

All-City performer from Chicago

A&M signs basketballer

EDITOR'S NOTE: Oklahoma All-Stater Joey Robinson has also signed with the Aggies; watch tomorrow's Batt for a feature on Robinson.

Bob Middleton, a 6-5 forward from Chicago, has signed a letter of intent to attend Texas A&M on a basketball scholarship.

Middleton led St. Benedict's High School to an 82-19 record and three league championships. He averaged 21.9 points and 10.8 rebounds per game as a senior.

Middleton was named to the all-city team in Chicago and honorable mention all-state in Illinois. He was chosen the Most Valuable Player in the South Central Prep League as a junior and senior. He turned down offers from Oklahoma, Michigan State, and Washington State to attend A&M.

"Bob is the kind of player you are looking for," said A&M assistant coach Norman Reuther. "He is a proven winner and very strong. I saw him score 23 points left-handed in one game after he broke his right hand. He is an excellent shooter and competitor."

In his junior and senior years, Middleton hit 48 percent of his field goal attempts and 80 percent from the free throw line.

Bob Middleton signs A&M letter as Coach Bob Zoretich looks on.

Crampton prevails in tourney

THE WOODLANDS — Veteran Brue Crampton fired a three under par 69 Sunday, to capture the 1975 Houston Open Championship, at The Woodlands Country Club.

The 39-year old Australian finished the tournament with a 72-hole score of 273, 15 under par, to take his second Open victory in three years. He received $30,000 for his efforts. Crampton's previous Houston Open win came in 1973 as he won a $40,000 first prize.

Dr. Gil Morgan finished two shots off the pace, for his best tour finish and $17,100 prize money. Joe Inman came in third taking $10,650 home.

Before Sunday's final round play, Crampton held a one stroke edge over Morgan and a five stroke lead over third place Inman. Then a birdie put on 15 sent the Sydney native two shots ahead and his lead proved to be safe.

Crampton (68-70-66-69), Morgan (70-68-67-70) and Inman (68-70-71-67) all shot four sub-par rounds to lead the field. John Schroeder finished in fourth place while four others tied for fifth including Lionel Hebert, Tom Kite, Larry Nelson and Eddie Pearce.

Arnie's Army had something to shout about Sunday as their hero played a fine bogeyless round and finished at 69 for the day. Palmer began rather slowly Thursday as he shot a two over par 74. He came back Friday with a two-under score, but Saturday's 76 put the old pro too far back in the pack.

Lee Trevino provided some excitement during the first two rounds as the Super Mex led the pack until Saturday. He finished six shots under par at 282, good for 11th place.

Controversy stirred up Sunday as golfers complained of the course set-up, heat and having to walk through the gallery of between 16,000-18,000 people, from green to tee.

Morgan, playing in the threesome ahead of Crampton, Trevino and Schroeder, was made to report to the PGA rules committee directly after play for a closed door meeting. He was accused of taking too much time on the final round, but the committee took into consideration the situation.

Ag golfers finish 15th in tourney

The Brigham Young University golf team fired a 54-hole 1089 total to take the Sun Devil Invitational in Tempe, Arizona this weekend.

Three teams tied for second, five strokes behind the winning pace, including the host Arizona State, and visitors Southern California and Oklahoma State. San Jose State followed at 1096.

The Texas Aggies finished 15th with a 1148 total. Tom Sutter led the team at 225 with Monte Schauer one stroke behind. Al Pryor finished at 229, Bobby Baker 233, Ed Pennington 235, and Gail Mayfield 238.

The Aggies next competition will come later on this month at Lubbock for the Southwest Conference Championships the 19th-21st.
