

Teaff inks new pact

WACO, Tex. (AP) — Baylor Coach Grant Teaff signed a new five-year contract Tuesday calling for an estimated $35,000 a year, not including fringe benefits, to end speculation he would bolt the Southwest Conference champions for Texas Tech.

After a 1 a.m. telephone talk with Texas Tech Athletic Director J. T. King, a close friend, Teaff asked that he not be considered for the Red Raider post vacated by Jim Carlen, who went to South Carolina.

"I saw my new contract for the first time this morning and signed it," said Teaff, who still had two years left on an old contract.

Teaff was offered the contract after Baylor defeated Rice to clinch its first SWC title in 50 years and the Bears' first trip to the Cotton Bowl.

"I called him because there was no question about my soul-searching," Teaff said. "I wanted to clear the air so both programs could move forward. I have love and respect for J.T. It wasn't a question of whether I was being considered but whether I wanted to be considered. There had been so much speculation about my going to Tech that I needed to make an announcement because at one time it had been my fondest ambition."

Teaff said, "I am dedicated and obligated to a group of young men, my coaching staff, the entire community and the university and its supporters. Our goal is to see Baylor University on a competitive level in the Southwest Conference and on a national level year after year."

Teaff had been besieged by players on his Cotton Bowl-bound squad on what his decision would be.

"I told them not to believe what you read in the papers," Teaff said. "I told them I still had the same dream for this university that I had when I signed them. I can tell you the looks they had in their eyes had a lot to do with my staying here... these young men share my dream for Baylor University."

Teaff turned around the Bears from a 2-9 team without a SWC victory to an 8-3 club in 1973. The first year Teaff came to Baylor the Bears were 4-6. Both in 1972 and this year he was named The Associated Press SWC Coach of the Year.

Hurt obtains top position

Ben Hurt, offensive coordinator at Texas A&M, has been named head football coach at his alma mater, Middle Tennessee State in Murfreesboro, Tenn.

"Ben has done an excellent job for Texas A&M," athletic director and head football coach Emory Bellard said. "We wish him every success. He is very deserving of his new position. There is no finer human being in the United States than Ben Hurt. I know he'll do a fine job."

"I've enjoyed my stay at Texas A&M and working with coach Bellard," Hurt said. "This is an opportunity to return to the area where I grew up. I'm really looking forward to my new job."

Hurt, 41, was one of the first coaches hired by Bellard when he came to A&M in 1972. Before joining the A&M staff, Hurt served seven years as an assistant coach at the University of Houston. He also has had seven years coaching experience in high schools in Orange and Nederland in Southeast Texas.

Hurt was born in Nashville, Tenn., and grew up in Pulaski, Tenn. He captained the football team at Middle Tennessee State and received both bachelor's and master's degrees from that university.

Hurt is married to the former Joan Bettis of Chattanooga, Tenn. They have two children, Ross, 15, and Greg, 11.
