These are comments by voters in the annual TCU football poll who picked, as a group, the Aggies to take the title. For more information on the poll and more quotes, see section four of this issue.

--- Robert Hill, KEEK-KJCS Radio, Nacogdoches.
"Texas Aggies will finally get over the shock of Maggies on campus and come up with the championship. If the Aggies don't win, it will have to be said the best team didn't." --- Tim May, Lufkin News.
"Aggies have all the equipment to carry the load --- size, speed and experience --- unless recurring mechanical problems (remember Dallas and Austin?) once again abort the trip to the Cotton Bowl."

--- Ray Collins, Houston Post.
"Tradition tells me that A&M will figure some way to lose it, but logic says they have the best team --- so for once I'll try to be logical." --- Rob Wiley, KARK-TV, Little Rock.
"A&M has the personnel to win, but the choice is a fragile one. The memory of Texas' victory over the Aggies in 1974 --- with many of the same players returning --- isn't easily forgotten." --- Jim Trinkle, Fort Worth Star-Telegram.
"Break a neck --- caneck, caneck." --- David Holmes, Palestine Herald-Press.
"Aggies gag 'em." --- Carl Guys, Del Rio News Herald.
"The Aggies have too much talent this time. Even they couldn't blow it now --- I don't think. The first four or five teams should all contend for the title and SMU should be strong offensively. For once, that old saw about the SWC being better overall should be true." --- Carter Cromwell, Lubbock Avalanche-Journal.

"The Aggies are loaded; Texas is Texas; Tommy Duniven may be the league's next superstar; Baylor played with more emotion than talent last year, and what talent they had is gone; TCU is the most improved team in the league over last year." --- Joe Stroop, WBAP Radio, Fort Worth.
"I put eight names in a hat and picked out A&M's." --- Denne Freeman, AP.
"I worked from the bottom up and Texas A&M was the only team left." --- Randy Harvey, Dallas Times-Herald.

Some liked the Longhorns:
"It's a battle of history vs. Texas A&M. Having seen Texas defeat my alma mater 282-73 over the last seven seasons, I'll have to go with history." --- John Curylo, Port Arthur News.
"We've got to invent a stronger word than 'Superstar' for Earl Campbell of Texas. King Kong couldn't stop him, and even if he could, the original 'Monster Man' isn't on A&M's roster." --- Carlos Deere, Brenham Banner-Press.
"Longhorns showed what they could do last year with incentive when they beat the Aggies --- and what they couldn't do without incentive when they lost to Auburn in the Gator Bowl. Now they've got plenty of incentive, plus senior quarterback." --- Galyn Wilkins, Fort Worth Star-Telegram.

"Think there is a great pre-season tendency to overlook the Longhorns in the rush to get on the Aggie Bandwagon. All the things A&M has in abundance Texas match, plus a proven winner in senior QB Marty Akins." --- Frank Fallon, KWTC Radio-TV, Waco.
"Beef shortage is over for Texas Aggies will find a new way to lose Longhorns." --- Van Thomas, Nacogdoches Daily Sentinel.
"Willie Nelson, Charley Pride, Stegall, Topm T. Hall... they pick for D.K.R. That's good company to keep." --- Jesse Miller, Brazosport Facts.
"Aggies have the best team, but when it counts... again." --- Robert Krug, San Angelo Standard-Times.

And there were some Porter players:
"Arkansas, schedulewise, is returning to the Arkansas of old, with easy non-conference opponents to build its confidence. And this year the conference schedule is in the Hogs' favor. It should come down to that Dec. 6 Ark-A&M battle for the conference title." --- Paul Parsons, Arkansas Democrat.
"The outcome will be decided Dec. 6 in Little Rock." --- Jim Dent, Fort Worth Press.
"After several years in rinse cycle things finally come out in wash-hogwash." --- David McCallum, Orange Leader.
"Sometime soon Frank Broyles' field team will perform like his paper team. Maybe this is the year." --- Merv Dawson, KEBB KOOI Radio, Jacksonville.

Among others:
"Top blue chippers in state along with top defense means SWC championship." --- Joe Ganss, KWVC, Vernon, picking Baylor to repeat.
"I picked Baylor last year but forgot to mail it in. Make it two upsets in a row. Raiders have good schedule and want to win for Sloan." --- Dallas Huston, KBWD Radio, Brownwood.

Standings and Texas baseball

ST. LOUIS (AP) --- Reg Smith's 12th-inning single scored Bake McBride with the winning Tuesday night, giving the St. Louis Cardinals a come-from-behind triumph over the Houston Astros in the first game of a doubleheader.

ARLINGTON, Tex. (AP) --- Dave Moates cracked a 10th-inning single with the bases loaded Tuesday night, lifting the Texas Rangers to a 3-2 victory over the Detroit Tigers.

Len Randle led off the inning with a single and was sacrificed second by Mike Cabbage before walks to Mike Hargrove and Burroughs filled the bases. Moates, whose single to left defeated Dave Pentz, 0-3.

The Tigers had taken a 2-0 lead in the fourth but the Rangers tied it in the sixth.
