Water Polo travels to Ozark meet

The Texas A&M Water Polo team will be faced with the unusual problem of almost having to play itself tomorrow as the Aggie varsity meets the A&M frosh in a battle of unbeaten.

Both squads travel to Arkansas this weekend to compete in a round robin tournament. However, as chance would have it, the two teams meet each other in the opening match.

The varsity, coached by Dennis Fosdick, and the freshmen of Larry Schueckler boast unblemished records of 17-0-1 and 10-0 respectively. Because of the schedule one of them will have to fall from those lofty laurels tomorrow night.

Still, there is the possibility of the Ags placing one and two in the tourney despite the loss.

Many of the A&M starters will not be going on the trip because of class time lost due to previous road trips. However, Fosdick is still looking for fine performances from both squads.

INTRAMURAL HIGHLIGHTS

Above — Peggy Leshikar, a Junior pre-vet student, became the Womens' division champion in IM singles tennis competition last week.

Below — Eddie Janek shows the form he used to defeat Steve Loomis to become the winner of the Independent Division of the same competition.

Game of the Week Underdog D'oros Triumph Over Ag Volleyball Club

"They're probably the best team in the Co-Rec division this year, but we'll put up a good fight," said Art Leuterman, coach of the D'oros, an off campus Co-Rec team, in a pre-game interview. The match was a fast and furious exhibition of well played volleyball and after the smoke had cleared, the D'oros had defeated the Ag Volleyball Club team in 2 out of 3 games.

In the Co-Rec division, teams consist of three men and three women playing under powerball rules. In the powerball rules, there is close adherence to the rules. The ball must be hit with the fingertips or with both arms at the same time or a double hit is called. Players may not cross the line under the net nor may they at anytime touch the net. A served ball striking the net automatically changes possession of the ball to the other side. In Co-Rec, if the ball is hit more than once on a side, at least one of the hits must be by a member of the opposite sex. The games are played to 15 points or 15 minutes, whichever comes first. A team must win by at least 2 points.

In the first game of the match, these well-matched teams played a very close contest and at the end of 15 minutes the score was tied 11-11. The Ag Volleyball Club made then two points and that put them ahead 1-0. In the next game, which was also very close, it was 11-10 after 15 minutes with the D'oros on the losing end. They came back, however, and in overtime play went ahead 14-12 to tie the series 1-1.

In the decisive third game, the D'oros took command from the beginning and thanks to the efforts of Simone Basagotia and Junior Null, their leading spikers, forged ahead of the Ag Vb Club and won the game 9-1, thereby clinching the match victory.

IM volleyball competition can be seen Mon. thru Thurs. nights on the third floor of G. Rollie White Coliseum. Both powerball and the more informal jungle ball are played and a good time can be had by all who play and those who watch. There is always plenty of action to choose from as there are a record 239 teams entered in volleyball this year.

IM table tennis doubles entries close on Tuesday, Oct. 28. Play begins on Monday, Nov. 3 in the MSC Basement between 5:00-8:30. There will be a 15c per half hour fee assessed and the event will be single elimination. Competition consists of the best 2 out of 3 games to 11 played under USTTA rules. An IM T-shirt will be awarded to the winners.

Entries for IM team soccer close on Tuesday, Oct. 28 with play beginning on Monday, Nov. 3. The games will be played on the fields across from the ETV studio and on Henderson fields. This will be a round robin tournament with single elimination playoffs under NCAA rules. There will be two classes of play: A division, or International League which will have no limitation on the number of soccer club members on the team; and B division, where only 3 TAMU soccer club members may be on the roster. Play is open to all TAMU students and faculty with no points in either category, but awards given in division A.

Jeff Irizarry, a freshman Liberal Arts major, is shown in the finals of the IM field goal kicking contest held in Kyle Field. Irizarry, along with Eddie Davis, a Junior P.E. major, who won the competition, both set a new IM record by kicking 55 yard field goals.

Try the cool TEQUIL

Enjoy this great new drink from Mexico!
We're passing along the recipe used by Mexico City's famed Las Piramides bar. The secret is in the way these two great liquors blend so well with orange juice. Try one, there's nothing like it. Caramba!

1 oz. Southern Comfort
½ oz. tequila
Orange juice

Fill a highball glass with ice cubes. Add the tequila and Southern Comfort. Fill with juice, stir and add a cherry.

OCTOBER 24 SHOULD BE PROCLAIMED A

DAY OF SHAME

In October, 1971 — on the 26th anniversary of the founding of the United Nations — the UN voted to expel the Republic of China and seat instead the bloody regime of Mao Tse-tung and Chou En-lai.

In recent years, the Palestine Liberation Organization has been responsible for cold-blooded murder at the Munich Olympic Games, the slaughter of innocent children in Israel, hijackings, and kidnappings. Yet in spite of its constant pleas for peace, the United Nations General Assembly enthusiastically welcomed the PLO leader, Yasir Arafat, when he addressed the Assembly in November, 1974! For these reasons, and many others, we believe it is time to Get US out! of the United Nations and declare October 24 a Day Of Shame.
