Against San Diego

Grahame leads Aeros to a 3-0 series edge

By NICK VOINIS Staff Sports Writer
Led by rookie goaltender Ron Grahame, the defending World Hockey Association champion Houston Aeros have taken a 3-0 lead in their best-of-seven semifinals series with the San Diego Mariners. Grahame, the league's No. 1 goaltender during the regular season, has allowed the Mariners one goal in three games. He received his first playoff shutout in the opener as his teammates scored four times.
A twisted knee suffered in the second period of Friday's game didn't seem to slow Grahame down as he returned for third period action with the knee heavily taped.
Tuesday night's 6-0 Aero win marked his seventh win in the playoffs. He has been in goal for all eight of the Aeros' playoff games as he has allowed opponents only five goals, for a 2.14 goals-against average.

The series now remains in Houston for games Thursday, and Saturday, if necessary.
In other WHA semifinal action, the Minnesota Fighting Saints and Quebec Nordiques are tied at two games a piece. Sunday Minnesota defeated Quebec 4-2. The fifth game is set for Tuesday at Quebec.
In National Hockey League Semifinal action, the Montreal Canadiens lead the Buffalo Sabres in their best-of-seven series 1-0. In Sunday's opener, before 15,863 fans in Buffalo, the home-town boys prevailed over the playoff experienced Canadiens 6-5 in overtime. The series resumes Tuesday in Buffalo.
The surprising New York Islanders begin their series with the defending NHL champion Philadelphia Flyers in Philadelphia Tuesday night.
The Islanders trailed the Pittsburgh Penguins in their best-of-seven quarterfinal series 3-0, but came back to beat the Penguins four straight, thus becoming only the second major sports team in history to overcome a 3-0 deficit in a seven-game playoff series.
In National Basketball Association conference finals the Washington Bullets have jumped out to a 1-0 lead in their best-of seven series with the defending champion Boston Celtics. The Bullets, led by the "Big E" Elvin Hayes defeated the Celtics in Boston, before a national television audience, 100-95.

Hayes, scored a game high 34 points, grabbed 12 rebounds and helped out teammate Phil Chenier setting some valuable picks. Chenier added 24 points to the Bullets total while Jo Jo White led the Celtics with 27 points.
In the Western Conference finals, the Golden State Warriors took the opener in their series with the Chicago Bulls, 107-89.
All-star forward Rick Barry led the Warriors by scoring 38 points before 12,787 screaming fans in Oakland. NBA Rookie-of-the-year Keith Wilkes added 26 points for

Milner-led Mets rout Cubs, 9-1
CHICAGO (AP) — John Milner drove in four runs, three on his first home run of the season, and Joe Torre singled home two more Tuesday, powering the New York Mets to a 9-1 decision over the Chicago Cubs for their seventh straight victory.
The Mets jumped on starter Burt Hooton for three runs in the first inning, then added five in the second when a two-base error by centerfielder Rick Monday opened the way for the big splurge.

Masters Swim Meet to be held at A&M

Swimmers 25 and over compete here Saturday and Sunday in the first College Station Masters Swim Meet.
The Amateur Athletic Union-sanctioned meet will be held in the 25-yard, eight-lane P. L. Downs Natatorium at Texas A&M University.
Masters swimmers from four states are expected to enter. Competition in 17 events for men and women starts at 3 p.m. Saturday and 9 a.m. Sunday, according to meet director Will Worley.
The meet is sponsored by the Texas A&M Aquatics Club, College Station Swim Club and College Station Recreation Council.
It is part of a nationwide Masters Swimming Program, started in 1970. More than 5,000 Masters swimmers compete year round in local meets and two national meets a year.
Texas local meets have been held in Houston, Dallas, San Antonio, Corpus Christi, Austin, San Marcos, New Braunfels and Midland. Swimmers from these and other cities in Texas, Oklahoma, New Mexico and Louisiana will swim here.
The meet is open to all men and women swimmers 25 and older. They will compete in age groups of 25-29 and 30-34 to 65 and older. Events will include freestyle, backstroke, breaststroke, butterfly, individual medley, free style relay and medley relay of varied lengths.
Local swimmers who plan to compete include Bill McCulley, Kitty and Will Worley, Ed Blackledge, Wes Harper, Sheila Combs, Janet Storts, Carlton Ruch, Kirsten and Ramiro Galindo, Darlene Tuleen, Sayed El-Sayed, Jesse Coon, David Basco, Barbara Stipovic and Tim and Nina Rose.
Other interested swimmers should contact Worley at 846-6570.

Foolish Pleasure is favored

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Almost everybody tabs Foolish Pleasure as the solid favorite for Saturday's 101st Kentucky Derby except his own trainer, LeRoy Jolley.
"I guess you'd have to call him the favorite because of his record, but there are so many good horses in this race and it's which one will be ready on Saturday that will count," Jolley said.
Foolish Pleasure, owned by Knoxville, Tenn., banker John L. Greer, won all seven of his races last year, when he was named juvenile champion, and three of four this season.
The only loss was in the Florida Derby March 29 when Foolish Pleasure finished third.
Three weeks later he won the Wood Memorial in what Jolley thinks was the best race of his career.
"Of course, I hope he still has the greatest race still in him," he said.
Prince Thou Art, who conquered Foolish Pleasure in the Florida Derby, worked six furlongs in 1:15 and seven in 1:27 for trainer Lou Roundinello, who was pleased with the effort.
He plans the final workout for stablemate Sylvan Place Wednesday.
Ben Perkins, who trains Bombay Duck for Roland Aristone Sr., is one of those who believes Foolish Pleasure is far and away the horse to beat in the 1 1/4-mile Derby, which is scheduled to start at 5:32 p.m. EDT.
"Sure, Prince Thou Art might up and win it, but he's the kind of horse who runs good one time and then runs bad a couple of races," Perkins said. "Foolish Pleasure who beat Bombay Duck by a head in the Wood is the one I'll be watching."

MEMORIAL STUDENT CENTER BUILDING STUDIES QUESTIONNAIRE

The Building Studies Committee of the Memorial Student Center Council and Directorate has been delegated the responsibility of determining policies that will lead to more efficient use of the space in the MSC. Although we are unable at this point to determine what areas we have jurisdiction over, the committee is in a position to recommend usage of the facilities. To assist us in our recommendations, we would appreciate your views on how to use the MSC. Please fill out the questions below and return to the secretaries at the Student Programs Office on the second floor of the MSC.
Thank you.

1. How often do you use the MSC?
2. Have you ever used the Browsing Library? If so, how often?
3. Do you ever come to the MSC other than to check your mail? If so, what for?
4. How would you use the space along the corridors on the first and second floor?
5. What would you like to see added to the recreational area in the basement (near the bowling alley)?
6. Have you ever used the Beverley Braley Travel Service? If so, often? What were the results?
7. What are your comments about the snack bar and cafeteria?
8. Do you feel there is an adequate information center? If not, what is lacking?
9. What facilities do you feel are lacking in the MSC?
10. What facilities do you feel are unnecessary or being misused?
11. Would you like to see the Basement offer beer and/or mixed drinks at its performances?
12. Have you ever attended a banquet held at the MSC? If so, what did you think of the service and price? Who presented the banquet?
13. How would you attempt to increase usage of the student union?
14. Have you ever used the Arts and Crafts Center? If so, what was your opinion?
