The Salesians...
 Helping others to help themselves.

True charity isn't always a handful of rice... or the gift of a warm shirt... It's helping others to help themselves. A more lasting and dignified way, we say.
 Since our foundation in 1859, this has been the Salesian way. Education is the keynote. What good is a meal today when one must think of all the tomorrows? St. John Bosco knew this well. What good are dreams unless they are translated in reality by deeds?
 Around the world, Salesian missionaries help their flock by giving them ways to help themselves. Whether it is agricultural training or technical training for a trade they can learn, people are encouraged to find their own niche, their own way of betterment, their own road to human dignity and self help.
 Salesians work primarily for youth, for it is in the young that hope is born. There are Salesian missions in 73 countries around the world. If you are interested in a life that gives as much as it receives, fill-in the coupon below... and we will send you additional information on the Salesian way.

NEW YORK — Casting for Hollywood's annual spectacular, "The Rose Bowl," has begun in earnest. The surprise around cinematic circles is that there is still a lot of competition for the lead romantic role.
 As usual, the heavy will be played by Woody Hayes - (Ohio State) or Bo Schembechler - (Michigan), as the Big Ten, once again, draws its star from the George Patton school of acting.
 Out West in the Pacific - 8, there is a mad scramble for who will play beauty to the Big Ten's beast. Five schools remain in the running and all of them think their appearance in the big Jan. 1 extravaganza would be pure box office.
 — California, 4-1 in the Pac-8, last appeared in "The Rose Bowl" in 1959. Since then, the Bears have been doing mostly experimental cinema and a lot of radical stuff. California's agents have been telling the Rose Bowl directors that long hair and a beard is a must for the lead role.

— Southern California, 3-1 in the conference, has pulled down the starring role the last three years but may be hurt because its acting coach, John McKay, has announced he is leaving Hollywood to play a bit part in the national Football League. USC boosters, however, say if there is a McKay farewell performance in the Rose Bowl, there won't be a dry eye in the house.
 — UCLA, 3-1, is the big, blond beach-blanket type, who hasn't starred in this New Year's bash since 1966. But the Bruins' promotion department has been cranking out literature which says surf-and-cycle flicks are back again.
 — Stanford, 3-1, played Pasadena in successive winning performances in 1971 and 1972 but has flunked the screen test the past three years, when the directors chose brawn over brains. Stanford's agents are insisting that the public is looking for the intellectual approach once again.
 — Washington, 3-1, is the foreign actor, who has been out of work since 1964. Agents for the Huskies say imports are big box office now and downplay any problems with subtitles on the uniforms.
 Now for the coming attractions:
 Stanford is at No. 9 Southern California, Washington is at No. 18. California and UCLA is at Oregon, a Pac-8, extra.
 It's just too bad we have to spoil the ending for you, but that's our job... Southern Cal 28, Stanford 17; California 35, Washington 21, and UCLA 24, Oregon 7.
 Okay, roll 'em!
 No. 1 Ohio State at Illinois: No more Monday offs, vowed Woody Hayes, after his Buckeyes won unimpressively against Indiana last week. Illinois gets crushed Saturday by the Buckeyes and their work ethic... Ohio State 42, Illinois 7.
 Kansas at No. 2 Oklahoma: When will Oklahoma, which hasn't run up a score since the second week of the season, really start riding the range? Now, Normalely finally returns to Norman, with Nebraska two weeks around the corner... Oklahoma 49, Kansas 10.

 No. 3 Nebraska at Kansas State: Point spread here represents psychological sparring for the big game against Oklahoma Nov. 22. Sooners beat Kansas State 25-3; Cornhuskers look for that score by halftime... Nebraska 42, Kansas State 9.
 Southern Methodist at No. 4 Texas A&M: Everything comes in larger sizes in Texas, including vengeance. SMU's 18-14 victory last year is A&M's inspiration now... Texas A&M 35, Southern Methodist 10.
 No. 5 Alabama at Louisiana State: There will be wall-to-wall parties in Baton Rouge Friday night and Saturday. But by Saturday night only Alabamians will be celebrating... Alabama 31, Louisiana State 13.
 Purdue at No. 6 Michigan: Last year, Michigan embarrassed the Boilermakers 51-0 in front of Purdue's home fans. This year, the game is in Ann Arbor, so the Purdue fans are spared. At least visually... Michigan 49, Purdue 6.
 Baylor at No. 7 Texas: The Longhorns, using last year's loss as the fuel, barbecue the Bears, Texas-style... Texas 34, Baylor 7.
 North Carolina State at No. 8 Penn State: The Nittany Lions, who rarely lose, don't seek revenge too often. But after last season's 12-7 loss to the Wolfpack, this victory will be sweet... Penn State 28, North Carolina State 14.
 Wyoming at No. 10 Arizona State: The only thing Arizona State might lose is the coin toss. And that's 50-50... Arizona State 42, Wyoming 7.

Akins' book tabs Royal near perfect

Associated Press
AUSTIN, Tex. — Texas quarterback Marty Akins, an outspoken seeker of All-American honors, also is seeking a publisher.
 Akins, a member of the all-Southwest Conference academic team, has written a 98-page manuscript in which he described Texas Coach Darrell Royal as "almost" the best coach he had ever played for.
 His father, coach at Gregory-Portland High School, was the best, Akins said, adding, "I always was slightly prejudiced towards kin-folk."

The most interesting aspect of Akins' manuscript, a student reviewer said, are Akins' observations of Royal.
 "Darrell Royal had a knack of saying the right thing at the right time or at the best place at the best time," Akins wrote. "He could manipulate people and everything around him because of the charisma he possessed. Coach was a very influential man and he knew it, too."
 Akins also observed that as a freshman, "I quickly learned that playing was going to be a one-shot deal. Whenever an athlete entered UT he had around two weeks to show his stuff and if he hadn't caught the coaches' eye or confidence by then, he was almost through with his career, except for that time screwing around on the attack team."
 "I couldn't understand why some of my friends stayed on the attack team; they were truly talented athletes, but hadn't proved themselves just yet. They knew and so did I that if we didn't produce when our chance came, then we would be lost in the large mass of bench warmers."
