Mustangs give Texas all they can handle

By DAVID WALKER
Battalion Sports Writer

DALLAS — The Texas Longhorns and SMU Mustangs were all set to go through the motions here last Saturday but someone forgot to tell Wayne Morris and the SMU offensive line.

Morris gained 202 yards, half of which came in the fourth quarter, on 21 carries and almost single handedly beat the sluggish Longhorns.

All but three of the 202 rushing yards for Morris came right up the Texas middle. The afternoon's work made Morris the all-time SMU rushing king.

But almost isn't enough, and the Longhorns prevailed 30-22. The Mustangs had an excellent drive for the tying eight points late in the game but a near brawl ended it.

On a second down play from their own 27 yard line Mustang quarterback Ricky Wesson handed the ball to split end Freeman Johns who turned and threw back to Wesson who then gained 23 yards before being run out of bounds by a Texas player at the 50. Wesson was hit by another Longhorn while out of bounds, and a flag went up. But while the flag was still in the air an unidentified Mustang punched the late-hitting Longhorn, and the fight was on. Another flag was thrown, but this one was against the Mustangs. Instead of having a first down at the Texas 35, the Mustangs had first down at the fifty.

After order was restored the Mustangs followed the act of their teammate who lost his cool and promptly lost theirs.

Things were so hectic on the field that officials didn't notice that Texas had twelve men on the field for the last two plays of the game.

Mustang coach Dave Smith admitted after the game, "I don't know of any team that I've been prouder of in a loss than this one."

"Though we all play to win, a lot of times there's a tremendous amount of pride in a loss. I thought we showed an awful lot of courage and fight in coming back," Smith added.

The Texas players were all high on the SMU team, some even comparing them to Oklahoma.

While the Longhorns won on the scoreboard they lost in the battle of statistics.

SMU out "first-downed" the Horns 20-19, but the big difference was in the rushing column where the Ponies rushed for 351 yards to 245 for the visitors.

SMU took a total of 79 snaps from center for 408 total offensive yards. The Horns ran 63 offensive plays for 307 yards of total offense.

Although it was a moral victory for the Mustangs, they will be jumping out of the frying pan into the fire this week when they travel to College Station to take on the Texas Aggies.

If the Longhorns don't know enough about the Mustangs in the Cotton Bowl, they can ask the Aggies who ran into a bunch of fired up Ponies there last year. The Mustangs upset the Aggies and kept them out of the Cotton Bowl Classic.

COLLEGE STATION (AP) — Texas A&M has lost starting right tackle Jimmy Dean for perhaps two games because of a cut tendon in his left thumb in a dormitory accident, it was announced Monday.

Dean, a 6-foot-5, 255-pound junior, cut the thumb on a broken water glass. Sophomore David Bairington of Fort Worth will replace Dean for Saturday's Southwest Conference game against Southern Methodist here.

WACO (AP) — Baylor quarterback Mark Jackson, who re-injured his left shoulder last week, has been given the green light to play Saturday against the University of Texas in a Southwest Conference football game.

Trainer Skip Cox said Jackson's shoulder is sore, but he will definitely play and should be able to workout by mid-week.

DALLAS (AP) — Southern Methodist defensive tackle Toxic Beavers will miss the Texas A&M game Saturday because of an ankle injury.

Beavers was hurt Saturday in a 30-22 loss to Texas. Linebacker Marion Harper, injured two weeks ago, also likely will miss the A&M game.

Eckwood, Kirkland out with hurt knees

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Arkansas quarterback Mike Kirkland reinjured his knee in practice Monday, but it may be several days before doctors know how serious the set-back is.

Coach Frank Broyles, who hoped to have his No. 1 quarterback in action in two weeks, wanted to time Kirkland in practice Monday to see if he had regained enough of his speed to play without being prone to injury.

Kirkland hurt the knee in the game against Tulsa on Sept. 27.

Broyles also said that Jerry Eckwood, a key running back, would not have to undergo surgery on his injured knee. Broyles said Eckwood might be ready for the Texas Tech game Nov. 22, but a more realistic prediction would be the Dec. 6 contest with Texas A&M.

Linebacker Curtis Townsend remained a doubtful starter for Saturday's game with Rice because of a fractured elbow suffered against Utah State.

Broyles said defensive end Johnnie Meadors would be able to work out by Wednesday, if not sooner. Meadors has been recuperating from a thigh injury sustained in practice prior to the Texas game.

Consol places fifth in state tournament

The 1975 high school water polo championship game was a replay of last year's finals, but this time St. Mark's of Dallas turned the tables on La Marque, winning a 13-12 thriller before a near-capacity crowd at Texas A&M's Downs Natatorium Saturday night.

A&M Consolidated placed fifth in the state tournament, handling Humble handily in its final game, 10-6. The Tigers lost only to the state champs and Clear Lake, the third-place team.

St. Mark's compiled a 5-0 record en route to its first state championship. The private Dallas school handed La Marque, the defending champion, its only setback in six tournament contests.

Clear Creek finished fourth with a 4-2 record.

Humble was sixth, followed by Alamo Heights of San Antonio, McAllen and Jersey Village.

Bill Leland of A&M Consolidated was named to the all-tournament team for the second straight year.

THE GREATEST SANDWICH

The greatest sandwiches in the Southwest are served from 11:00 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. each day Monday through Friday on floor 11M, Conference Tower. The greatness of these sandwiches is no accident. There are several types of meats and you can select your choice and mix or match any three pieces for your sandwich on the bread of your choice.

Two of the several types of bread are sour dough and baked fresh daily in our Duncan bakery. Further, these breads are prepared without shortening for the diet conscious guest. For the greatest taste tempting delight just make your sandwich exactly like you want it and pop it into one of the handy micro-wave ovens. This wonderful sandwich and a bowl of soup for only $1.50 plus tax will place you on cloud 11M.

We agree this is a bit of a long story, but it is difficult to stop talking about our tasty sandwiches.

Open Sunday 11:00 A.M. - 1:30 P.M. for regular meal only.
