Foyt heads field at Texas 500

The Texas World Speedway has been bought, and its racing time in Texas. Former Indy 500 winners A.J. Foyt, Johnny Rutherford and Gordon Johncock are expected to battle '75 National Stock Car Champion Ranno Stott and four time National Champion Butch Hartmen for the checkered flag. The Texas 500 will begin at 1 p.m. Sunday, June 6. The competition is open to all drivers of unlimited late model stock cars. An Open House ceremony is scheduled Friday June 4. Everyone will be admitted free to the grandstands for the Open House while practice takes place. Appearing at a press conference last Tuesday, A.J. Foyt said that the Texas 500 was the finest track in the world. He added that it was the fastest track but also the safest. Foyt, said to be the "Living Legend", has won every major event at least once, including the Indy 500 three times. Another attraction of the race is the entry made by Texan Martha Wideman. Ms. Wideman, who has won more than 45 feature events, should prove to be stiff competition. Wideman said, "Man, that's going to be some big race, but I reckon I can handle it. I've been scared before and I came through all right. I know what I have to do and I'm going to do it." Tickets for the event are now on sale at Townshire Shell Service Station located on 2100 S. Texas Avenue. The tickets are $10 unre-served, $15 reserved, and $20 de-luxe reserved. The $5 infield tickets go on sale Saturday, June 5.

Tates Locke is new head coach of Buffalo Braves

Associated Press
BUFFALO — Bates Locke, a former college coach who joined the pro ranks just last year, was named head coach of the Buffalo Braves of the National Basketball Association Thursday.

Locke, 39, succeeds Jack Ramsay, who Braves owner Paul Snyder dismissed as coach last Monday, one day after the Boston Celtics eliminated Buffalo from the playoffs.

Hamill joins Ice Capades

Associated Press
LOS ANGELES — Dorothy Hamill, America's queen of the 1976 Winter Olympics, has signed a two-year contract to skate with the Ice Capades, a spokesman said Thursday.

Locke had 11 years experience as a college coach before joining the Braves at the start of this past season. A graduate of Ohio Wesleyan University, he first coached two seasons at West Point and four at Miami of Ohio before taking at Clemson.

Miss Hamill, 19, will perform approximately six months with the ice show, beginning Sept. 15 in Pittsburgh.

In five seasons at Clemson, his teams won 62 games and lost 70.

"I have known Dorothy a long time, while she was an amateur, and I felt I established a good rapport with her after meeting her in Gateborg," said George Eby, president of Ice Capades.

Terms of the contract were not announced and Miss Hamill's manager, Jerry Weintraub, declined to even categorize her salary as being in the same ballpark with television newscaster Barbara Walters, who recently signed a $1 million contract with ABC.

However, Miss Hamill is also associated with ABC. She has signed with that network to star in two specials unconnected with the Ice Capades.

posting a record of 31-23 during his final two seasons there. Snyder talked briefly about his decision not to renew Ramsay's contract, who had coached the Braves four seasons and guided them into the playoffs the past three seasons.

"I consider Jack Ramsay a good coach," Snyder said. "I think he's done a good job here. I just thought it was time for a change." Buffalo sports writer had said a personality conflict between Ramsay and Snyder apparently led to Ramsay's dismissal.

Ramsay coached St. Joseph's College of Philadelphia for 11 years and the Philadelphia 76ers of the NBA four seasons before joining the Braves in 1972.

Copp, Holmes are SUPERSTARS!

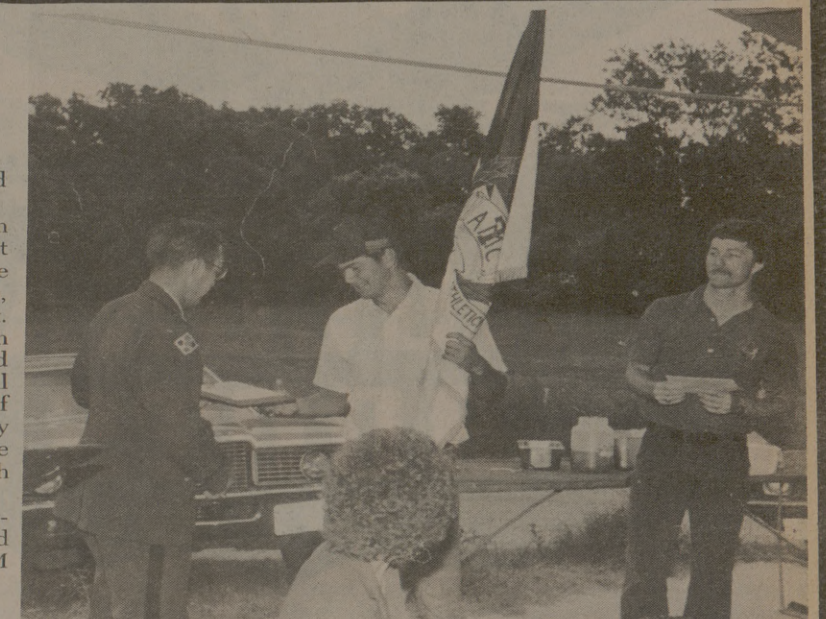

Dan Copp and Laura Holmes share All-University honors as they became the Men's and Women's IM Superstars of the '75-'76 school year last week. After competing in 7 out of 8 of the Superstar events, Copp collected a total of 29 points while Mike Fonteno and Joe Bohlin ran 2nd and 3rd with 25 and 21 points. Following Holmes' 52 points were Beth McArthur and Carol Hemphill, with 51 and 46 points, respectively.

The final four events last week included a Tennis Championship, Obstacle Course, Bowling, and Weightlifting competitions. Dan Copp and Carol Hemphill took first in the Tennis, followed by Bob Dullve and Laura Holmes in second, and Tom Blumhorst and Barbara German in third.

Mike Fonteno won the Men's Obstacle course with a time of 1:03.6, followed by Mike Michalka and Dan Copp, both with 1:06.5.

The Women, who ran the same course, were led by Beth McArthur, with a 1:07.2, while Carol Hemphill took second with a 1:10.4, and Laura Holmes placed third with a 1:16.1.

The Bowling event entailed the total score of three games and the men were led by Ron Boenig with 511 pins with Roy Cook and Joe Bohlin close behind with 504 and 496. Laura Holmes took the Women's Division handily with 460 pins, while Beth McArthur and Brady Gage, Athletic Officer for E-1 accepts the all-year plaque and flag awards for the Military Division from Lt. Col. Don Johnson at the IM steak fry and awards banquet last week. E-1 won by having the highest total points in their division this year.

Super IM Summer is On the Way

For all of you poor souls who have to spend the summer months studying at the Big-U, here is a way to let off some of your extra energy — participate in the summer Intramural program! Entries for the first summer session close on Thursday, June 3 and play begins on Monday, June 7. Sports scheduled for this session are Softball, 3 Man Volleyball, 3 Man Basketball, Racketball Doubles, Tennis Singles, and Cross Country.

Entry dates for the second term have not been set, but the activities will include Softball, 3 Man Volleyball and Basketball, Handball Doubles, Tennis Doubles, and Golf Doubles.

In addition to these events, be sure to look out for various Special Events throughout the summer which will be posted at the IM Office in DeWare Fieldhouse.

Gang Over Moses as Well as Hill

The Over-the-Hill Gang, after coming back from a 3-0 deficit in the 6th inning, slid by Moses Hall in the 7th to win the All-University Softball Championship game, 4-3, last week. On a sacrifice play by James Martin, Gary Bellows came home and scored the run that put the Independent winners over the Civilian champs.

In other IM Divisional action, D-1 took the Fish Division, F-1 won the Military, and the Women's Division was topped by E Pluribus Unum (EPU). The Bullets defeated the Alchemists, 11-8 to take the Recreational Division, and in a surprising upset, the Newts defeated Plantation Oaks, 19-9, to take the Co-Rec Division and end the two year winning streak of the latter.
