Fos gets 100th win

Fresh off another successful road trip, this time in the northern climates of Michigan, the Aggie Water Polo team returned home to add one more victory to their increasing The tankers of Coach Dennis Fosdick trounced The Bunch of Rice by a 15-2 margin, the second defeat the Ags have put on the Houstonians this year. It also marked Fosdick's 100th polo victory at Texas A&M. Again it was junior college transfer Blake Hinman leading the Aggie assault with four goals with team captain Lee Davis and Jim Yates following with a pair apiece. Bill Yates, Mike Reilly, Doug Adamson, David Donnell, Bill Lewis, Bob Leland and David Meeh each had single

The Yates brothers led the Fosdick-men in assists with three. Hinman and Mike Vanderhurst had two helpers each.

"We had an assist on all but one goal. Many were after two or three pass plays. This was the best teamwork we've had this year. Much of it is because the team has played together enough now to anticipate each others moves and an ability to get to the right place at the right time," said Fosdick.

The Bunch was fairly physical, but they never had the opportunity to use their strength. We were moving too fast and swimming too hard to catch. Two months of two-a-day practices are starting to pay off. The team is in the best condition ever. We have been able to go hard for a full game all year long," Fosdick

The two Yates and Hinman have been A&M's top scoring threats throughout the year but Fosdick says they will be receiving increasing aid from Leland, Vanderhurst and Steve Moore as they improve.

The multiplicity of possible scorers has greatly aided the Aggie offense by taking some of the pressure off stellar individuals such as the older Yates. Now the opposition cannot key on any single player, said

Fosdick was also complimentary of the performance of Brian Hold, substituting for regular goalie Steve Engel. Hold blocked eight attempts while allowing only the two scores.

A&M is now 17-0-1 for the season in collecting its centennial win for Fosdick since he took over as coach in 1971. His overall record is 100-

14-1 and is in his fifth year at A&M. The Aggies will travel to Arkansas this weekend to compete in a round robin tournament. Their first match will be an interesting one as the varsity faces the Aggie freshman team, which is also undefeated this year. Although one of them will have to suffer their first loss of the year, there is still the possibility of the Aggies finishing first and second in the tourney.

Boston 7-6; to go seven

BOSTON - Carlton Fisk walloped a leadoff home run in the 12th inning early Wednesday morning, lifting the Boston Red Sox to a dramatic 7-6 victory over Cincinnati that tied the 1975 World Series at three victories apiece.

The sensational come-frombehind triumph sent the Series into a seventh-game showdown here Wednesday night at 8:30 p.m.

Fisk's drive on the second pitch of the inning by reliever Pat Darcy ended the marathon ball game with

The ball sailed long and far down the left field line and banged against the foul pole as left field umpire Dick Stello signaled home run. Fenway Park erupted.

Fisk barely made it to home plate, swarmed upon by his happy teammates who had come from be hind in this exciting sixth game.

The Red Sox had come from be hind in the eighth inning with the same kind of suddenness, tying the score on a two-out, three-run homer by pinch hitter Bernie Carbo. That swing wiped out a three-run Boston deficit and the game went into extra innings, settling down into a battle of bullpens.

Darcy was the Reds' eighth pitcher, setting a record for hurlers used by one team in a World Series game. The teams used a total of 12 pitchers between them, also a series

In the top of the 12th, the Reds had made one last run at Rick Wise, the fourth Boston hurler. With one out, Tony Perez and George Foster singled. But Wise got Dave Concepcion on a long fly to right field and struck out Cesar Geronimo, ending the inning.

By the time Fish reached home plate on his game-winning homer, the rampant Red Sox fans had spilled onto the field and police and park attendants had difficulty keeping them off the Boston catcher as he romped toward the dugout.

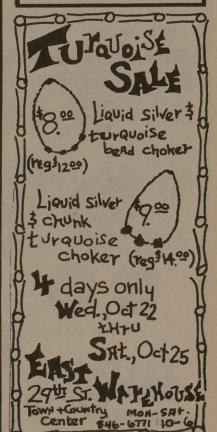

He was interviewed for television in front of the dugout with fans swarming around him. Then, Fisk took a long, happy run across the outfield into the left field corner to the door of the Red Sox clubhouse.

When Wise got the Reds out in the top of the 12th, the game was four hours old and just about every minute was exciting.
