

Six offense, four defense

Draft draws from Ag offense

By PAUL ARNETT
Battalion Staff Writer

Defense was the football team's eighth last season, yet six of the ten drafted by the pros were on offense. Those ten were the most drafted by the pros in A&M ball history.

Bubba Bean, the Aggies' all-time leading ground gainer, was drafted by the Atlanta Falcons in the first round. Bean, the first player chosen in the S.W.C., was drafted ahead of Heisman Trophy winner Archie Griffin.

Bean, who flew to Atlanta soon after he was chosen, said that no contract agreements had yet been reached. He also said that he and his agent would renew negotiations with the Falcons on Wednesday.

Bean said he knew the day before the draft that either Atlanta or Cincinnati wanted to draft him in the first round. Bean added, "Atlanta told me they were going to draft either Archie Griffin or me. I was very excited at the selection and look forward to playing ball with the Falcons next year."

Glenn Bujnoch and Pat Thomas were both selected in the second round. Bujnoch, who was an offensive tackle for the Aggies, was drafted by the Cincinnati Bengals. Thomas was drafted as a defensive back by the Los Angeles Rams, one step ahead of the Dallas Cowboys who were interested in the Plano product as a possible second or third round pick.

The defensive leader of the Aggies, Ed Simonini, was chosen by the Baltimore Colts in the third round. This was a surprise selection, since many of the pro scouts felt that Simonini was small.

Simonini led the nation's best defense last year in total tackles. Simonini scored once on an intercepted pass.

The sixth round choice for the Buffalo Bills was Jackie Williams. Williams, a defensive back, was selected in order to shore up the worst pass defense in pro football last year.

Williams was second on the team in interceptions with four and saved the Mississippi game by batting away a pass in the end zone.

Garth Ten Napel was surprisingly chosen in the seventh round by Detroit. This was a disappointment since Ten Napel proved last year that he was one of the finest linebackers in the nation.

Two choices in the ninth round were Bruce Welch and Richard Osborne. Welch was a 255-pound offensive tackle who impressed Tampa coach John McKay in last year's Liberty Bowl.

Osborne was chosen by the Philadelphia Eagles and will have to compete for a berth with all pros Charlie Young and Harold Carmichael.

Osborne was the Aggies' leading receiver last year with 13 receptions. Many of those receptions came in crucial third down situations when the Aggies needed yardage.

Running back Skip Walker was chosen by the Houston Oilers in the eleventh round. Walker was the third leading rusher for the Aggies last year. He was also third in pass receptions with six.

Carl Roaches was the final Aggie selected. He was chosen in the 14th round by Tampa. Roaches was chosen by McKay as a punt returner.

Roaches at one point in the season lead the nation in return yardage. He was the second leading pass receiver with eight receptions and made one of the biggest plays in the Texas game on an end-around for 47 yards.

Coach Emory Bellard was not surprised at the selections of his offensive or defensive players alike. He said, "Our defense was great last year, but our offense did not play dead. These guys performed well on offense all year. Bujnoch was high on the pro's list all year. Bujnoch proved to be a great offensive tackle and Osborne was a great blocker as well as a receiver."

Texas A&M Target Archer's came on top last Saturday in overall competition at the 1976 Texas A&M National Indoor Archery Tournament in DeWare Fieldhouse.

These scores left the Aggie women's first place of overall competition. In the men's competition, the Aggie's finished eighth, ninth, 11th, 14th, 18th, 20th, and 24th in overall points.

with Mark Stewart-510, Ronnie Pearce-502, Marshall Blalock-484, Charles Hanger-467, Marvin Wade-455, Dale Hess-441, and Raymond Clipper-401 respectively.

The men's team finished second in overall points.

In coed competition A&M came in second place with 1,720 points. The coed teams are composed of two females and two males per team. The Aggie team consists of Dale Hess, Ronnie Pearce, Sharon Vogler, and Leslie Turner. UT headed the teams with a total of 1,749 points in coed rounds, TCU followed A&M in third position with 1,694 points, SWTSU took the fourth seat with 1,683 points, and LSU finished last with 1,649 points.

Horns take two from hobbled Ags

The Texas Longhorns found their customary place once again this weekend, taking two of three from the depleted Aggie baseballers.

Not having won a major sport over the Ags yet this year, the 'Horns did the outsize diamond winning 3-0 on Wednesday and taking the second half of the doubleheader on Saturday 8-2. The Aggies took the first game on Monday 2-0 behind the pitching of Coach Gibson.

In the first game before a record crowd of 7,000, Texas ace Richard Bell pitched a lot of trouble, but his defense of his pitcher because of his lack of control.

Two Aggies qualified for the state championships, as the women's tennis team competed in the Zone tournament last weekend in Belton. Freshmen Ginny van Hardeveld and Mary Guerra won second place in the doubles competition, thus qualifying to compete in the state championships, April 23 and 24 in Marcos.

Guerra and van Hardeveld, playing their best ever, according to Coach Ellen Buchanan, defeated opponents Jane Wright and Dessie Daniels 4-6, 6-1, 7-6 in the semifinals before losing to Mary-Hardin Baylor's Frances Candy and Mandy Wright in the finals. Wright and Samuels defeated Mary-Hardin Baylor's Julie Cobb and Chris Gardner 7-5, 3-6, 6-2 in a third place in doubles. Buchanan feels Wright and Samuels will take wild card spot to compete in the state championships.

Senior Sheri Sharp captured fourth place in the singles competition. She was defeated 6-1, 6-4 in the finals by Cobb, who went on to win first place.

The women's track team finished fourth out of 16 schools in the Texas women's University Invitational last weekend in Denton.

Host school TWU finished first, with Baylor finishing second and the University of Texas third.

Only four Aggies competed in the 800-meter. Sharon Boyle provided the main force behind the Ag back, as she captured third place in the 1500-meter, two-mile and Wortham allowed six well-spaced hits in gaining the win. The Aggies' only big threat was a three-hit second inning. The threat was buried when an Aggie runner was halted at the plate. The Aggies had one hit in the first inning but were handcuffed after the second.

The 'Horns themselves were in a tight spot until the seventh inning. Pinch-hitter Rocky Thompson singled in Doug Duncan to break the scoreless game. In the eighth and final inning for the 'Horns

Charles Proske and Mickey Reichenback scored to give the final tally.

In the first game on Saturday, 'Hoot' Gibson allowed the 'Sips seven hits, but not a single run as the Ags pulled the same trick as Texas had on Friday.

The game was scoreless until the sixth when back-to-back doubles by Tony Blanchard and Winston Whiddon accounted for the Aggies' two runs.

The Longhorns finished the Ags off in the second game, allowing the Ags two runs on five hits.

For the series the Ags had 19 hits to the 'Horns' 25.

Texas now leads the SWC with a 13-2 mark, while the Ags dropped one game back of Houston at 10-5. Houston meets Texas this weekend and the Aggies will face the Cougars the following weekend.

The Houston-Aggie meeting will determine second place, more than likely, and thus the SWC's second-place representative to the NCAA playoffs.

three-mile runs with times of 5:00, 12:20 and 18:34, respectively. Martha Sartain ran the 800-meter run in 2:24 to win sixth place.

In the discus throw, Darcey Ehmann won third with a throw of 128-5 1/2 feet, while Sandra Lyman's throw of 121-1 1/2 feet gained her sixth place.

On Saturday the Aggies will host Sam Houston State University and Baylor in the Zone Tournament. Field events will begin at 9:30 a.m. on Kyle Field and the running events will commence at 10 a.m.
