Ali's confident

Associated Press
BALTIMORE, Md. — Muhammad Ali, confident as always but bigger than ever, predicted Thursday would knock Jimmy Young but he didn't know what round. "I might depend on how worried manager, Herbert Muhammad, "He worries real bad," said Ali weighing in at 230, the highest weight of his career, for his scheduled 15-round title defense Friday night at the Capital Centre. Herbert Muhammad worried to point that he left his seat during the Ali-Jean Pierre Coopman fight in Puerto Rico on Feb. 20 and went to the ring to tell Ali to stop playing. Coopman went out in the fifth round. But Young, although a definite underdog, is considered a stiffer test for Ali than was Coopman. "He can give me as much trouble as Ken Norton," said Ali. "He can box better. He's faster but I don't know if he can take it." "I'll sweat him down, wear him down, talk to him. This is his first title fight. I'm a veteran of so many big fights."

Umpire nullifies homer

Associated Press
MILWAUKEE — Don Money can laugh about it — sort of. The Milwaukee Brewers' third baseman still is rankled that what would have been his game-winning slam home run against the New York Yankees April 10 was nullified because the first base umpire had called time out prior to the home run. "Perhaps it was predictable that Money's first-inning blast Frank Tanana had cleared the field wall Monday night, half of press corps stood up and flashed time out sign. This time, though, the homer counted, and the three-pitching of Jim Colborn and Ed Rodriguez made it stand up for a 1-0 victory over California in the only American League baseball game of the night. "Listen, when I came up the second time tonight, Jerry Neudecker, plate umpire, told me he was going to tell me as I crossed the plate that the homer, 'I called time out,'" Money said, chuckling. "I said, 'The hell with you, Jerry,'" he said. "I've gotten that four or five times now since the real thing. It's not so funny, you know?" Tanana, who allowed just one hit and struck out 12, didn't seem very funny, either. He said he had tried to jam Money, but had thrown the ball three inches too close to the center of the plate. "He might get that same pitch an inning or two later, but it's not going to be three inches from the corner of the plate again," said Tanana, major league strikeout leader last year with 269 in 257 innings. "If he said he was only three inches off, he was probably right," Money said. "It wasn't that bad a pitch for him. It was an inside fast ball, and maybe he figured I would be looking for something outside. He didn't put it quite where he wanted but, heck, he struck me out the next time. He's got the best stuff of any left-hander in the league." Colborn, who has allowed just one earned run and 13 hits in 22 innings,

A&M track teams compete this weekend

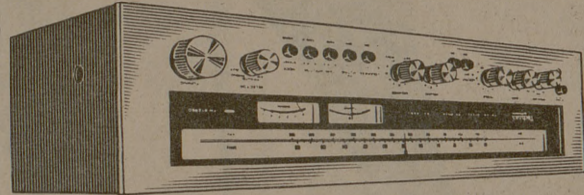

The Texas A&M track team will travel to Austin tomorrow to compete in an all-comers meet at the University of Texas' Memorial Stadium. Several Southwest Conference teams including host Texas will be represented at the meet. The meet will provide an opportunity for some athletes to gain experience while those remaining home will receive needed rest. The Aggies will take next weekend off, before facing Texas, TCU, Rice and SMU in a meet May 13. The Southwest Conference meet will be held May 21-22 at Waco. The A&M women's team will host a 23 team meet starting today at Kyle Field. This is the state meet for the Texas Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women. The prelims were held this morning and the semi-finals get underway at 5 p.m. The finals will begin at 3:30 p.m. Saturday for the field events, and 4 p.m. for the running events. Texas A&M entries are Sharon Boyle in the mile, two-mile and three-mile runs, plus a leg in the two-mile relay; Darcy Ehman in the shot put and discus; Martha Sartain in the long jump, 880, 440 and two-mile relay; Sandra Lyman in the shot and discus; Kay Kingsbury in the mile and two-mile relay; Diane McCrady in the two-mile relay; Debbie Timmons in the 400-meter hurdles and Brenda Schneider alternating in the two-mile relay. There will be no admission charge for Friday's events. For Saturday's finals, the charge will be $1 for adults and 50 cents for students. — Paul McGrath

McDONALD'S INTRAMURAL HIGHLIGHTS

Superstars Half Finished

The first week of the Second Annual IM Superstars Competition has come to an end with 4 out of the 8 events completed. Each of the 19 men and 5 women are to compete in 7 of the 8 events with points being awarded to the first five finishers in each. Points range from 10 for first place to 1 for 5th place. In the 100 yard dash of the Men's Division, Doug Drummond took first with a time of 10.1 seconds, followed by Dub Summers and Mike Fonteno, with 10.5 and 10.6, respectively. In the Women's 100 yd. dash, Beth McArthur placed first with an 11.3, while Laura Holmes and Carol Hemphill came close behind with 12.8 and 13.6 seconds. The Men's 100 yard swim was won by Dan Copp, with a time of 55 seconds, with Jimmy Sheffield in second with a 1:04.5, while Doug Drummond took third with a 1:09.2. Carol Hemphill took first in this event in the Women's Division with a 1:00.8. Second place was taken by Beth McArthur with the same time while Barbara German took third with a 1:06.0. The Basketball Freethrow competition was a close contest in both divisions. Steve Wagner and Mark Kiem tied for first with 18 out of 20 while Cody Birdwell and Ron Easley tied for third with 16 out of 20. Holmes took the Women's Division with 9 out of 20, with Barbara German close behind with 8 out of 20. In the Softball Throw, Joe Bohlin took the Men's Division with a toss of 286' 10". Scott Keltner took second with 273' 8", while Ronnie Loomis placed third with 271' 9". Laura Holmes dominated the Women in this event with a throw of 204' 2", followed by Ruthie Wilkins with 174' 6" and Barbara German with a 161' 8". After this first week with the completion of half of the events, the leaders in both divisions are separated by only a few points and anyone could be the new Superstar. The standings after the completion of these four events are as follows: in the Men's Division, Doug Drummond is in the lead with 15 points, followed closely by Dan Copp and Joe Bohlin, with 13 points each; and in the Women's Division, Laura Holmes and Beth McArthur share the lead with 27 points, while Barbara German is in third with 18.

Sq. 8 Takes Ping-Pong Team Title

In the finals of Team Tennis Table action, D-2 beat Sq. 3 to become winners of the Military Division while Sq. 8 defeated B-2 to take the Fish Division honors.

These two teams then competed for the All-U Team Title playing 2 out of 3 games to 21 points, with Sq. 8 becoming the overall champions.
