

I'm not the Quarterback

Beware of my feature articles

By DAVID WALKER
Staff Sports Writer

In last week's column I said that the day of the jinx is over. I'm wrong, there is a jinx — me. I jinxed three basketball players this year with feature stories. After each story the player went out and had his worst game of the year. I did a big story after the Tech loss on how John Thornton wanted a rematch with Tech. Well, the Red Raiders went out and lost to Baylor so there was no rematch.

The biggest jinx came a couple of weeks ago when I had my first column. I wrote a funny little story on the trials and tribulations of having the same name as the school's number one signal caller. That did it, I'm sorry David. I should have never called him the number one signal caller.

The Aggies have a new number one man now — or do they?

David Shipman (At least half of the name is the same) started at the QB slot for the Maroons in Saturday's Maroon and White game. Mike Jay and David Walker also saw action with the number one Maroons.

Coach Emory still won't say that

Shipman is number one even though he started and had the most impressive statistics. "We'll choose a quarterback at a later date," Ballard said after the game Saturday. "All three quarterbacks will get deserved consideration after tonight. We are at a point where we can choose a QB because of positive reasons rather than negative ones," Ballard added.

Shipman had more time with the first team than Jay or Walker but all three had impressive stats. Shipman had 92 yards on 20 carries for a 4.6 average. He hit on eight of 13 passes for 183 yards and one TD. Mike Jay carried the pigskin nine times for 45 yards and a five-yard average. He hit both passes that he threw for 31 yards and one TD.

David Walker carried the ball one time for three yards and hit two of two passes for 73 yards and one TD.

Sports writers from around the state kept asking Ballard about his QB situation and he kept reminding them that he didn't know. "I'd like to use them all," Ballard said. After the way all three looked Saturday night it would be nice if he could.

It should be an interesting fall next year when the Ags start working out and the race picks up again for the number one QB spot.

★★★

Just thought I would give some of you something to think about. In the past the TAMU Athletic Department has gone out of its way to see that all students get into all sports events.

Remember the Tech football game last year when they put up

Owls sign basketballer from Ohio

HOUSTON (AP) — Rice basketball Coach Bob Polk announced Tuesday the signing of Kettering, Ohio schoolboy Andy Miller to an athletic scholarship.

The 6-foot-6 195-pound Miller averaged 15 points and 11 rebounds on the Fairmont West High School team in Dayton that won the Western Ohio League championship.

extra seats, remember all the conference basketball games when they set up closed circuit TV, remember the Texas baseball series when they put up extra seats, well those days are over.

The department went out of their way to see that you could see all these games but now I wouldn't blame them if they don't go to that trouble next year. With the $10 season pass there will be limited $3.50 tickets on sale and when they are gone there won't be any extra seats for anything but $7.

You really blew it students, you don't know how good you had it. Next year when you are sitting home listening to a home basketball game just think, "If I had only gone for the $17.50 plan I would be watching this game now."

Ag golfers make trek to Arizona

By NICK VOINIS
Staff Sports Writer

The Texas Aggie Golf team is in Tempe, Arizona today ready to begin play in the 54-hole Sun Devil Invitational tomorrow.

The tournament, hosted by Arizona State University, will take place at the McCormick Ranch Golf Course May 1, 2, 3. The field the Aggies will be facing won't be as tough as the recent All-America Invitational in Houston. Three teams out of the nation's top ten will be competing including Oklahoma State (No. 3), Brigham Young (No. 4), and Arizona State (No. 6).

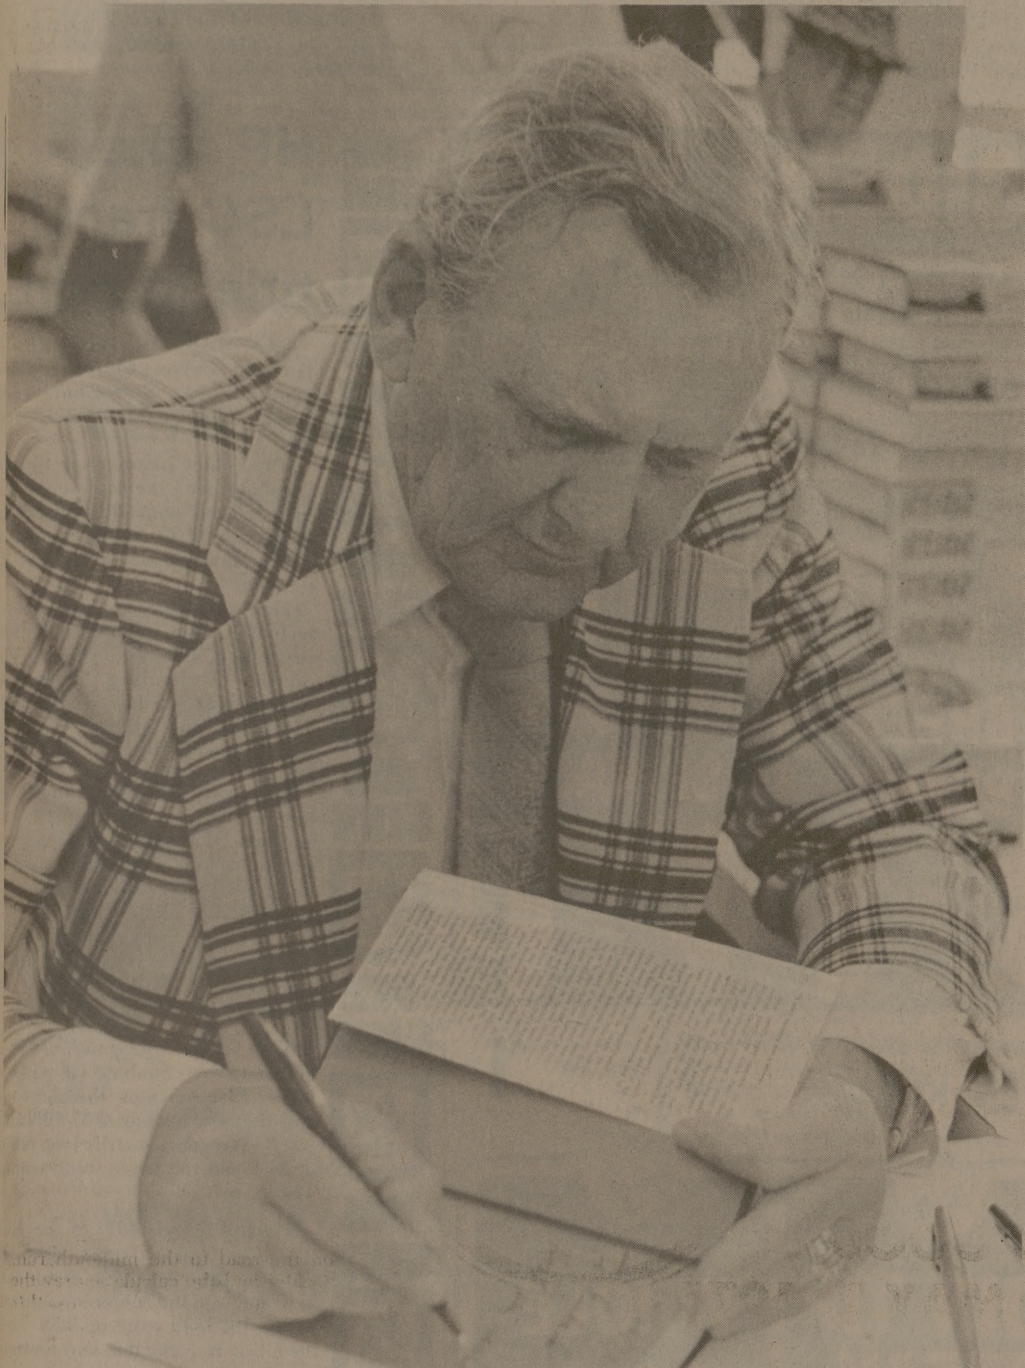

The field will be made up mainly of west coast teams including the Western Athletic Conference and the Pacific 8 Conference schools. Some top teams out of these conferences are Southern California and San Jose State. The Aggies will be the only Southwest Conference member to compete in this affair.

Aggie Coach Bob Ellis will be taking along a six man team composed of Bobby Baker (team leader at the AAI), Monte Schauer, Ed Pennington, Al Pryor, Tom Sutter and Gail Mayfield.

This tournament will be the final regular season match for seniors Pennington and Pryor before next month's SWC Championships in Lubbock on the 19th, 20th and 21st. The SDI will mark Mayfield's first tournament action this year, Pryor's second and Pennington's third.

Aggie regular Steve Whiteside will not be making the trip because of classes. His absence will be missed by the team because of his steady performances all year.

The sophomore from Midland wishes he was with his teammates, but is looking forward to the upcoming SWC Championships. Whiteside says the team to beat in the SDI will be the host, Arizona State.

(Photo by Glen Johnson)

One of the greatest collegiate football coaches of all time, Paul "Bear" Bryant signs autographs in his new book.

Texas A&M's New Championship Team, This Year and Every Year

THE 20-ISSUE SUBSCRIPTION PACKAGE INCLUDES:

Omega Phi Alpha is one Texas A&M campus organization that goes unbeaten every season. In terms of good works and helping hands, they're at the top of everybody's Top Ten. Heck, they've got a winning streak longer than old man river. Just color them No. 1.

Color Texas Football magazine No. 1, too. Because it's the very best. In a state where football always wears the crown, Texas Football is the magazine they all read and then read again. Both the fans AND coaches. "It's a best of breed," judged Jim Trinkle, the Fort Worth Star-Telegram columnist, back in 1962. It still is.

Now the champions are teaming up. And urging you to join the team. Omega Phi Alpha members have just been designated Texas Football magazine's official representatives at Texas A&M, which means the top women's organization on campus henceforth will be selling Texas Football subscriptions as a fund-raising project to support its many worthwhile ventures.

So what had been a good deal becomes a great deal. Now when you sign up for your favorite football magazine's matchless 20-issue package (see details at right), you will be contributing significantly to a great Texas A&M organization as well.

And this is the year, remember, when you are going to want Texas Football more than ever. And enjoy its many insider Newsmagazines and Newsletters, available only to subscribers. Because this is the year when the heavily-armed Texas Aggie football team has its sights clearly set on being No. 1, too.

- The giant preview issue in July. Provides the experts' preseason predictions ranging from Southwest Conference to the high school scene... all about each SWC team: the team analysis, two-deep roster, best newcomers, and marvelous game-action color photographs... and a matchless schoolboy section.
- August Countdown Newsletter. A look at the key developments at all levels as the players begin to assemble for the start of fall two-a-days... the summer schoolboy all-star games.
- Four In-Season Newsmagazines. One each in September, October, November and December, each packed with special features, columns, opinions, exclusive photographs on the SWC, college, pro & schoolboy fronts. September: Two-a-day predictions, developments, notes and quotes. October: How top scouts rate each SWC team. November: An appraisal of the best all-SWC candidates as graded by the coaches themselves. December: An exclusive checklist of best schoolboy recruits.
- Ten In-Season Newsletters. These eight-page newsletters provide special inside information every week of the football season except for those weeks when the monthly Newsmagazines are published. They include player interviews, columnists' views, special pro reports.
- Special Football-Basketball Newsletters in January and February. The emphasis is on recruiting, who the best prospects are and who the recruiting leaders are. But there's also special basketball coverage.
- The 96-page Spring Roundup in March. Giving exclusive assessments of the recruiting returns, latest SWC developments, a special look at the schoolboy champions, and a sizeup of the NFL draft.
- Spring Practice Newsletter in late April. Four special pages for insiders as SWC spring practices pass the half-way mark... plus basketball recruiting.

REMEMBER: Only subscribers receive all 20 issues of Texas Football around the calendar, and at the special price of $10 (by subscribing, you save $4.00 over single-issue purchases).

Send $10. Check or Money Order to:

OMEGA PHI ALPHA
P.O. Box F 14, Aggie Station
College Station, Texas 77844

Name _____
Address _____
City _____ State _____ Zip _____

First-class postage recommended for all Newsletters and Newsmagazines; enclose additional $3.00 per year if desired.

AGGIELAND FLOWER & GIFT
209 UNIVERSITY

SPECIAL CORSAGES FOR THE RING DANCE

CUSTOM DESIGNED

Pizza Inn
AMERICA'S FAVORITE PIZZA

Spaghetti Dinner
Wednesday Special $1.39

Our regular $1.89 Spaghetti Dinner with meat sauce, served in true Italian style with garden fresh salad and garlic toast.

Share a pizza today...

No. 2 Pizza Inn of Bryan
Next to Bryan High 1803 Greenfield Plaza
No. 1 Pizza Inn of College Station
413 Texas Ave.

Take a few minutes to bring your bicycle in for service.

You'll save time and money later.

WE SERVICE ALL MAKES OF BICYCLES

Also Sales Center For:
PEUGEOT • RALEIGH • BICYCLES

Bicycle parts & accessories

CENTRAL CYCLE & SUPPLY
Sales • Service • Accessories
3505 E. 29th St. — 822-2228 — Closed Monday
Take East University to 29th St. (Tarrow Street)

If You're Good — And Know You're Good — Why Not Let Us Help You Prove It.

If you're a good student and have an above average desire to succeed, we'd like to get together. We've built a highly successful agency in just four short years with a $3.8 billion insurance company. We offer the potential for immediate high income and the opportunity to grow with a growth-minded company. If you're interested in sharing your success with us write or call:

Thomas Associates
Protective Life Insurance Co.
P.O. Drawer CQ 520 E. University
College Station, Texas 77840
(713) 846-7714