Texas A&M's track squad will host two teams that they have beaten twice previously. Rice, the University of Houston and the Aggs compete in a tri-meet at Kyle Field starting at 1:30 p.m. Saturday.

The Aggies bested Rice in a dual meet here and defeated them at the UH Invitational. Rice regained lost ground by getting past A&M at Laredo in the Border Olympics. Houston is 0-2 against the Aggies, losing to A&M in the meet they hosted and at the Border.

However, the situation is gloomier for the Aggies than it appears. Top hurdler Scottie Jones is "a question mark" says track coach Charles Thomas. Jones strained the ligaments connecting the thigh bone to the knee joint. Sammy Dierschke is again suffering leg ailments after missing most of last season with an injury. Thomas expects him to return to action next week. Another Aggie on the sick list is Gerald D'Ambrosio, although "he is starting to come around" said Thomas.

There is a silver lining though. High jumper Don Riggs will be competing in his second meet after recuperating from a leg injury. Frank West has rejoined the team after a short departure for spring football to give A&M some muscle in the shot put. The Aggie pole vaulters have had a good week despite cold weather with Brad Blair reaching his Southwest Conference winning mark of 15 feet. Shifton Baker is looking good, says Thomas, after coming in with his best 440-yard hurdles time, a 52.9.

The Owls are going to be tough to beat again as the team seems stronger since the first A&M-Rice meeting. Rice should dominate the discus and shot put events with Buddy Briscoe and Dean Daugherty. Freshmen hurdler Cur-

In the 100-yard dash, Aggie Charles Dawson will be up against Zoe Simpson again. Dawson had a slight leg pull at the Border and took a 9.9 time in the race.

A&M has adjusted their sprint relay team due to the absence of Dierschke. Robert Harris, Doug Brodhead, Dawson and Ray Brooks represent A&M in the quarter mile out officials, the meet will go on. This is the fourth Ag outdoor meet of the year and their second home meet. Next weekend A&M will be in Dallas competing against TCU and SMU

Mustangs in town for three

The Texas Aggies are down but not out in the 1975 Southwest Conference baseball race. They host the SMU Mustangs this weekend in an important three game series. The two teams will play a single game Friday at 3:00 and then a double header Saturday at 1:00.

The Aggies are 7-2 for the season and 1-2 in SWC play. SMU is also 1-2 in conference play while only 5-3 for the season.

The Aggies opened conference play last week by dropping two of three to the Baylor Bears while SMU also lost two of their first three to the Rice Owls.

Both teams won double headers this week. A&M took two from St. Mary's in San Antonio while the Mustangs won two from Dallas University.

David Lockett will pitch the first game for the Ags on Friday, with James Gibson and Clint Thomas going in the double header Saturday.

event. Rice slipped past A&M in the 440-yard relay last week after Dierschke pulled up lame.

Houston is strong in the hurdles, and has distance runner Brickman, but in the other events, will be hard put to compete with A&M and Rice.

Due to the basketball and baseball games, Thomas says it will be hard to locate officials for the meet. Nevertheless, with or with-

Club Sports

THE LACROSSE TEAM will meet University of Texas in league play on the AstroTurf practice field Saturday at 10 a.m.

THE HANDBALL TEAM will compete in the National Intercollegiate Handball Tournament in Austin's Gregory Gym, Saturday. Entries include: Jack Gresset, "A" singles; Kley Hughes, "B" singles; and Mike Richter and John Arizpe, doubles.

AGGIE-CROSS will be held Saturday at 9 a.m. in the parking lot across from the swimming pool. Eight classes and a special truck class will be run. Entry fee is $5 for non-members and $4 for members.

THE WOMEN'S GYMNASTIC TEAM will compete in the state meet this weekend in Austin at the University of Texas gymnasium. The men compete in the Gulf Invitational meet, Saturday at San Jacinto Junior College.

SKEET AND TRAP CLUB will host Grant Hising in a lecture demonstration at 10 a.m. at the Bryan-College Station range.

TEXAS BOWLING TEAM is currently leading the Texas Intercollegiate Bowling Conference by six games over the University of Houston. The Aggies won their last meet held at UH by winning eight of nine games. Doug Ocker continues to lead the team with a 201 average.

Cincinnati named Ag playoff foe

Although the Aggies have clinched at least a tie for the Southwest Conference title, they must beat Texas for the outright title (assuming Arkansas and Texas Tech win their final game) and the right to go into the NCAA playoffs.

An Aggie victory would send them to Lubbock next Saturday for the Midwest Pre-Regional. They would play Cincinnati. The winner of that game goes to the Midwest Regional at Las Cruces, N. M., March 20 and 22.
