SWC Player of the Week awarded to A&M's Parker

By TONY GALLUCCI
Battalion Staff Writer
Sonny Parker has been named the Southwest Conference Player of the Week after outstanding performances last week against Houston and Arkansas. Known as Sonny P to friends and fans, Parker was overwhelming in leading the Ags over UH with 22 points and ten rebounds. He then bettered the performance in a close but losing effort to Arkansas.

Longhorns get chance for revenge

The Aggies venture into Austin tonight to test the mettle of the 1976 edition of Leon Black's Longhorn basketball team.
Agie Head Coach Shelby Metcalf stated after the Rice game that, "I'm glad we're playing Texas in Austin. If these guys are true Aggies we won't have any trouble."
Despite Metcalf's dislike of comparing basketball to football, if the Longhorns are true Longhorns they'll be remembering the day after Thanksgiving and for the first time in a while they have a motive for vengeance.
Either the Longhorns were looking ahead or perhaps they have been experiencing trouble winning as they dropped their game against TCU Monday night in Ft. Worth, 73-70.

Texas has won only two SWC games this year, beating Arkansas and Houston both in Austin. The Longhorns have lost six, but the two wins are both against two teams considered contenders. As Metcalf noted after Rice played inspired ball against his Ags Monday, "That's part of being an Aggie, we bring it out in everybody."

The Longhorns will base their chances on starters Dan Krueger, Mike Murphy, Tommy Weilert, Gary Goodner and Ed Johnson.
The Ags will stick with Sonny Parker, Barry Davis, Ray Roberts, Karl Godine and Jarvis Williams as starters, and depend on Gates Erwin, Steve Jones, Joey Robinson, Wally Swanson and Kevin Jones for backups.
The Ags are currently averaging 87.3 points per game for the season and 80.5 in SWC play.
The game will be broadcast beginning at 7:30 p.m. by Mike Mistovich on KTAM.

Longhorns get chance for revenge

Sonny P scored 34 points and again picked up ten rebounds in the battle in the hills.
Prior to the Rice game on Monday night, Parker was the fourth leading scorer in the conference with his 20.4 points for the year. He has averaged 20.9 points in his six conference starts this year.
Parker leads the team so far this year in scoring, conference scoring, field goal percentage, assists, SWC assists, turnovers, SWC turnovers, steals and SWC steals. He also has the high-point game for the team this season, scoring 39 points against Houston Baptist in the Bluebonnet Tournament in Houston, in which the Aggies placed third. Sonny P was named the Most Valuable Player in the tourney.
Parker has scored in double figures in 14 games and over 20 points in nine games. He has rebounded in double figures in six games.

Called by Aggie head coach Shelby Metcalf, "The best player I've seen in the conference in a long while," Sonny P has the stats to boost that.
Sonny came to A&M last year as a transfer from Mineral Area Junior College in Flatonia, Missouri. He had graduated from Chicago Faragut High where he was team co-captain, all-section and all-state under coach Wardell Vaughn. In JC, he was twice All-America, and was the leading scorer and Player-of-the-Year both years. He was named the Most Valuable Player in the national Junior College tourney.
In his first year as an Aggie he led all scorers with a 14.7 ppg average and was also second in rebounding at 5.9 per game, helping the Aggies to their first SWC championship since 1970.

For his efforts, last year he was named to the first team All-SWC by unanimous vote of the polls. He was also named the SWC's most valuable player and the Associated Press' Newcomer of the Year. He also was named to the Associated Press' All-District VI team encompassing the SWC and other Southwest Area major college teams.
Sonny P hasn't gotten his due on All-America teams according to some observers, but his chances increase weekly as he leads the Aggies to perhaps their second SWC championship in a row. If he doesn't get his due recognition with another, the pro scouts will be happier. They already know P's around.
