Viridon named Astro manager

By MICHAEL A. LUTZ
AP
HOUSTON — Bill Viridon, fired as New York Yankee manager last month to make way for Billy Martin, was named Tuesday by one of his former Yankee bosses to replace Preston Gomez as manager of the Houston Astros.

The announcement of Viridon's hiring, which takes effect immediately, was made by new Astros General Manager Tal Smith. It came after Gomez demanded to know where he stood with the club.
"I know we can't win the pennant this year," said Viridon, referring to the fact that the Astros were mathematically eliminated from the National League East Division race Monday night.

"When I was hired at Pittsburgh and New York, I was expected to win," said Viridon, fired recently as

Yankees field leader. "But there are things we can do right away here and next year could be different."
Viridon is the second addition to the Astros staff from the Yankees organization in recent weeks. Smith, former executive vice president of the Yankees, was named general manager Aug. 7 to replace Spec Richardson, who had been Houston's general manager for eight years.

Viridon said he would study the Astros roster through the remaining games this season before making any comment on future trades. Viridon also said he would keep the present Houston coaching staff the remainder of the season.
Viridon declined to make any assessment of the Astros' situation. "I think it's in my favor to come in the last 30-odd games and get some idea of what we have."
Smith, who was still with the Yankees when Viridon was fired, said, "I have had the opportunity to closely observe Viridon's managerial capabilities during the last two sea-

Unser, Garrett solo

Homers overpower Astros

Associated Press
HOUSTON — Del Unser and Wayne Garrett slugged solo home runs to power the New York Mets beyond the Houston Astros 6-3 Tuesday night, spoiling Bill Viridon's debut as manager.

Viridon, fired by the New York Yankees last month, was hired earlier Tuesday to replace Preston Gomez, who was fired.

Unser slugged his sixth homer of the season in third and Garrett unloaded No. 6 in the fourth.

Jon Matlack, 14-8, had shut out the Astros on five hits until the ninth when he gave up a double to Enos Cabel, Cesar Cedeño's seventh homer of the year and Cliff Johnson's 11th homer. Both homers can with two out.

BLOOMINGTON, Minn. — Minnesota's Bert Blyleven retired the first 13 Baltimore batters and pitched the Minnesota Twins to a five-hit 5-2 victory over the Orioles Tuesday night.

The setback dropped second-place Baltimore eight games behind Boston in the American League's East Division. The triumph was Minnesota's ninth in 11 games.

MONTREAL — Steve Rogers scattered 10 hits and the Montreal Expos scored three unearned runs in the first inning enroute to a 5-0 victory over the San Diego Padres Tuesday night.

Jim Lyttle led off the Expos first by reaching safely on left fielder Bobby Tolan's error, was sacrificed to second by Jim Dwyer and went to third on a passed ball.

PITTSBURGH — Jerry Reuss pitched a three-hitter and Al Oliver drove in a pair of runs with a homer and a double to help the Pittsburgh Pirates halt a six-game losing streak and beat the San Francisco Giants 4-0 Tuesday night.

The victory, coupled with Philadelphia's 6-4 loss to Atlanta, moved the Pirates back into sole possession of first place in the National League East, one game ahead of the Phillies, and it followed a 2-12 road trip in which Pittsburgh squandered a four-game lead.

KANSAS CITY — Bill Lee hurled a four-hitter and rookie Fred Lynn slammed a double and a two-run homer to lead the Boston Red Sox to a 5-0 victory over the Kansas City Royals Tuesday night.

Dwight Evans, Bob Heise and Rick Bursleson also drove in runs for the American League East leaders.

NEW YORK — Jorge Orta's single scored pinch runner Nyls Nyman from second base in the 11th inning, lifting the Chicago White Sox to a 7-6 victory over the New York Yankees Tuesday night.

Carlos May drew a leadoff walk from reliever Sparky Lyle, 3-6, and was sacrificed to second. Nyman ran for him and raced home on Orta's soft bouncing single between first and second.

CHICAGO — Lee Lacy's triple and John Hale's sacrifice fly in the eighth inning combined with the two-hit pitching of Don Sutton and Mike Marshall and gave the Los Angeles Dodgers a 2-1 victory over the Chicago Cubs Tuesday.

ATLANTA — Dave May walked a two-run pinch homer in the ninth inning Tuesday night, capping an Atlanta comeback that lifted the Braves to a 6-4 victory over Philadelphia and knocked the Phillies out of a first-place tie in the National League's East Division.

Rob Belloir singled with one out in the ninth and May drilled his eighth home run of the season off reliever Gene Garber, 9-8.

ST. LOUIS — Willie Davis returned from five days of self-exile on the disqualified list with two singles, a double and a triple, helping the St. Louis Cardinals edge the Cincinnati Reds 2-1 Tuesday night behind Lynn McGlothen's four-hit pitching.

By winning, the Cardinals ended Cincinnati's nine-game winning streak and remained in third place just 2½ games behind Pittsburgh in the National League's East Division and only 1½ games in back of Philadelphia.

CLEVELAND — Texas' Jim Umberger beat Cleveland's Dennis Eckersley in a rookie pitching duel as the Rangers tripped the Indians 2-1 Tuesday night.

Eckersley, 9-5, gave up a double to Dave Moates leading off the game and he came around to score on two infield outs.

OAKLAND — Ron LeFlore singled in the winning run and Mickey Lolich scattered nine Oakland hits Tuesday night as the Detroit Tigers beat the A's 3-1 for their fourth straight victory after losing 19 straight games.

Fans to select best memories

Fans are invited to help select the most memorable moment and personality in Houston Colts-Astros baseball history by entering the Most Memorable Moments contest being held by the Major Leagues for the Bicentennial Celebration.

Fans may submit entries to Most Memorable Moments, P. O. Box 288, Houston, Texas 77001, by midnight, Wednesday, Sept. 24 (Astros last home game). Winners from each club will be announced at the Winter Baseball Meetings in December in Florida.

Winners in both categories from the 24 current clubs and several which no longer exist will be placed on a national ballot for voting during June of 1976.
