

'Good deeds can't be obtained through evil'

Former Special Watergate Prosecutor speaks at Law Day

By DAVID ROOP
Staff Writer

Former Watergate Prosecutor Leon Jaworski was presented last night by the Brazos County Bar Association and the Texas A&M Political Forum as the featured speaker for Law Day.

Jaworski, presently a senior partner in the law firm of Fulbright and Jaworski, is best known for his role in the Watergate hearings during 1973 and 1974.

"Today," Jaworski began, "we are looking for informed, intelligent leadership. Leadership at all levels, especially locally. Our concern is with the maintenance of America's citizens as truly obedient to the law," he said.

It is as true today as it has ever been, Jaworski said, that good deeds cannot be obtained through evil ways.

"As painful to this nation as the trials and tribulations of Watergate were," Jaworski said, "many foreign countries looked to us with admiration for the workings of our democracy."

Concerning Watergate, he said, "The people demanded that constitutional action be taken, and fortunately, there were leaders willing to take that action."

But what would happen to a society, Jaworski asked, if the people no longer care, and leaders no longer take action? As an example he cited Nazi Germany, where "evil slowly replaced good, and the voices of freedom were annihilated."

To prevent such a failure in the American legal system, Jaworski said, "Young people must be prepared to meet the obligations of leadership, the preservation of good laws, and the making of better laws."

The role of the State Bar Association, as exemplified by its motto "America's Goal — Justice through Law," must be to extend the teachings of America's laws and workings of our judicial system to elementary and junior high schools, Jaworski said.

"Citizens must join the crusade and cooperate in the education of their children.

"You and I have inherited the freedoms we enjoy," Jaworski said.

"They have been preserved by the faithful observance of law. And, if future Americans are to enjoy the freedoms of our present-day country, Jaworski said, "We must be faithful trustees."

House catches fire

The College Station Volunteers answered a fire call at 12:40 a.m. this morning in the 1200 block of Detroit Street.

A rented house owned by Willie D. Walker was the victim of the blaze and sustained considerable smoke damage to four or five rooms.

The house was uninhabited, the previous residents having moved out the day before. Except for the house itself, no other damage was done.

AAUW accepts Carstens

Susan Carstens, a graduating senior, has been awarded membership in the American Association of University of Women (AAUW).

The one-year membership was donated by the Bryan-College Station AAUW branch.

Toby Rives, Associate Director of Student Affairs, recommended Carstens for the membership.

While attending TAMU, Carstens was a charter member of the Alpha Lambda Delta sorority and a member of the Alpha Zeta chapter of CWENS. She is currently vice-president of Cap and Gown.

Carstens will enter SMU Law School in August as an international law major.

A&M honors 15 retirees

The Association of Former Students will honor 15 retiring faculty members at a Thursday reception and dinner.

Retiring faculty members this year represent a total of 386 years of service to the university.

The Ramada Inn program honoring the retirees will include remarks by President Jack K. Williams, Vice President for Academic Affairs John C. Calhoun Jr. and Former Students President John W. Caple.

Assistant Dean of Engineering John G. McGuire, who also holds the rank of professor of engineering design graphics, heads the retirees in length of service, with 42 years.

Other retirees with at least 30 years of service are Dr. Herbert A. Luther, professor of mathematics, 38 years; Dr. Tyrus R. Timm, professor of agricultural economics, and Neal M. Randolph, professor of entomology, 37 each, and Samuel M. Cleland, professor of engineering design graphics, 34.
