

Street paving given top priority

money earmarked for community improvements would be used for projects already covered by the city's budget.

The Rev. Lee Groce, of 1632B Park Place, said his street badly needs to be repaired.

"In 1948 my neighborhood raised money to put gravel on Park Place and it stayed there for about 10 years until the city started to maintain it. When they did, the gravel was stripped off by the road graders," Groce said.

A second public hearing will be held Feb. 27 between the city council, citizens' advisory group and the planning and zoning commission to consider action taken by the council. On the following day the council will submit its plan to the Brazos Valley Development Council (BVDC) for review and comment.
