

'So-so' show given by tracksters

By PAUL McGRATH
Battalion Sports Editor

The Northeast Louisiana Relays proved to be nothing more than just another workday for the Texas A&M track team.

22 competing teams as the Aggies turned out only a so-so performance at the Monroe meet.

For once, the field events looked stronger than those taking place on the track. Don Riggs tied his best leap ever in the high jump, going over twice at 6-8.

fort with a 22-8 jump. Riggs and Blair tied for fourth and fifth respectively in their events. Shot putters Frank West and Craig Carter also were fourth and fifth with tosses of 52-8 and 52-4.

Charlie Cottle, who set a school record last week, was second in his two-mile heat with a 9:19.6.

First away-win for women brings season record to 7-3

The women's basketball team put it all together as the Aggies held off

Wharton Junior College in the closing minutes to win 57-53 in a game played last Friday in Wharton.

The game provided the Ags with their first win on the road, bringing their record up to 7-3 for the season. A&M has yet to lose a home game.

The Aggie two-mile relay team (Adolph Tingan, Joel Vogt, Tony Wheeler and Jim Brannen anchoring) used a 7:59.4 to take second in their heat.

The Aggies have an open date this weekend as they prepare for the United States Track and Field Federation meet held Oklahoma City Feb. 14.

TU takes swimmers with depth

Going to a meet with the knowledge that no matter how well the individual swimmers do, there's no way to win is the situation facing Dennis Fosdick every time the Ags swim against the University of Texas.

"When you have the money to go out and buy a team (scholarships), have the facilities (an $8 million pool) and a coach who doesn't also have to teach, a school can have the kind of depth Texas delivers," said Fosdick.

The scores for the men's and women's meets were UT 83 - A&M 30 and UT 86 - A&M 37, respectively.

But the meet wasn't all stormy waters. "The guys swam their second events and swam good times for this time of the year," Fosdick said.

Senior Steve Moore swam a 1:59.08 individual medley and is continuing to drop his times in both breaststroke events.

Oran Marksbury is also making strokes count with a personal best of 2:16.78 in the breaststroke. Another long-distance swimmer has been found in Phil Pellegrino with a 10:02.76 in the 1000-yard free. This was a 24-second drop for Pellegrino. The recurrence of Brad Swendig and Eric Rasmussen in the top swimmers list happens in the backstroke.

Again it was the women's 400-yard relay team that broke the old school record. The team members were Jeannie Buckles, Carol Hemphill, Beth McArthur and Debbie Starr.

Starr also made history with a new record of :25.77 in the 50 freestyle. Buckles took her time down with a 2:19.24 in the 200 backstroke.

The women also swam against Southwest Texas State last weekend. Again it was a story of record-making with Starr doing a 2:03.77 in the 200 free and Buckles turning in a 1:03 in the 100-yard fly.

The women won that meet 90-39. Tech will be paying College Station a visit when the Red Raiders and the Ags match strokes in L.P. Downs at 2 p.m. Saturday. The team will also meet Lamar and Dallas universities at 7 p.m. Friday here.
