If you want to talk to the Texas Aggie baseball team next week try calling them in Provo, Utah or Tempe, Arizona or Oklahoma City or Greeley, Colorado or . . .

The Aggies got that long awaited call Monday from the NCAA telling them that they had made the playoffs for the first time since 1964.

The playoff site is undetermined and will stay as such until early next week. All sites will be determined when all of the playoff teams are decided.

The Aggies have waited for 16 days for the bid that will send them into the 1975 playoffs.

Some people are worried about the Aggs' inactivity since the regular season ended April 26, but Coach Tom Chandler has done something about that. He has scheduled five games with the number eight ranked team in the nation for this weekend.

His Aggies travel to Edinburg Friday to play nationally ranked Pan American. The men from the south are 56-4 on the season while the Ags are 31-8.

While Pan Am is ranked eighth the Aggies are ranked number 21 in the nation. Only eight teams in the nation have better records than the Aggies.

While the playoff spot is certain the rest is as much up in the air as before. Several conference championships remain undecided and until they are decided teams will not be assigned regional playoff destinations.

Arizona State and Brigham Young will battle for the WAC crown this weekend while Oklahoma and Nebraska are playing today for the Big 8 title. These two winners will have a bearing on where the Ags go.

Usually the NCAA would send a team to the regional closest to their home. If this is the case the Aggies would go to Oklahoma City, right, maybe so but maybe not.

This all depends on who else gets picked for the 32 team tournament. Not all teams were picked Monday. The rest of the teams will be picked next week when all assignments are made.

The only regional that is filled is the Midwest regional. The Midwest regional will be played at Arlington, Texas with Southwest Conference champion Texas, Pan American, South Alabama and the Southland conference winner.

So while the Ags wait for travel plans for their regional trip they will try to break some school records this weekend at Pan Am.

Hoot Gibson will try to become the winningest pitcher in a single season for the Ags. His nine wins ties the most wins ever by an Aggie pitcher in a season.

The Aggies can also break the record for most wins in a season. The 1971 and 1974 Aggies won 31 games.

The two teams will play five games. There will be a two-night doubleheader Friday and Saturday starting at 6 p.m. and a single game at 1 p.m. on Sunday. Friday night has been named Aggie night with two Aggies getting in for the prize one.

Prairie View prof tours Red China

PRAIRIE VIEW — A Prairie View A&M University instructor, better known for her track exploits, leaves Monday for an 18-day goodwill tour of China which will include clinics to help the Chinese prepare for the next Olympiad.

Debra Sapenter, who just graduated from PVAMU, is in her first year of teaching. At her alma mater, she is instructing freshman English.

She will be in a contingent of about 100 on the goodwill trip sponsored by the Amateur Athletic Union.

Nearly two-thirds of the group are athletes who will conduct clinics in which they will demonstrate techniques for improving track and field competitors. The Chinese are seeking to hone the edge of their tracksters before the next international Olympiad.

Ms. Sapenter, this past year's outstanding athlete of the Gulf Coast AAU affiliate, reports the trip will include five-day stops in Shanghai, Canton, and Peking.

During their stays they will fit in sight-seeing, exhibitions and meetings with Chinese and American officials around the clinics.

Originally from Virginia and the daughter of a military family, Ms. Sapenter ran an American record in her specialty of the quarter-mile at the Outdoor Women's National Championships. Her time was 52.2. It was also a world standard for the 440.

She was chosen outstanding athlete of that meet and has been on teams competing in Italy, Russia and Africa. Closer to home, she has run against Russian competitors at the Durham and Richmond contests.

Indy drivers test setups in practice

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (UPI) — Four former winners were among drivers who took advantage of a slack practice period Monday to test race-day setups for the 59th Indianapolis 500-mile auto race May 25.

Leading the parade were Gordon Johncock, Phoenix, Ariz., who got his bright red racer to a speed of 191.816 miles per hour, and pole winner A.J. Foyt, Houston. Foyt circled the 2 1/2-mile oval about 20 times at nearly 190 miles per hour while checking fuel consumption and handling.

Ten of the 16 cars which made appearances on the track were driven by men who qualified last Saturday or Sunday when 28 machines made the tentative starting field. Foyt was tops at nearly 194 miles per hour.
