Boston evens series up with 5-4 win in Cincy

Associated Press
CINCINNATI — Dwight Evans tripled home two runs and scored another in Boston's five-run fourth inning explosion that carried the Red Sox to a 5-4 victory over Cincinnati Wednesday and tied the World Series at two games each.

Remarkable Luis Tiant battled his way through one jam after another to pitch the Red Sox to the victory that knotted the best-of-seven Series. Game 5 will be played in Cincinnati Thursday night before the teams return to Boston for Saturday's sixth game. A seventh contest, if needed, would be played Sunday in Boston.

Evans, whose two-run ninth-inning homer had tied the game Tuesday night, delivered the key blow in a rally that gave Tiant just enough of an edge to hold off the Cincinnati bats.

Boston center fielder Fred Lynn made a running catch near the wall of Ken Griffey's long fly with two men on base in the Cincinnati ninth to preserve Tiant's nine-hit victory.

The Reds threatened to kyo Boston's ace when they scored two quick runs in the first inning. But it was still 2-0 in the fourth when the Red Sox came to bat against Cincinnati starter Pred Norman.

Carlton Fisk opened the fourth with a line single to left and moved to second when rookie Lynn singled to right.

Rico Petrocilli popped out but then Norman's wild pitch moved the runners to second and third. Evans tagged a 1-1 pitch up the right-center field alley and by the time Cesar Geronimo got it back to the infield, Evans was sliding into third base with his triple and the score was tied.

The relay skipped by Reds' third baseman Pete Rose but Cincinnati got a break when the ball hit the fence in front of the Red Sox dugout and Evans had to hold. It was a temporary respite for the Reds.

Rick Burleson followed with his seventh hit of the series, a ball that looked like a routine single to left. Evans scored easily. But Burleson never stopped as he rounded first and hustled it into a two-base hit, beating George Foster's throw by an eyelash.

That finished Norman, with Reds' Manager Sparky Anderson bringing in Pedro Borbon, but the Reds' reliever fared little better than their starter had.

Tiant delivered a single to center, another unexpected hit for the pitcher who batted only once during the regular season because of the American League's designated hitter rule. In the first game of the Series in Boston, when Tiant throttled the Reds 6-0, he got a key hit in a six-run rally in the seventh inning.

Burleson stopped at third on the play out of respect for Geronimo's arm. Unaccustomed as he is to running the bases, Tiant took a big turn at first. Johnny Bench faked a throw but couldn't try it because first baseman Tony Perez had moved over into a cutoff position. Tiant made it back to the bag without a play.

On Borbon's next pitch, Juan Beniquez checked his swing and sent a roller between first base and the mound. The ball was tapped so lightly that even on the speedy artificial surface, it traveled no more than 30 feet.

Perez raced in for the play but never came up with the baseball. Burleson scored on the play and Tiant, advancing cautiously, stopped at second.

Denny Doyle then fouled out but the Sox still weren't through.

Carl Yastrzemski dropped a soft single to right-center and Tiant was off and running.
