tex., (AP)—Texas Tech Coach Jim Carlen announced Monday that noseguard Ross Murphy will be lost for Saturday's Southwest Conference game with Rice in Houston.

Murphy suffered a knee injury against SMU. Earlier, David Knaus, an All-SWC performer, had been injured. "If somebody had told me that with four games to go, we would be playing a freshman Earnest Cheatham at middle guard, I wouldn't have believed it," Carlen said. "Earnest has the ability, but I question his experience."

Speaking of Rice, Carlen said "the last five games between us and Rice were decided by a total of 32 points... I can't explain it... and I don't expect an easy time with the Owls this week."

Carlen emphasized that sophomore quarterback Tommy Duniven, who sat out the SMU game with a stiff back, is still starting quarterback, despite the fine performance of Don Roberts against the Mustangs.

"I never would take a young man out of a starting spot because of an injury."

Of the SMU game, Carlen said he thought sophomore tailback Larry Isaac played the best game of his career. Isaac rushed for 125 yards on 20 carries.

He also praised Roberts. "Don had some typical sophomore mistakes, but overall he played real well," Carlen said.

Ohio State walloped Northwestern 55-7 Saturday and received 45 first-place votes and 1,222 of a possible 1,260 points from a nationwide panel of sports writers and broadcasters.

Meanwhile, Oklahoma crushed Kansas State 63-0 and earned 14 first-place votes and 1,123 points. Last week, the Sooners trailed Ohio State with 61 votes cast to this week's 63 ballots.

Third-place Michigan, which trailed Oklahoma by 159 points last week, received two No. 1 votes and 969 points following a 49-0 thrashing of Minnesota.

Alabama, the No. 4 team, trounced Texas Christian 41-3 and received exactly the same score as last week—one first place vote and 887 points. Fifth-rated Auburn got the remaining first-place vote and 765 points by whipping Florida State 38-6.
