Political roundup: Carter keeps wary eye on Humphrey non-campaign

Associated Press

DALLAS - Jimmy Carter, leadng Democrats in the race for presilential nominating delegates, kept in eye on Washington and a noncandidate — Sen. Hubert H. Hum-phrey — as he headed into Texas today to campaign for the state's primary election Saturday.

Humphrey, the Democrats' can-didate in 1968, said he would an-nounce today whether he will take in active part in seeking the nominaion this year.

Pressure on the Minnesota enator to get into the race increased Carter rolled to impressive riumph in Tuesday's Pennsylvania primary. Humphrey has said only that he would accept a draft if the Democratic convention can't decide n a candidate

California Gov. Edmund G. Brown Jr. launched his national campaign for the Democratic nomi-nation in Maryland. He said he is convinced no one, including Carter, bas the nomination locked up. Brown, 38, acknowledged he is etting into the race late but said he "coming in with a lot of energy and fresh spirit.

The race in Texas is a big one for he Republicans. President Ford arived in the state Tuesday for a our-day swing aimed at chipping away at what presidential aides cknowledge is strong support for Ronald Reagan, the GOP chalnger

Reagan — running a determined race for Texas' 96 GOP delegates is due in Texas Friday to put the cap on a campaign effort that has in-cluded help from movie stars Jimmy Stewart and John Wayne, both friends from his Hollywood acting

Texas' Democratic primary is another head-to-head clash between Carter and Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace. The only other candidate on the ballot is Sen. Lloyd Bentsen of Texas, who dropped his national effort weeks ago.

The three are after 98 national convention delegates. Thirty-two more will be selected later at a state convention. Carter, after winning 37 per cent of the vote in Pennsylvania, said he would welcome Humphrey into the race and was confident he could beat the Minnesota senator. Wallace, who has been a favorite of conservative Democrats in recent years, visited Texas twice this week. Aides to the Alabaman said they are worried that many voters who nor-mally would vote for Wallace will gia. switch to the GOP primary and a chance to vote for Reagan.

Ford, in Tyler, Tex., accused Reagan of dealing with national security questions in a glib and superfi-cial way. Jibing at his opponent's former career as an actor, Ford said, "There are no retakes in the Oval
