BOWLING
Squadron Four defeated the Mexico team 1432-1350 to win the university bowling championship Tuesday afternoon.
Bowling for the Mexico team were Oscar Garza, Ernesto Ramirez and Luis Gonzales. James Kirk, Tom Meglasson and Mike Akins bowled for Sq. 4.
High scorer for the first game was Akins with 199 pins. Sq. 4 won the first game 490-442. In the second game Mexico out scored Sq. 4 504-495. Ramirez led the Mexico team with 200 pins. Kirk rolled seven strikes for Sq. 4.
The third game was extremely close until the last few frames when Sq. 4 jumped out ahead to win the game and match. During the game both teams tried desperately to influence the falling pins with a lot of body language, both Spanish and English. However neither team was very successful.

TENNIS
After an evenly-matched series of games, Sq. 7's entry won the University tennis tournament on Monday evening.
Jim Heck, after battling his way through Corps competition, was the independent and civilian champ, Dwight Helton in a 4-2 pro-match series.
Playing fast ball, the two executed the same "net" game that resulted in short rallies but eight or nine stroke volleys.
Helton had a strong pass shot that kept heading for the lines. Heck had a "6-5" frame that has previously proven to be a definite advantage. These strong points made little difference as Heck said, "I won because I just happened to take the game at that point."

Tech coach might leave

COLUMBIA, S.C. (AP) — Either Texas Tech Coach Jim Coelen or former Columbia area high school coach Mooney Player will be the next head football coach at South Carolina, a Columbia newspaper said Tuesday.
The Columbia Record said both were being interviewed again by school representatives and the USC trustees will probably make the final choice Wednesday.
University spokesmen have generally remained silent on the deliberations of a trustee appointed search committee.
The job became vacant when Paul Dietzel resigned this fall. Dietzel, however, remains athletic director. Whether he will continue in the position is uncertain.
Trustee Chairman T. Eston Marchant said Tuesday, "It may be necessary to make the athletic director job available in order to retain a head coach." But he added that if the athletic directorship becomes vacant, basketball Coach Frank McGuire "should be considered."
Coelen has indicated he would like to be AD as well as coach. Player has campaigned to be coach only.
Marchant stressed that Dietzel's tenure as athletic director is at the will of university president William H. Patterson.
Coelen's Red Raiders play their derby Dec. 28 in the Peach Bowl at Atlanta. He said earlier he would not make a decision on a change until after that game.
Player, out of coaching for a year as an assistant at N.C. State in the fall of 1973. Previously, the South Carolina alumnus was a successful high school coach at several schools, including Lower Richland and Columbia.

Longhorns tumble to remain winless

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Drake Ken Harris scored five points in overtime to lead the Bulldogs to a 103-98 victory over Texas Tuesday night in a non-conference basketball game.
The Bulldogs outscored Texas 13-8 in the overtime after coming from 11 points behind to tie the game at 90-90 at the end of regulation play.
Forward Larry Harelson led Drake with 30 followed by Terry McKissick with 21, fourteen of which came in the second half. Harris had 19.
Texas was paced by Ed Johnson with 24 points and Hank Bauerschlag had 21.
Drake is now 2-2 for the season while Texas is 0-5.
