Irwin won the SWC shot put in 1933 and 1934 and the discus in 1934. He was the first man south of the Mason-Dixon line to throw the shot more than 50 feet, and his SWC record of 502¼ stood until broken by A&M's Darrow Hooper in 1951. He was chosen the most valuable track man in 1934 and was on the All-America honor roll in shot and discus. Following his Army service in WWI as a major, Irwin worked for the Veterans Administration in Lubbock until his retirement in 1967. He is now working for the Texas Rehabilitation Commission in Austin.

Burgess was a member of the 1927 football team which won the Southwest Conference championship. He earned All-SWC honors at fullback in 1928. He lettered in football in 1926-27-28 and in track in 1927-28. Burgess saw duty in WWII as a captain in the Air Force intelligence corps in the European Theatre. His entire business career has been in College Station where he is now Chairman of the Board of Community Savings and Loan Association and on the Board of Directors of University National Bank. From 1932-52 he was a member of the Southwest Football Officials Association and worked in many SWC games and bowl games. He served on the A&M Century Council which was appointed by late A&M President Earl Rudder to plan A&M's goal for its centennial in 1976.

McQuillen earned All-Southwest Conference honors in basketball in 1918-19-20, one of the few men ever to do so. He was captain of the 1920 A&M team which won the SWC championship with a 19-0 record, the only undefeated basketball team in A&M history. He served as assistant basketball coach in 1922. McQuillen was an outstanding student who was valedictorian and president of his class. From 1925-47, McQuillen served as Executive Secretary of the A&M Association of Former Students. He then became director of the A&M Development Fund until retirement in 1963. He originated the idea of Opportunity Awards Scholarships and served as National President of the American Alumni Council. His home is in College Station.

Wilkins, who died Feb. 20, 1974, was one of the most versatile athletes in A&M history. He earned football letters in 1934-35, basketball letters in 1934-35-36 and track letters in 1935-36. He was co-captain of the 1935 football team and Most Valuable Player on the 1934 basketball team. He was a successful football and basketball coach at Bowie High School before serving in World War II as a Lt. Colonel. He retired from the Army Reserve as a full colonel. Wilkins served as Assistant Dean of Men and Assistant Commandant at A&M before becoming Commandant at Allen Academy in Bryan. He spent many years officiating SWC football and basketball games. Wilkins also served as Commissioner of the Southland Conference.

Area high school football news

By TONY CALLUCCI
Sports Editor

Well y'all have heard by now that the Aggies are gonna be pretty tough this year and you might've been picking grapes when the vine told you that Bryan High is the schoolboy pick this year. So what more could you ask for? How about an equally tough 3A high school in the same area.

The A&M Consolidated Tigers apparently felt they weren't about to be left out of the local sports scene and romped a favored Wharton team by a score of 18-0 Friday night in College Station.

Sporting a trio of backfield horses, Dean Spannagel, Reggie Carr and Brad Davis, the Tigers churned out 140 yards to half that by Wharton and added another 33 yards in the air to Wharton's 40. Significant was Consol's ability to push the visitors at will down the field piling up 13 first downs to Wharton's three.

The opening game jitters showed as Wharton lost 115 yards on 13 penalties, mostly offsidies.

The unheralded Carr was the spark for the Tigers that evening with 55 yards but had a beautiful 59-yard scamper called back for clipping across-field.

The Consol line of Steve Boatwright, Ashraf Ayoub, Richard Cox, Kenny Davidson, Hamp Keahy and Paul Gardner did a superb job. So did the band.

The shutout was almost snuffed but a 45 yard Wharton pass play died at the seven yard line as time ran out.

The Tigers will play in Crockett this weekend against a considerably weaker unit. For the first time in many years, the Tigers may start season 2-0.

Meanwhile, about ten miles distant, the No. 1 ranked Bryan Vikings were trying to overcome a determined Beaumont Hebert team. The Vikes prevailed 24-13 after going to the locker room at the half behind by a score of 10-2.

The visitors' keying on star running back Curtis Dickey and line game jitters held Bryan scoreless the first half and it was some tough last quarter play and little luck that helped the home team out. The full story, though, is told by the statistics which show Bryan with 269 total yards, of which 199 is rushing. Bryan obtained 16 first downs to Hebert's 14.

The Vikings travel to Conroe to play the rival Tigers this weekend.

Hunter is still consistent

Associated Press

NEW YORK — When the New York Yankees signed Catfish Hunter for $3.75 million last New Year's Eve, they had visions of winning the American League East pennant.

After all, Hunter had been the most consistent pitcher in the league in recent years.

Those dreams now have turned into ashes, but it's not the fault of the ace right-hander. He has held up his end of the deal.

After a shaky start, in which he lost his first three decisions of the 1975 season, Hunter currently owns a 20-13 record — the fifth consecutive year in which he has won at least 20 games — a sparkling 2.60 earned run average, a career high seven shutouts and 27 complete games — the most by a Yankees pitcher in 54 years — in 35 starts.

Billy Martin, the new Yankees manager, is impressed by those numbers and by Hunter. "I'm a great manager when he pitches," says Martin.

"People don't give him enough credit for being smart," adds the manager. "He's got great stuff and he knows where to put the ball. He is the only pitcher who can pitch with control and velocity. Other pitchers have to let up to have that kind of control."

Slugging Reggie Jackson, Hunter's former teammate at Oakland, also is impressed. "The Cat is the best," observes Jackson. "He likes to beat us because of who we are. Hunter has beaten the A's four straight times this season."

Hunter admits that his latest victory, a 2-0, six-hitter over Baltimore on Sunday, was something special.

It enabled him to become only the third pitcher in the 75-year history of the American League to win 20 or more games in five consecutive seasons, the others being legendary Walter Johnson, who did it 10 straight years, and Lefty Grove, with seven in a row.

Seven National League pitchers — "Three Finger" Brown, Grover Cleveland Alexander, Carl Hubbell, Warren Spahn, Robin Roberts and Ferguson Jenkins — did it.

"I've wanted to get up there with the greats all my life," says the soft-spoken Hunter. "It's nice to be in company like that. I just hope I can keep it up."

"It feels great," he continues, "but I owe it to the teams behind me. To Oakland for the first four seasons and to the Yankees this year. A pitcher is only as good as his team."
