

Indiana maintains strangle hold on first place

(AP) — UCLA jumped into second place in The Associated Press college basketball poll Monday, trading fourth place with Maryland, while Indiana finished a perfect regular season and maintained its hold on the top spot.

The Hoosiers, headed for the National Collegiate Athletic Association playoffs with a 29-0 season record after their 94-79 Big Ten Conference victory Saturday over Michigan State, received all 37 first-place votes for 740 points from the nation-wide panel of sports writers and sports broadcasters.

UCLA's Bruins, winners of the Pacific-8 Conference with their 72-68 victory Saturday over Southern California, head into the NCAA playoffs with a 23-3 record. They will be shooting for their 10th national championship in 12 years, including a string of seven in a row that was ended by North Carolina State last year. The Bruins jumped from fourth to second with 603 points while Louisville, 24-2, maintained third with 575 and Maryland, an 87-85 loser to N.C. State in the Atlantic Coast Conference playoffs, fell to fourth with 474.

The next two teams held their positions, No. 5 Marquette, 22-3 with 437 points, and No. 6 Kentucky with a 22-4 record and 424 points. North Carolina, which beat N.C. State 70-66 in the ACC playoff title game, rocketed to seventh from 12th. The Tar Heels, 21-7, received 282 points.

Arizona State, 23-3 and Western Athletic Conference champ following a 107-92 romp over Arizona, received 280 points and moved up one notch to eighth, trading places with N.C. State, 22-6, which received 250 points. The Wolfpack, after failing to gain a berth in the NCAA playoffs which they won last year, voted to turn down invitations to any other tournament.

Ninth is Alabama, which slipped from seventh, receiving 229 points after suffering a 76-70 upset loss to Auburn.

Topping the Second Ten is Pennsylvania, down one place. Notre Dame didn't play but still jumped to 12th from 16th, followed by Southern Cal, down one from a week ago, Clemson, Oregon State and Rutgers. Texas El-Paso, Cincinnati and Centenary are tied for 17th, and Pan American is 20th.

Cincinnati and Centenary were new entries this week, replacing Arizona, 19th a week ago, and Creighton, which tumbled all the way from 13th.

Rice gets split with Bearcats

HUNTSVILLE, Tex. (AP) — Rice catcher Randy Lamprecht drove in all six runs for a 6-2 Owl victory over Sam Houston State in the second game of a college baseball doubleheader Tuesday after Sam Houston won the opener 5-0.

Ron Kainer hurled a three-hitter to shutout the Owls in the opener. Sammy Monteau drove in three runs for SHS to support Kainer's pitching performance. Lamprecht's bases loaded double in the sixth inning and a three-run home run in the ninth inning gave Rice the victory in the nightcap. Rice now is 9-6 for the season and Sam Houston is 12-6.
