

Sparky Anderson takes potshots

Associated Press
BOSTON — While Manager Darrell Johnson and his Boston Red Sox waited placidly for Friday's arrival of the Cincinnati Reds, controversy swirled around Sparky Anderson and his national League champions.

Anderson has been firing off shots in a psychological World Series war, shots aimed at the unusual delivery — he calls it a balk move — of Luis Tiant, Boston's ace pitcher and starter in Saturday's opening game.

On Thursday in Cincinnati, he took a swipe at the news media following reports he had sent films of Tiant's delivery to league officials.

And Anderson was the target of a

Johnson did a bit of bumping, too. In a surprise move, he named left-hander Bill Lee to start Sunday's second game and moved right-hander Rick Wise back to a third-game start Tuesday night in Cincinnati.

Anderson, assailing the writers for the second time in a week, was clearly annoyed over the Tiant film story which appeared Wednesday in the Boston Globe. He called it "a total lie" and threatened to lock out the writers in the future. "Either the truth comes out or everything stops," he snapped.

Both Tiant and Johnson appeared unperturbed by the sudden frenzy over Tiant's herky-jerky move: "He can say what he wants. I don't let it bother me," Tiant said of Anderson.

"I'm not going to change — not after all these years. I've been 11 years in the major leagues and I've never had a balk called on me."

"I come to three or four stops on the way down. If they call it, they call it. I never pitched in the National League."

Then reserve catcher Bob Montgomery ambled by. "Hey Luis!" he shouted. "They can't call a balk if nobody's on first base."

"That's right, Monty," Tiant replied. "And nobody ever stole first base on me."

And Johnson observed: "They have the same rules for both leagues. The National League umpires must know them as well as the umpires in our league. This talk about the balk doesn't faze me a bit."

Dick Butler, the American League supervisor of umpires, was unavailable for comment regarding the sudden attention paid to Tiant's motion.

But Fred Fleig, his counterpart in the National League, said the umpires would be watching three things.

"The first is the slow, step-by-step drop of his hands . . ." Fleig said. "Second, his rhythm in the way he drops his hands has to be constant and, after the way everybody in the American League complained, he's been okay there. Third, if he throws to first, he'd better look like he stepped to first before he threw."

TP&WD opens deer hunt areas

By LEE ROY LESCHPER
Battalion Staff Writer

Almost 150,000 acres on six Texas wildlife management areas will be opened to deer hunters this fall. The Texas Parks and Wildlife Department will select a limited number of hunters by lottery for the hunts.

The annual hunts are designed to control deer populations on six state management areas. The six areas are Black Gap Area, 100,000 acres in Brewster County, fifty-five miles south of Marathon; Sierra Diablo Area, 7,791 acres in Culberson County 32 miles northwest of Van Horn; Chaparral Area, 15,200 acres eight miles west of Artesia Wells in Dimmitt and La Salle Counties; Engeling Area, 10,941 acres 20 miles northwest of Palestine in Anderson County, Gene Howe Area, 5,821 acres six miles east of Canadian in Hemphill County; and Kerr Area, 6,493 acres eleven miles west of Hunt in Kerr County.

Hunters for the areas will be selected by public drawing Oct. 23, at the Parks and Wildlife Department's state headquarters in Austin. Applicants have until 5 p.m., Oct. 20, to get their application forms to the department office. John H. Reagan Building, Austin.

Local hunters can pick up application forms for the hunts at the Parks and Wildlife office at 3825 Old College Road in Bryan. Hunters may apply for one hunt individually or in groups of up to four, but all members of a group must be included on the same application. Applicants must be at least 12 years old and those under 17 years must be accompanied on the hunt by a parent or some person over 21 who will be responsible for his conduct during the hunt.

and Dec. 5-8; Engeling, Nov. 15-18 and 21-24, Nov. 28-Dec. 1, and Dec. 5-8; Gene Howe, Nov. 22-23, and 29-30, and Dec. 6-7; and Kerr, Nov. 15-Dec. 1.

Several state management areas will also be open for squirrel, quail, dove, and waterfowl hunting during the fall. Information on these hunts can be obtained from the Parks and Wildlife Department or the department office in Bryan.

Bubba Bean closes in on Aggie rushing record.

By State Law no person who received a permit for any management area hunt during 1974 is eligible to receive a permit for a 1975 hunt. If a hunter who received a 1974 permit applies for one of this year's hunts, his application will be invalidated or will be removed from his application form if he applied as part of a group.

Dates for the hunts are: Black Gap, Nov. 29-Dec. 8; Sierra Diablo, Nov. 29-Dec. 4; Chaparral, Nov. 15-16 and 21-24, Nov. 28-Dec. 1,

BUYING PAGES IN THE AGGIELAND '76 FOR ORGANIZATIONS AND CLUBS

In an attempt to set precedent concerning the conflict of recognized versus unrecognized organizations and clubs, The Aggieland '76 is requiring organizations and clubs desiring to be represented in the book BE RECOGNIZED BY THE UNIVERSITY.

Even if an unrecognized organization or club has bought pages in past Aggielands, if they want to be included this year the organization or club must go through the recognition procedures established by the university.

An organization or club wanting to become recognized can do so at the Student Programs Office, second floor of the MSC.

The Aggieland will accept no organization or club for contracting space after Nov. 10, 1975.

All previously recognized organizations and clubs plus those applying for recognition have until Nov. 10 to contract space. After Nov. 10 there will be no further space sold in the book and no exceptions will be made.

If any questions develop call Student Publications at 845-2611, ask for Debbie Stallings or Gary Baldasari.
