THINK BUFFALO COME TO THE MSC CAFETERIA WITH ALL YOUNG CHIEFS AND INDIAN PRINCESSES TO GREAT POW WOV. ORDER ROAST BUFFALO AND BE INITIATED IN THE ROYAL ORDER OF BUFFALO HUNTERS. THIS IS REAL BUFFALO... NO BULL. ALL WHO PASS THE TEST WILL BE PRESENTED WITH AN INDIAN HEADBAND. EACH EVENING 4:30 p.m. - 7:00 p.m. "Quality First"

By KEN STROEBEL Staff Writer Bam! Bam! Bam! "Come in." "Sir, Cadet Stroebel reporting as ordered, sir." "Oh, Mr. Stroebel. Come in. At ease. Havachair." "Yessir. Thank you." "As you know, you'll be graduating in a matter of days and regardless of whether you signed a contract or not, there's going to be a delay before you go on active duty. And, well, what do you think about becoming a nonreg?" "A nonreg, sir? I mean, isn't there a better way?" "The dropouts have all the jobs." "A... nonreg..." "Well, the Air Force has a program to teach you how to become civilized, kinda like the recivilization program of the returning POWs." "... nonreg..." "Might give you something to do for the duration. What do you say, Mr. Stroebel?" "... non-Sir?" "Clyde, you wanna step in here a moment?" "I want you to meet your nonreg instructor, Stroebel." "Howdy, Stroebel is my name." "Ah, Mr. Stroebel, I hadn't meant that literally. This is Clyde. Since he'll be working closely with you as your civilian, I think you need to establish a less formal working relationship." "Yessir, you're right, sir. Clyde, what does your mother call you?" "What does my-are you jivin' me, man?" "Say again?" "Are you jivin' me?" "No, I-I didn't think I was standing that close." "Mr. Stroebel, Clyde is his first name." "Oh, I see, sir. How convenient." "Mr. Stroebel, why don't you bring me your AFRNWP 36-10 from my office." "Yessir." "Hey, man, you gotta be kiddin' me, man. You expect me to lay some heavy jive on this dude?" "Look, Clyde, you must remember he's been a zip for a year. It's not something you get over quickly. Tell you what: Why don't you just stand by and I'll work with him some and then I'll call you when he's more advanced." "Right on, brother." "Ah, Mr. Stroebel. Just set it over here. Clyde had to step out for a minute. We here in Air Science thought we'd go ahead and issue you your AFRNWP 36-10 so you could start practicing being a nonreg." "Thirty-six dash ten? I'm not familiar with that, Sir." "Well, this is your Air Force Regulation Nonregulation Wearing Apparel Parcel. The Air Force has put together some things that will at least make you look like a nonreg. Let's see what we have here. 'Shirt; Tee, Men's, Cotton, Dirty, 1 ea.' There, try that on. Mr. Stroebel, you're putting it on backwards." "Yessir. What else is in there?" "Well, let's see. 'Bottoms; Bell, Jeans, Blue, Faded, Grass-stained, 1 pr.' Hm. Wonder why there's quotation marks around 'grass-stained'..." "These are going to need some work, Sir. They're low water. Need a crease pretty badly. And these cables at the bottom will have to go, sir. I'll have to sew the pockets shut, too. Why look at how much these will have to be taken in at the bottom of the legs, sir. No wonder the economy's messed up. The tailors must be making a killing." "Here's your 'Sandals; Back, Wet, 1 pr.'" "How quaint, sir. They're like the 'go-aheads' the POWs used. Well, at least there's not much to shine, sir. Although doing the brass may be a problem." "Is that all, sir? I mean, no belt? No buckle? No socks? Or-or boot bands?" "Apparently not." "Don't I get a copy of the 'Mani-festo'?" "Hm. I suppose that will come later. By the way, have you been studying your AFM 42-60?" "Conversational Nonreg, sir? Yessir. Let's see, 'Hey, man, what's happening, man?'" "Good..." "Um, um, 'Farm out, man.'" "Far out. Go on." "Uh, 'Right arm, brother.'" "Why, wasn't it your outfit that stole Bevo?" "Yessir, but-it... it's not the same thing, sir." "Come on, Mr. Stroebel! You aren't going to mess your class around, are you? Aren't you willing to give it an old Army try?" "I guess I could handle a short hitch, sir. Where do I sign?" "Good. And it might be a good place to start if you started growing a beard." "But sir, if God had intended for us to have hair on our faces, he would have put it there." "Mr. Stroebel, He did put it there." "Oh, Yessir."
