president for academic affairs. The resolution is intended to recognize superior scholastic motivation and achievement. A student prepaid legal service resolution was also passed last night.

Student Senator Scott Gregson introduced a date ticket resolution. This would allow a student to utilize a friend's coupon book and I.D. to purchase a guest ticket. The adopted resolution will be referred to the Athletic Ticket Evaluation Committee.

C.S. voters pass charter revision

In one of the most important city elections in recent history, College Station voters Saturday narrowly proved a charter revision proposal. It will change the city to a ward system of election from its present large system. Voters also elected five council members and a new mayor, unseating two incumbents in the process. Slightly more than a third of the registered voters turned out to prove the controversial referenand a strong majority in both Precincts 10 and 21. Adams carried only Precinct 9, gathering 57.8 per cent of the 810 ballots cast.

In Place 6, Councilman Bob Bell was overwhelmingly defeated by fellow Councilman James Dozier by a 2-1 margin. Dozier, who carried all six precincts, got 1,905 votes to Bell's 993.

In Place 3, A&M statistics professor Larry Ringer won with nearly 48 per cent of the vote, capturing Precincts 8, 9 and 24. His closest opponent, E. Murl Bailey, carried Precincts 10 and 21 with 39.8 per cent of the total vote. A&M sophomore Jim Gardner captured 357 votes, mostly from the campus precinct which he won.

Incumbent Jim Gardner had no trouble defeating Clinton Robison, winning by a 3-1 margin. Robison failed to carry any precincts, getting 654 votes to Gardner's 2,137. Robison's strongest showing was in the A&M precinct where he got slightly more than 30 per cent of the 170 votes cast.

A scant 7.78 per cent of the 2,186 registered voters on campus made it trek to the polls. Of the 170 votes cast at Precinct 20 (Texas A&M), 86 voted for the ward system. Precinct 10 is the largest in the city. The ward proposal also gained majority approval in heavily student-populated Precincts 10 and 21. Precinct 10 is east of campus, 21 in the Northgate area. Less than 27 per cent of the voters in either precinct cast ballots.

In the city council races, two incumbents were unseated. In Place 2, Homer Adams was defeated by Lane Stephenson, 1,475 to 1,356. Stephenson gained nearly 73 per cent of the on-campus student vote
