Osborne, Roaches to get more action

By PAT EDMONDSON
Sports Writer

For the fourth consecutive season, Aggie football fans will view the familiar meat ticket figures of Richard Osborne and Carl Roaches at the end positions. They are two of the nine veteran seniors who were recruited by Head Coach Emory Bellard and who lettered as freshmen.

In his first two years, Osborne chalked up 60 completions for 845 yards and two touchdowns. Roaches' statistics were nearly as impressive, as he caught 32 passes for 586 yards during the same tenure. In 1974, Aggie quarterbacks attempted only 104 passes, 48 of which were successfully completed. Richard Osborne and Carl Roaches touched the football a mere 22 times last year. Both are looking for a bumper year in 1975.

Osborne, a 6-5, 230 pound tight end from San Antonio, Lee is presently tied for third on the all-time A&M list in career receptions and needs only 19 catches to surpass record holder Barney Harris. Also, he holds only 309 yards in receptions to lead the school record for career receiving yards.

Last season, he was voted second team All Southwest Conference, mainly because of his excellence in blocking. "Richard should have a great senior year," commented receiver coach Chuck Moser. "He is a super blocker. He has great hands and we will definitely take more advantage of him as a receiver this year.

Roaches, at 5-8 and 165 pounds, was also highly praised by Moser for his blocking abilities. "Nobody realizes how great a blocker Carl Roaches really is," said Moser. "He really looked great during two-a-days. When the stand would score a touchdown, Carl would always make that final block throughout the play."

Last year, the Aggie ground attack was potent enough to overlook their inability to pass. The Aggies cannot afford to fall behind early and
