

Ags finish fifth

By DAVID WALKER
Battalion Sports Writer

The second-annual Texas A&M Women's Intercollegiate Softball Tournament is now history with Texas Women's University the new champion.

TWU won the double-elimination tourney by beating out Sam Houston State in the final game, 2-0. Third place went to defending tourney champion University of Texas at Arlington. TWU is the defending State Champion.

"It was a very strong tournament," Aggie coach Kay Don said Monday. "The teams that were here are the best in the state."

Don pointed out that all games except one were decided by two or less runs.

"That shows what we've got in front of us," she said. "Everyone is downed the Baylor Bearettes 2-0, but were knocked out of the tournament by Stephen F. Austin 4-2.

The Aggies tied with Lamar University for fifth. Lamar was knocked out by UT Arlington 8-7.

The Aggie women get back into action this week when they host Rice University Wednesday at Haswell Park in Bryan.

After the single game against Rice the Aggies travel to the TWU tournament in Denton.

Twelve teams to be entered in the tourney are: A&M, UT, TWU, Sam Houston State, Texas A&I, Stephen F. Austin, Baylor, Lamar, West Texas State, Southwest Texas State, Austin College and North Texas State.

Netters raked by Tigers

The tennis team fell to LSU, 8-1, last Saturday in an exhibition match in Baton Rouge.

The only bright spot came in the number three doubles match. In that particular match, Mark Silberman, a junior from Odessa, and Robin Baker, a freshman from Shreveport brought the Maroon and White their lone victory.

"They had an excellent team," said Tennis Coach Richard Barker. "We didn't realize how tough they were because we didn't have a scout report on them. I don't like to make excuses," said Barker. "But our boys really weren't ready to play. Due to rain, we missed three days of practice last week, and that had a definite effect."

Holding down the top spots along with Silberman and Baker are Charles Emley, a junior from San Antonio, Tom Courson, a junior from El Paso, John Kirvan, a junior from Midland, and Mike Moss, a freshman from Houston.

"This team is one of the easiest bunch of kids I've worked with at A&M," commented Barker. "They are a very young group, with much enthusiasm. We look forward to a very enjoyable fall," he said.

The team will compete next in a charity tournament sponsored by WTAW radio Oct. 4 and 5.

Soccer team strong, blitzes Lamar 4-1

Habib Ben-Ali scored his fourth goal of the young season to lead the Texas A&M Soccer team to a 4-1 victory over Lamar University on Saturday.

Ben-Ali scored during the first half of a header, while Arturo Wolf contributed a goal on a fast break. Lamar's only score came in the first half also, on an Aggie defensive lapse to make the score 2-1 at the half.

Coach Kurt Irgolic installed a new tactical set-up for the Ags who are undefeated after two games. The slow start in the last game was attributed to nervousness, indecision and a rough unfamiliar field.

During the second half, A&M dominated the game but could still force only two shots past Lamar. Mehrdad Farrokhnia and Keit Mogatle each tallied for the maroon and white.

A&M is averaging five goals per game to the opponent's two so far this season. Ben-Ali has scored four times with Farrokhnia and Mogatle each having added two goals this season. Wolf and David Longoria have added one apiece so far.

This Saturday the Ags will host the Texas Intercollegiate League champions from the University of Houston on the Drill Field at 5 p.m.
