You'd think by now God would say "Phooey!"

What with all the hate, the indifference to war, the fanatical selfishness we see around us. But God doesn't go around saying things like "Phooey." He goes around saying things like "Love your neighbor as you love yourself." Have you tried it lately?

GASP! Nonsmokers' rights listed

WASHINGTON (AP)—Assisted by a man costumed as Abraham Lincoln, a group called "GASP!" gathered on the Capitol steps Wednesday to proclaim a nonsmokers' Bill of Rights.

"When we first formed, people didn't take us very seriously," said Mrs. Clara Gouin, the group's founder. "But things are changing. People are beginning to recognize that nonsmokers have rights, too."

Mrs. Gouin, of suburban College Park, Md., and about 20 other GASPers braved near-freezing temperatures and a light rain to wave antismoking banners and distribute buttons and leaflets to curious passersby.

"Your smoking is hazardous to my health," said one of the buttons. "Nonsmokers have rights, too," said another.

Bill Wall, a financial management specialist for the U. S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, read the nonsmokers Bill of Rights while wearing a black frock coat, boots and a Lincoln-like beard.

The Bill of Rights said nonsmokers have the right to breathe clean air, the right to speak out against smokers who light up without their permission, and the right to take action to "discourage smokers from polluting the atmosphere."

In his speech, which was made to a handful of tourists and Capitol police, Wall said at least 34 million Americans have respiratory conditions made worse by tobacco smoke. "Nonsmokers are deprived of their freedom of choice," said Wall. "They are forced to inhale the tobacco smoke of others in all situations. Inhaling tobacco smoke should not be a condition of holding a job, but it is."

Mrs. Gouin said she founded GASP, an acronym for Group Against Smokers Pollution, four years ago after her father, a heavy smoker, died of lung cancer.

"Even though the reaction is better now when you ask someone not to smoke around you, there is still some hostility by smokers," she said. "There are some enlightened smokers now, but some still threaten to blow smoke in your face."
