

SMU Ponies put hopes on Terrell, new recruits

By DAVID WALKER
Battalion Sports Editor

A new face and an old familiar one will be the keys to the 1975-76 SMU Mustang basketball squad that some experts expect to take the South-west Conference title.

Under the direction of first-year coach Sonny Allen, the Mustangs welcome back All-SWC center Ira Terrell after a year's absence. Terrell was declared ineligible by the NCAA after his sophomore year, but the decision was later reversed to allow the Dallas Roosevelt star to return for his senior season.

Allen comes to SMU from Old Dominion where he was noted for his fast-break teams, a dimension he plans on installing at SMU.

"Our team speed is average, but average isn't good enough to win a championship or to even run a fast break," Allen said.

"We have some good players at SMU, but I don't know if the fast break is going to work. I'm going to try it, but if it doesn't work I'll have to go to something else."

Although Allen isn't too familiar with the SWC, he knows enough about the league to view his team's chances this year. "I think we'll battle for the championship. With the type of players we have I don't think anyone will dominate us."

"The conference doesn't have a good reputation throughout the nation, but it isn't as bad as most people think, I'm looking forward to the season," Allen said.

Allen will have six returning lettermen to work with, including Terrell. Three of the six started for last year's 8-18 Ponies.

Jeff Swanson leads the returnees as he was one of the leading Pony scorers with a 11.3 per game average. The 6-6 sophomore was the second-leading rebounder on the team. Also back is senior Mike Jaccar who started the last half of the season as the Pony field general. Jaccar hit 8.2 points per game.

Joe Swedlund is the other returnee who started last season. He averaged 10.7 points per game and is only a sophomore.

The Ponies did well in the recruiting wars last year, going the route that the Aggies took, signing only freshmen and no junior college transfers.

Two signees, 5-11 Mike Anderson, from Ada, Oklahoma, and 6-0 Ernest Nixon, from New York, are expected to battle Jaccar for the Pony point guard spot.

Other recruits include 6-2 Butch Bostic, also from New York, 6-6 Anthony Garner from Markham, Illinois, 6-8 Tom Somerville from Dallas and 6-6 Roy Streed from Chicago.

But the big man in the Mustang camp is Ira Terrell. "Ira is a super player. He's dominated every intrasquad game we've had so far," Allen said.

"He's one of the best around and I don't think that anyone will doubt that."

Allen agrees that the championship hopes of the Mustangs rests on the shoulders of the big man they call "I.T." "I can't think of any better shoulders to rest on than those," he said.

Akins' still listed as doubtful for Ag game

Associated Press

Coach Darrell Royal of Texas told Longhorn Club members Wednesday he knew nothing more than what they had read in the newspaper about quarterback Marty Akins' knee injury.

"I can't look inside the knee," Royal said.

He added, however, that Akins, the key to sixth-ranked Texas' Wishbone-T offense, "is barely walking and that, to me, is a bad sign."

The Austin American-Statesman quoted trainer Frank Medina Wednesday as saying Akins would not be able to do the weight exercises he is doing "if the knee was hurt."

"I've examined the knee," Medina said. "He couldn't have a more stable knee."

Akins limped off in the first quarter of last Saturday's 27-11 victory over winless Texas Christian, and team doctors diagnosed the injury as a sprained right knee.

Royal said, however, of several injured Longhorn players "the most doubtful for the Texas A&M game is Marty."

Royal narrated films of the TCU game, calling it "one of the sloppiest games you'll ever want to see."

Royal also disclosed that just after Texas took a 14-0 lead in that game, he told assistant Don Breau he was "really concerned because it's all coming too easy."

At that point, Texas had gained 158 yards on 13 carries — an average of more than 12 yards a carry — but moments later Akins went down, and Texas had to rely on its defense to beat the Horned Frogs.

One of the defensive stars was freshman end Tim Campbell, who tackled TCU quarterbacks four times for losses.

"He thinks he is a one-man pass rush, and he's just about it," said Royal. "He's about the best pass rusher we've had."

(AP) — Texas Tech defensive lineman Ray Hennig is a doubtful starter for the Raiders game Saturday with the Arkansas Razorbacks at Fayetteville.

Coach Steve Sloan watched the Raiders train under 30-degree weather Wednesday and said the team "looked good."

(AP) — Baylor Coach Grant Teaff said Wednesday defensive tackles Wharton Foster and Les Benson and defensive end Chris Quinn are doubtful starters for Saturday's game with Southern Methodist.

TOMORROW: Texas. OU-Nebraska game will not be broadcast

Associated Press

TULSA — U. S. District Court Judge H. Dale Cook declined Tuesday to issue an order allowing the Oklahoma-Nebraska football game Saturday to be televised.

The judge denied a temporary restraining order requested by John Irvan Moritzky, a Sand Springs attorney who had challenged the NCAA ban on televising the Sooners.

Judge Cook said there was no evidence that the damage to anyone if the game wasn't televised would be irreparable.

A trial will be scheduled later to determine if the ban is unconstitutional.
