Street repair placed at top of priorities

The order of priorities for city street improvements was reaffirmed at a public hearing last night before the College Station Planning and Zoning Commission.

Sterling Street will be the first renovated under the six-year Community Development Act. Al Mayo, city planner, said the Sterling improvements should be completed in two months.

If enough of this year's $70,000 allocation remains after the Sterling project, improvements on Park Place will also be started this year, Mayo said.

The Planning and Zoning Commission also recommended approving the preliminary plans for Quail Run Estates and Parkway Plaza addition. The city council gives final approval to all commission action.

Rezoning was also recommended for a 2.51-acre tract in the Crawford Burnett League. The recommendation is to rezone the tract from an agricultural open district to a commercial industrial district.

Six blue chippers sign with Aggies

Associated Press

Texas A&M sacked six blue chip Texas schoolboy football players in the legal opening to sign recruits today, including Curtis Dickey of Bryan, the No. 1 rated running back and giant Paul Hagerty of Corpus Christi Carroll, the top lineman.

Also joining Texas A&M Coach Emory Bellard were blue chip running back David Brothers of Seguin and blue chip lineman Thomas Gregory of Conroe. Dick Frazee, a 220-pound linebacker from Spring Branch Westchester who just missed the blue chip list, also signed with A&M.

Junior college All-America running back Bobby Mitchell of Tyler Junior College and top receiver Wadine Miles of Henderson Junior College also enrolled with the Aggies.

Baylor netted a blue chip quarterback right out of the starting gate — highly sought Sammy Bickham of Plano. Coach Grant Teaff also reached into Jackson, Miss., for quarterback Greg Wood, III. Texas jumped into the fray with some impressive football talent of its own.

The Longhorns signed linebacker Lance Taylor of El Paso Coronado, a blue chipper, and blue chip running backs Johnny Jones of Lampasas and Johnny Johnson of La Grange.

The signing of Dickey and Brothers was a double coupe for the Aggies.

And the 6-foot-4, 225-pound Hagerty gives the Aggies some muscle to run behind.

"It's probably the best crop we've had in Emory's four years at A&M," said one Aggie assistant coach.

Bellard said after signing Dickey, "I'll probably never be a millionaire but I know how one feels."

Other blue chips signed by A&M included lineman Gerald Galloway of Andrews and linebacker Frank Lemons of Pampa.

Texas Tech signed two Oklahoma stars off state power Altus, 250-pound lineman Joe Walstad and running back Raymond Prince.

Marcel Marceau

Pantomime artist Marcel Marceau performed before a near capacity audience Friday night in the Rudder Auditorium. Marceau appeared as an OPAS Special Attraction.
