THE DESERTER

The Deserter is among the most powerful of recent films to explore a generation of youth, alienated from the Establishment during the Vietnam War. Like Alice's Restaurant and Sticks and Bones, it mingles moments of sardonic humor, poignant lyricism and grim tragedy in portraying a young man who has grown detached from everyone around him. Danish with English subtitles.

A Night Out in College Station

Club Specials Offered

By DAN KASPAR

"There's nothin' to do!" is the cry heard from Corps dorms to Krueger Hall to Scandia Apartments. It seems as if Ags all over share the same problem. Lack of places to go to keep them off the streets.

There are a few spots around though, and if you know where to go, you'll probably hit some excitement, or at least some specials.

Peanut Gallery is a casual type club, with Tuesday night the time to go if you're a lady and like to drink. It's Ladies Night all night long with no cover and all the free drinks the girls can hold. It's three dollars for the guys though.

Harry J's has more of a date-place atmosphere. For one thing, there are no games or pool tables. Dimly lit, they currently have no regular specials or happy hour. Calling all kickers and others inclined in that direction, there is the Lakeview Club every Thursday night. They call it Stampede Night and all beer is 35 cents. It's a dollar for girls and two for guys. Tuesday, the ladies are free. Every night they're open (Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday) country music rules.

If you like the country-music atmosphere mixed in with pizza, Sparty's is the place. Thursdays, certain brands of beer are a dollar a pitcher and every evening they have a pizza special.

Sports Club will stick you with a cover charge if you're a guy (50 cents) on Friday and Saturday nights. They're usually pretty packed on the weekends, although beer is 75 and 80 cents for a 12-ounce glass. Wednesday is Ladies Night, free drinks for the women.

If you live near Northgate, you've probably discovered the Burger Hut and the Dixie Chicken. Burger Hut is mainly a food place but they also have pool tables and foosball. From 10 a.m. to 12 p.m. longnecks bottles are 35 cents. Dixie Chicken offers free crackers with their beer. They have a variety of pinball, foosball and pool games.

If your folks are in town, and they want you to show them around, you might do best taking them to T.J's. It's a rustic-looking place with softer music and a selection of drinks. No specials except free cheese and crackers in the afternoons.

The Silver Dollar, once a fairly popular place in town, hasn't rated as high lately. They're in for change, though, and plan a remodeling job for spring break.

If you're living out in the Plantation Oaks—Briarwood area, there's the neighborhood Pe house 1. Every night, the unescorted ladies get 25 cent bar drinks. On Tuesday there is a 75 cent Collins special. Wednesday it's a bourbon special. Thursday night they have a special exclusively for people living in their apartments. If you've made the rounds and are still sober and want a place to go, there's always the good old Cut Rate Liquor Store.

You can take a bottle home with you and listen to your choice of music and of course, there's never a cover.

CS Group Reviews Charter

The first meeting of the 1975 College Station Charter Revision Committee was held Wednesday at 4:00 p.m. in the conference room of City Hall.

The meeting was primarily organizational with M. L. Cushion being elected chairman and Ms. Rae Holleman, secretary.

Annually, the committee is charged with reviewing the city charter and making changes if they are necessary. Two main areas that the committee will be considering this year are setting dates for school board and city council elections, and changing means of elections from an at-large to a ward system.

The committee desires input from the citizens, city employees and anyone that operates under the College Station charter. Any recommendations that the public has concerning the charter should be sent to City Hall.

The committee's next meeting will be held Wednesday, March 12, at 5:00 p.m. The public is invited to attend and express their views.

A copy of the charter is on hand at City Hall. Members of the committee are citizens of College Station and are selected by the mayor with the approval of the city council.

This year's members are: Jerry Cooper, Steve Eberhard, Dr. Earl Bennett, J. B. Hervey, M. L. Cashion, Ms. Rae Holleman, Dr. Wilborn Benton, W. W. Scott, James Dozier and Neeley Lewis.

Batt Pressman Killed in Wreck

A fatal traffic accident last Thursday brought sorrow close to home for The Battalion.

One of the victims of a motorcycle crash in College Station was Bernard Francois. Bernie was a pressman's assistant in the TAMU Printing Center, which prints The Battalion.

He was riding his motorcycle with 14-year-old Cheryl Ann Corn when the vehicle hit a utility pole on South Sims Street. He had bought the motorcycle on his 18th birthday, which was three days before the accident.

Bernie was born and raised in Bryan and attended Bryan High School. He had worked in the Printing Center for six months, but in that short time he learned to handle The Battalion press efficiently.

Bernie was buried in Colfax, La., where his mother was born.
