Summer language studies discussed

Students interested in joining the summer study programs in modern languages will meet this week. Students interested in the German program meet at 7 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 13, in room 106 of the Academic Building. Meetings for the French and Mexican study sessions will be Monday, Nov. 18, at 7 p.m. and 8 p.m., respectively, in room 108. The Mexican and Czech programs will be approximately six weeks in duration while German and French would be eight to 10 weeks. The Spanish project in Mexico will be for 300-level classes only. No information on costs is yet available, says Dr. Anne Elmquist, but further details will be distributed as they are worked out.

Calculators sold at discount

The Texas Delta chapter of Tau Beta Pi, a national engineering society, is selling electronic calculators at reduced prices. Tau Beta Pi, is a non-profit organization and this service is being offered solely as a benefit to the university community.

For further information and price quotations on the calculators call 693-3317, 846-1635, 845-5470 or 845-2766.

Book collectors compete

Texas A&M student book collectors put their volumes on the line Friday in the annual University Library contest, at 2 p.m. in the library conference room.

Nineteen collections will vie for six $100 prizes. Collection topics include the oceans, John F. Kennedy, East Africana, revolution in theory and practice, scouting, science fiction, Texana and the institutions of government.

Lon Tinkle, Dallas Morning News book editor and critic, heads a three-judge panel. He will speak on "Confessions of a Book Critic." Dr. Irene Hoadley, library director, noted that the contest lecture and awards ceremony is open to all interested persons.

Lectures held at lunch

Two "brown bag" activities are planned Tuesday and Wednesday for students and faculty.

Tuesday, a noon to 1:30 p.m. seminar features Dr. Glenn Johnson, education and curriculum instruction professor, leading a panel on higher education. The seminar will be held in room 717 of Harrington Education Center and is sponsored by the EDCI Graduate Student Association.

On Wednesday, the Department of Educational Administration will feature two films from noon to 1 p.m. with a 30-minute discussion period offered afterwards.

The films, to be shown in room 623 of Harrington, are "The Futurists" and "The Class of '01: The College of Tomorrow," both dealing with expected trends and needs in future education.

Firemen suspect arson caused fire

The College Station Fire Department is still investigating the fire that took place at the East Texas Mobile Homes sales park, 811 Texas Ave., destroying one new mobile home and damaging five others.

Fire Marshall Harry Davis suspects arson and is seeking two suspects. Arson was first suspected when three of the mobile homes were burning separate from the other fires on the opposite side of the park, Davis said.

Evidence found on the scene was shipped to the state fire marshal in Austin for investigation. "They will determine whether or not arson was involved in the fire," Davis said.

COME SEE US

You don't have to wait for your commission to join the 5 out of 6 active duty officers who carry USAA insurance.

As an Advanced ROTC student, you are eligible to apply for USAA insurance—for your car, personal possessions, and personal liability. USAA is an association of officers serving fellow officers with the lowest possible premiums, quick and fair claims settlements, and a sharing of dividends. (Though not guaranteed, USAA has been paying dividends every year since 1924.) You may save as much as $20 to $60, depending on where you live, on auto insurance alone. And a special USAA feature, the Household Goods Policy, is available to insure your personal property at home, at school, or in your car, for only $10 per year per $1,000 of insurance protection. Small wonder more officers insure with USAA than all other insurance companies combined. Mail the coupon for details—at no obligation.
