

'Bull' Trahan gets player of the week

(AP) — "Warren Trahan doesn't put up with any bull, not even on Mondays when the scout attack team is trying to move the ball."
That's Texas A&M defensive coordinator Melvin Robertson talking about the all-business attitude of his star senior defensive tackle, a 6-foot-3, 235-pounder from Dusen, La.
Trahan's concentration and dedication in practice also pays off on Saturdays. He sacked the quarterback four times, made seven solo tackles, and was credited with seven assists in a 20-10 victory over the Arkansas Razorbacks.

"Before that move Warren had been overweight and really hadn't had much success," Robertson said. "He played a lot last year with a bad wrist—I really think it was broken."
Robertson has some bad news for future Texas A&M opponents concerning Trahan.
"He can't get anything but better because he still doesn't have a whole lot of experience," Robertson said. "He wants to win real bad. He's a senior and he wants to play pro ball. The pros like him a lot, I can tell you."

Penn State will accept Cotton bid

STATE COLLEGE, Pa. (AP) — Penn State's football team has voted to accept an invitation to the New Year's Day Cotton Bowl if an invitation is extended.
Coach Joe Paterno and his squad met Monday and decided to return to Dallas against the winner of the Southwest Conference Championship — Texas A&M, Texas or Baylor, if they are invited.
The Nittany Lions appeared in the 1972 Cotton Bowl and upset Texas 30-6.
While bowl bids will not be offered until Nov. 16, it was learned that Cotton Bowl officials have assured Penn State the invitation will be forthcoming.

The performance earned him The Associated Press Southwest Conference Defensive Player of the Week laurels.
"Warren works as hard as anybody I've ever seen," said Robertson, who also used to coach defense at the University of Houston. "He has no love for anybody including the scout team while he's on that football field."
"He has a lot of quickness. Some big guys also will pace themselves—you know thinking they have it made. Well, there aren't any halos on Warren's head. He goes all out . . . all of the time."
Trahan was moved to defense from offense last year.

Waldrep fund set for injured player

A fund has been set up to help cover expenses incurred by the family of TCU football player Kent Waldrep, who was critically injured in the game against the University of Alabama. Waldrep remains paralyzed from the neck down in a Birmingham, Ala., hospital from the second quarter injury that broke his neck and caused spinal damage.

In Dallas Cotton Bowl officials declined to confirm the reports that Penn State would be invited.
Field Scovel, director of the Cotton Bowl Selection Committee, said Penn State "is under very strong consideration."
"But as you know," he added, "we cannot make any thing official according to NCAA rules until Nov. 16."

Penn State this season is 7-1, losing only to Navy 7-6 in one of the season's major college football upsets.
The Nittany Lions have defeated Stanford, Iowa, Army, Syracuse, Wake Forest, West Virginia and Maryland.
The 10th-ranked Lions meet North Carolina State Saturday in Raleigh, N.C., and have Ohio University at home and Pittsburgh away Thanksgiving Day.
