Symphonic Band slates performance

A varied musical program from Mendelssohn and Mozart to Christmas pieces will be presented Thursday by the University Symphonic Band.

The 72-member organization will perform under direction of Joe McMullen in the Rudder Auditorium at 8 p.m.

An ambitious program will feature soloist Sue Grosskopf of Garland and Susan Skinner of Clear Lake City.

Also on the program are a Leroy Anderson medley, "A Christmas Festival" and the Mel Torme-popularized "Christmas Song."

"Fingal's Cave" by Mendelssohn Seredy, "Die Fledermaus" overture; a short selection the Prelude to Act 1 of "La Traviata" and "Lola Flores," a Mexican march, are programmed.

The Symphonic Band includes musicians from all parts of the campus and all student classifications. The band has numerous all-state and all-region recognized musicians with many years of musical experience.

Admission to the concert will be 50 cents per student and $1 for others. Tickets are available at the Rudder Center Box Office, from Symphonic Band members and the door.

Bill passed about tapes

WASHINGTON (AP)—Legislation prohibiting destruction of former President Richard M. Nixon's tapes and assuring court access to the tapes and related documents was passed by the House Tuesday.

The House acted by voice vote, sending the measure to the Senate, which has passed similar but not identical legislation.

The bill overrides an agreement between the General Services Administration and Nixon which provided, among other things, that the tapes be destroyed on Nixon's death or Sept. 1, 1984, whichever came first.

The new legislation would require congressional authorization for destruction of the tapes or documents.
