Women triumph over UH, 80-49

By MIKE BRUTON
Sports Editor

The scrappy, sharpshooting women's basketball team clipped the Cougar's claws yesterday handing them a 80-49 loss.

The Aggies, led by Cissy Auclair and Sally Morrissette were all over the court. They played defense, shot well, passed the ball with accuracy and played a sound game in all aspects.

The Kay Don coached team took command of the game from the tip-off and poured it on before a crowd of about 6,500 to bring their season record to a commendable 15-5.

The Aggettes with shooting from Auclair and tenacious defense from Diane Quitta and Karen Aulenbacher gave the Cougars all but a friendly welcome. They played with a lot of hustle as they surged to a 41-15 lead for the first half.

Early in the second half Auclair was called for a couple of quick fouls but she continued to plague the Cougars. About midway through the second half she received her fourth foul and was called to the bench.

Just when the Cougars thought they had a breath of fresh air, Morrissette started to pour it on scoring 14 of her 25 points in the final ten minutes of the game. She hit 11 field goals and three of six charity tosses for her 25 point total.

The whole team performed well with all but two players scoring. They worked the fast break well and played defense with a big "D". The leading scorers for the Aggies were Morrissette with 25, Auclair with 20 and Aulenbacher with 14. Leading the Cougars were Sandy Lynn and Pat Dowdell with 16 and 12 points respectively.
