Slow delivery stalls signals

The traffic signal installation at the intersection of Jersey St. and Wellborn Road is still waiting for delivery of signal poles.
 Officials of Blackburn Electric Service of Fort Worth say they will begin work as soon as the signal poles, fabricated in Nebraska, arrive.
 Blackburn Manager Charlie Lipsey said the order was made before they received the $27,500 contract in November. "The problem is our fabricator is not shipping them to us," Lipsey said.
 Wellborn Road has already been widened to allow for protected turns onto Jersey Street. But the job has been suspended until Blackburn receives the ordered materials.
 Contracts will let later this year for signal projects at the intersections of Texas Ave. and Holleman, University Dr. and Terrace, and Wellborn Road and Old College Main.

Geographic society elects president

Associated Press
WASHINGTON — Robert E. Doyle has been elected president of the nine million-member National Geographic Society.
 Doyle, 60, now vice president and secretary of the society, will succeed Melvin M. Payne, who will become chairman of the board after reaching the retirement age of 65 next month. The changes are effective June 1.
 Melville Bell Grosvenor, who has been chairman since 1967, will become chairman emeritus at that time, but will remain as editor-in-chief of National Geographic magazine, the society said Thursday.

Wheelmen sponsor bicycle auction

Over 30 bicycles will go on the auction block this Sunday in the A&M Wheelmen's third annual bike auction. The public auction begins at 1 p.m. in the Grove.
 The bicycles are abandoned or stolen bikes recovered by the University Police. Recovered bikes are held at least ten months to see if its owner will claim it.

Centennial journalist returns to lecture

University of Missouri-Columbia journalism professor John C. Merrill returns to Texas A&M Monday for a couple of days as a visiting centennial professor.

Dr. Merrill, former Texas A&M instructor and columnist for the Bryan Daily Eagle, is at A&M for the fourth of five scheduled sessions.

He went to Missouri at Columbia in 1964 from Texas A&M. The author of several books, he has also edited and reported for almost a dozen newspapers and press associations here and abroad.

Merrill will lecture several classes while here.

All profits from the auction will be returned to the Student Body through the Director of Student Activities, Wheelmen President Jerry Guthrie said. Guthrie said he was not sure how the money would be used.

Last year the Wheelmen donated $700 from the sale to the Campus Chest.

Movie Review

By BILL CURNUTT
MACKINTOSH AND T.J. — Roy Rogers, Joan Hackett, Clay O'Brien, Billy Green Bush in a modern western film around Lubbock. This one is about an aging vagabond who takes on the care of a rebellious child. Manor East One, shows weekends 2:45, 4:30, 6:15, 8 and 9:45, weekdays 6:15, 8:15-9:45. Call theater for additional information.

BARRY LYNDON — Director Stanley Kubrick ("A Clockwork Orange") has turned an obscure Dickens novel about an 18th century rogue into a three hour movie. Manor East One, shows 7:00, in ECC 105. Second film will be "The Dove." $1 donation requested.

THE SEVENTH SEAL — Early Ragnar Bergman, and utterly fascinating, both in theme and imagery tells the tale of 14th century Sweden riddled with the Plague, and Max von Sydow and Harriet Andersson. English Film Series, showing Thursday, at 7:00, in ECC 105. Second film will be "The Dove." $1 donation requested.

ONE FLEW OVER THE CUCU-DO'S NEST — What could easily be an oppressively grim movie has been turned by director Elia Kazan into a spare, powerful and humanly funny film. This picture, the story of a mental patient, R. MacMurphy, who doesn't believe in his companions is insane, is a triumph for Kazan, as well as for Jack Nicholson and Louise Fletcher. Nicholson is a joy to watch; he is more subdued than usual, and also more exact and convincing. Louise Fletcher skirts the cliches her role might have fallen to through a quiet intensity that she radiates. Cinema One, shows Friday 7 and 9:30, weekends 2, 4:30, 7 and 9:30, weekdays 8. Call theater for additional information.

THE SUNSHINE BOYS — Walter Matthau and George Burns in a film from the Neil Simon play about two aging and argumentative vaudeville comedians. Manor East Two, shows weekends 3:15, 5:15, 7:15 and 9:15, weekdays 7:15 and 9:15. Call theater for additional information.

weekdays 7:15 and 9:15. Call theater for additional information.

AGAINST A CROOKED SKY — A Doty Dayton film about a pioneer family. Stars Stewart Petersen and Richard Boone. Manor East One, shows weekends 2:35, 4:20, 6:05, 7:50 and 9:35, weekdays, 6:05, 7:50 and 9:35. Call theater for additional information.

JESUS CHRIST SUPERSTAR — A splashy, surreal and garish version of the successful Broadway musical about Christ's last seven days. Stars Ted Neeley, directed by Norman Jewison. Aggie Cinema, Friday and Saturday at 8, Rudder Auditorium. Admission $1. Advance tickets available at Rudder box office 9-4.

BILLY JACK — Tom Laughlin and wife Delores Taylor made and star in this crude, melodramatic, but effective film about a freedom school in New Mexico and the forces that try to destroy it. Cinema Two, shows Friday 7:30 and 9:40, weekends 3:10, 5:20, 7:25 and 9:30, weekdays 7:25 and 9:30. Call theater for additional information.

ELECTRA GLIDE IN BLUE — The first film of record producer James William Guercio, it stars Robert Blake as a motorcycle cop who can't quite cope with the changes that occurred in America while he was serving in Viet Nam. Blake is good, but the film never connects emotionally the way some other youth films did ("Easy Rider," awful as it was, is a good example). Still interesting, though. Cinema

One, Friday at midnight. Admission $1.25.

COME IN 60 SECONDS — Lots of action in this film about racing. Palace. Call theater for additional information.

DOG DAY AFTERNOON — Wild eyed, wonderful Al Pacino in a fine and compelling film. Skyway Twin, east screen, shows begins at dusk. Second feature is "The Taking of Pelham One Two Three."

THE TAKING OF PELHAM ONE TWO THREE — Walter Matthau is a police detective who must negotiate with Robert Shaw, chief of a group of hijackers who have captured a New York subway. Skyway Twin, east screen. Second feature.

ZEBRA FORCE — Skyway Twin, west screen, starts at dusk. Second feature, "Fearless Fighter."

FEARLESS FIGHTER — Skyway Twin, west screen. Second feature.

THEM — James Arness stars in this early fifties science-fiction classic about huge ants, mutated by aboveground nuclear weapons testing that took place in the Southwest, taking over the sewers of L. A. It's dated, but undeniably tension-producing. Cepheid Variable, Thursday at 8, in 701, Rudder Tower.

MSC ACTIVITIES COMING UP NEXT WEEK

step into the msc circle

ARTS

This week the Arts Committee presents a dynamic group of 6 students and a faculty conductor straight out of Houston — the Rice University Shepherd School of Music. They are not only unlimited in talent, but also unlimited in what they play. Besides classical Bach and Mozart, they play modern, contemporary music. Whatever drums you like, they have the beat for you. The drum roll begins Monday, April 12 at 8:00 P.M. in the Rudder Forum and admission is free. You can hear all the chimes, xylophones, drums and other percussion that you can absorb. Dig the musical inclination out of your soul and be prepared for a fantastic evening.

AGGIE CINEMA

Spencer Tracey, Burt Lancaster, Richard Widmark and Judy Garland. Sounds like "Who's Who in Hollywood" doesn't it? It's actually the cast of stars in one of the biggest Academy Award winning films to come out of Tinsel Town. Judgement at Nuremberg revolves around the decisions and moralities a United States judge has to face presiding over the German war-crimes trials after World War II. An outstanding study in human nature, this film will be shown by Aggie Cinema at 8:00 P.M. Wednesday, April 14 in Room 201 of the MSC. Admission is $1.00.

Monty Python needs no introduction to all you film freaks out there in Hollywood. "And Now for Something Completely Different," the film everyone has heard about, will be brought to you by Aggie Cinema in living color Friday, April 16, at Midnight. Of course, we all know that Monty Python hadn't heard of A&M when he put this film together or all us Ags would be in it too. This film is a collection of short segments of Monty Python's greatest shows. There will be plenty of chances to roll in the aisles with laughter. There will be laughter in AggieLand Friday night! Only $1 bill and you can see Monty Python at his best in the Rudder Theatre.

TOWN HALL

On Saturday, April 17th, Texas A&M is in for a real treat! JOURNEY — a brilliant and bright rock band will make its way to AggieLand. Despite the group being somewhat unknown in this part of the country, JOURNEY is rocketing to the tops in their particular field throughout the entire U.S.

JOURNEY is a superb blend of talented musicians ranging from the likes of such members as Gregg Rolie and Neal Schon (formerly of SANTANA) to Ross Valory (from The Steve Miller Band) and Aynsley Dunbar (from David Bowie). For those interested, will be available at the MSC Box Office. General Admission for students will be FREE with an activity card and Reserved seats are $4.50. For the non A&M Student-date ticket buyer General Admission is $3.00 and Reserved seats are $4.50. General Public tickets are $4.00 for General Admission and $6.50 for Reserved. The concert will begin at 8 o'clock with the exciting group BABY to perform prior to JOURNEY.

BASEMENT

Squeeze into a tight situation and come to hear Townes Van Zandt at the Basement Coffeehouse, Friday, April 16 from 8-12 P.M. Since a large crowd is expected, the doors will open at 7:00 P.M. and taped music will be played prior to the show.

Van Zandt is a popular national recording artist with six albums to his credit. He specializes in a new style of progressive country/rock — "talking blues." The Coffeehouse, as always, serves cokes, coffee, candy and popcorn. Admission is only $1.00 for an evening of fun and entertainment, so follow your nose to the Basement, there's always room for one more!

CEPHEID VARIABLE

There is a lot of monkey business going on around college campuses these days. Before jumping to conclusions, that refers to real monkey business. Research is currently becoming popular in teaching human skills to chimpanzees. Some researchers have even been successful in teaching these chimps the sign language many of the deaf use to communicate. This is the subject for a talk presented by Cepheid Variable. Rudy Vavra, who has lived with a chimp for 2 years, will speak at 8:00 P.M. Tuesday, April 13 in Room 701 of Rudder Tower. Admission is free. The subject of this experiment in chimp teaching, Lilly, will be there to observe human behavior. It would be a good idea to attend this discussion — one of these days you may look up in a tree around campus to find Lilly watching you. Of course, you'd want to be able to carry on an intelligent conversation with her.

GAS WEEK

Gas Week is a week's time loaded with recreational and/or educational releases from regularly scheduled activities. Most week long rituals such as this have some kind of theme. Well, not wanting to break tradition, Gas Week has the theme of: get outside, both buildings and yourself! Gas Week is sponsored by the MSC Recreation Committee but includes activities by many of the other hundreds of groups and organizations on campus. Organizations from every area of campus life will be presenting programs for you to get out and enjoy just gassing-off! Following is a list of first some of the things that will be going on.
