Agency begins search of handicapped childre

Agency today began an effort to lo- ment of the child and of the family's cate all schoolage handicapped children — as many as 10,000 of them who are not now in school.

State Board of Education Chairman Joe Kelly Butler said the object is to get all handicapped young Te-xans into public school special education programs.

The 1969 legislature passed a law providing such training for every handicapped child in Texas.

"We will search out handicapped persons between the ages of 3 and 21 —young people who are blind, deaf, physically handicapped, those who have learning disabilities such as language problems, the emotionally disturbed and the mentally restand." Butlet and the mentally restand. tarded," Butler told a news confer-

Door-to-door canvasses and the news media will be used to reach handicapped children not in school, he said - "Their families will receive counseling services, and the children will begin receiving the education they need."

Butler said the project will be called "Child Find."

He asked everyone who knows of a handicapped child who is not in school to call the local school district, the regional education service center or a toll-free number, 1-800-292-

"What happens then? The answer is, 'A lot.' People's lives begin to change, for the better.

Relatives receive ch threatening calls ssi after 'massacre'

FORT WORTH — Seven persons appeared Wednesday before the Tarrant County grand jury probing last week's "senseless massacre" of the Wayne Joplin family.

Even as the grand jury was hearing testimony, the uncle of one of the dead victims said he and the victim's mother have spent sleepless nights because of threats against their lives.

The Joplin family — Wayne, 42; his wife, Fae, 40; and their two sons, Kevin, 6; and Brian, 17 — were shot to death Feb. 23 in their suburban Blue Mound home. A son, Gregg, 23, said he returned home that evening to find his family lying in pools of blood about the house, each shot once. Investigators said Gregg Joplin told them he spotted an intruder in the house, grabbed a rifle and fired, killing Terry Trice, 18, a neighbor-

Sheriff Lon Evans has since said it is "very doubtful" Trice murdered the family. Joplin has refused to take ity to prosecute a criminal as a lie detector test to substantiate the truthfulness of his story, Evans said.

Evans said the refusal posed a 'major setback" in his investigation because "we're right back where we started. We now must consider a number of possibilities."

Those subpoeaned to testify Wednesday included Joplin; his aunt, Alice Leet; Esther Gomez, a neighbor of the Trice family; Joseph Hammel, Terry Rogers, and Valdemar Gomez Jr., all friends of Trice, and Linda Tow, a Joplin neighbor.

Meanwhile, Trice's mother, Gladys Trice, and his uncle, Paul Trice, said they have received three death threats by telephone since

One caller said, "I killed you and you're going to be next,"

She added: "If anybody like comes in here they're not goi walk out.' Trice said he has a loaded if keeps near him at all times
