Told Oswald dangerous

FBI sits on data

Associated Press
HOUSTON — A Texas newspaper says the FBI and Dallas police officials suppressed for at least five months a statement which quoted an FBI agent as saying Lee Harvey Oswald was capable of assassinating President John F. Kennedy.

The Houston Chronicle said Dallas Police Chief Jesse Curry finally told of his role in the coverup in a registered, confidential letter to Chief Justice Earl Warren on May 28, 1964. However, the commission, which said Oswald acted alone in the slaying, dropped the matter without further investigating, the newspaper said.

The Chronicle, in a copyright story in its Monday editions, said the written statement was made by Dallas Police Lt. Jack Revill.

Revill's statement said FBI agent James Hosty told Revill a few hours after Kennedy was killed in Dallas Nov. 22, 1963, that the FBI had advance information that Oswald was capable of committing the crime.

However, Revill's statement was kept locked in a desk at the Dallas Police Department for five months, the Chronicle said. The newspaper said the documents on Revill's statement and the five-month coverup are among papers of the Texas Court of Inquiry and are now in the Texas State Archives in Austin.

In his letter to Warren, Curry, now in charge of security at a Dallas bank, said he instructed Revill to keep his statement confidential after he was requested to do so by J. Gordon Shanklin, then special agent in charge of the Dallas FBI.

The Chronicle published a copy of Curry's letter to Warren in its Monday editions.

Curry produced Revill's statement to the Warren Commission April 22, 1964 and Hosty and Revill were summoned to testify.

Revill stood by his statement, the Chronicle said, but Hosty denied that the FBI had information that Oswald capable of killing the President. The Warren Commission, in its final report, dismissed the incident as a disagreement "about the conversation which took place between them."

"There's no doubt in my mind that his (Shanklin's) agent told my agent (Revill) what he did," the Chronicle quoted Curry as saying now.

The Chronicle said there is no record in the archives that Warren or anyone else from the Warren Commission answered Curry's letter.

Today, Curry says the commission "probably forgot about it."

Hosty, still with the bureau in Kansas City, declined to discuss any aspect of the Kennedy assassination in a recent interview, the Chronicle said.

"I'm still with the bureau: I like my job; I can't say anything about anything," the newspaper quoted him as saying.

Shanklin, retired from the FBI and now an attorney in Dallas, denied he told Curry to suppress the statement.

"I don't know what he's (Curry) talking about," the Chronicle quoted Shanklin as saying recently.

"... So many things happened that day... I may have called Curry about one thing or another, but I don't remember calling him to tell him to suppress anything. I don't know what he's talking about."

Revill, now with the tactical division of the Dallas Police Department, said he stands by his statement to this day.

"You bet I do. It happened. I know it happened, and Hosty knows it happened. I hated to do it at the time, write it down like that, because I knew Hosty would get crucified. It's tragic the way he was ostracized by the bureau."

Curry said he told newsmen about the Revill report when he received it, saying he had information that the FBI knew of Oswald's presence in Dallas.

Within minutes, Curry said, Shanklin was on the telephone asking Curry to retract the statement.

"I then appeared before the press again," Curry said recently, "and retracted my statement to this extent: I stated that of my own personal knowledge I did not know that the FBI knew of Oswald's presence in Dallas."

The Revill statement was revealed first when Curry personally delivered it to the Warren Commission April 22, 1964.

Park land could be doubled

A proposal to double the amount of park land dedicated by developers to the city will be discussed at a public meeting of the College Station City Council park land dedication subcommittee tonight at 7. The meeting will be in the council room of City Hall at 1101 Texas Ave.

The proposal would require developers to dedicate an acre for each 100 dwelling units constructed instead of an acre for every 200 dwelling units under the present ordinance.

The proposal would also ensure sufficient payment from developers if the city requests a cash settlement instead of the land.
