AP defensive player

Hayes honored for play

DALLAS — Lester Hayes was so good at so many different sports that there was a good deal of discussion on what he should do when he graduated from Houston Wheatley High School.

Illinois certainly wishes Hayes had chosen basketball or track instead of football.

The Texas Aggie strong safety intercepted two passes, batted down three more on blitzes and made five tackles Saturday in a 43-13 victory over the Fighting Illini. For the performance, Hayes was named The Associated Press Southwest Conference Defensive Player of the Week.

Hayes once lost the state schoolboy 100 yard dash in a dead heat. The timers clocked him at 9.4. He was the Class 4A schoolboy 220 champion and was a six-foot center on Wheatley's state champion basketball team.

"I didn't want to play basketball in college because I felt I was too small," said Hayes, who now stands 6-foot-2.

Hayes was the sixth man on Wheatley's run-and-gun basketball team which averaged some 100 points per contest.

He's a junior now at Texas A&M and Texas A&M Coach Emory Bellard says of the ballhawk: "He can mortally fly and he will mortally knock the fire out of you."

A&M defensive coordinator Melvin Robertson delights in giving Hayes the signal to blitz the enemy quarterback on suspected passing downs. In one such instance last Saturday, Hayes nearly decapitated the Illini quarterback.

"We like to do a lot of gambling and we can usually get away with it," said Hayes.

Hayes said he likes to blitz because "our front seven does such a good job that it can get kind of lonesome back in the secondary at times."

At Houston Wheatley, Hayes

played defensive end and was enough to be an outside linebacker for the Aggies in 1974. Now, he found a home at safety on one of the strongest defenses in the country.

"Playing football like we play a lot of fun," said Hayes. "I really can go undefeated."

Vikings retain Number 1 ranking

The Associated Press The Bryan Vikings, strapped with forfeits in their first three games because they used an ineligible player, nonetheless retained their No. 1 Class 4A ranking this week in The Associated Press Schoolboy Football Poll.

Bryan Coach Merrill Green discovered through a check this week that starting fullback Richard Harris was too old to participate under University Interscholastic League (UIL) rules.

Under UIL guidelines a player who reaches his 19th birthday on or before Sept. 2 is ineligible. Harris, a second team all-state nose guard at defense last season, is 15 days too young.

Although the Vikings won all three of their opening games, they fell into this week's Dist. 15-4A ranking against No. 3 ranked Killeen with an official 0-3 record.

Grapeland, the defending Class 4A state champion, became the first ranked team to lose this season when No. 8 Groveton blasted the champs 39-12 last week and vaulted to the runnerup position this week. Grapeland fell to seventh.

Cuero in 3A Cameron in 2A and Big Sandy in B, maintained their rankings.

Fifth ranked Jacksboro and ranked Alpine were losers in Class 2A and No. 3 Cisco was tied by Belton. Jacksboro lost to Breckinridge and Alpine was shutout by new Class 3A entry Pecos, 24-0.

Breckinridge moved into the No. 9 position this week and McCombs and Tullia tied for 10th. Second ranked Brookshire-Royal and Hill day, tied for 10th, were other Class 4A losers. Royal dropped to ninth this week and Holliday fell from the 10.

Sudan disappeared from the Class B rankings and was replaced by Bant, 4-0 as the No. 10 team.
