

Texas World Speedway makes a comeback

On a hot Sunday afternoon in June...

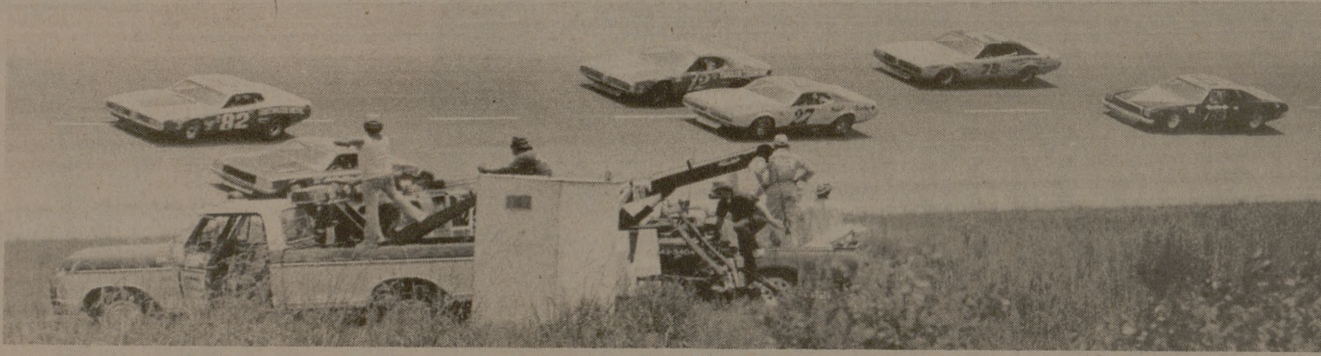

31,000 people came to College Station...

to see A. J. Foyt drive 500 miles.

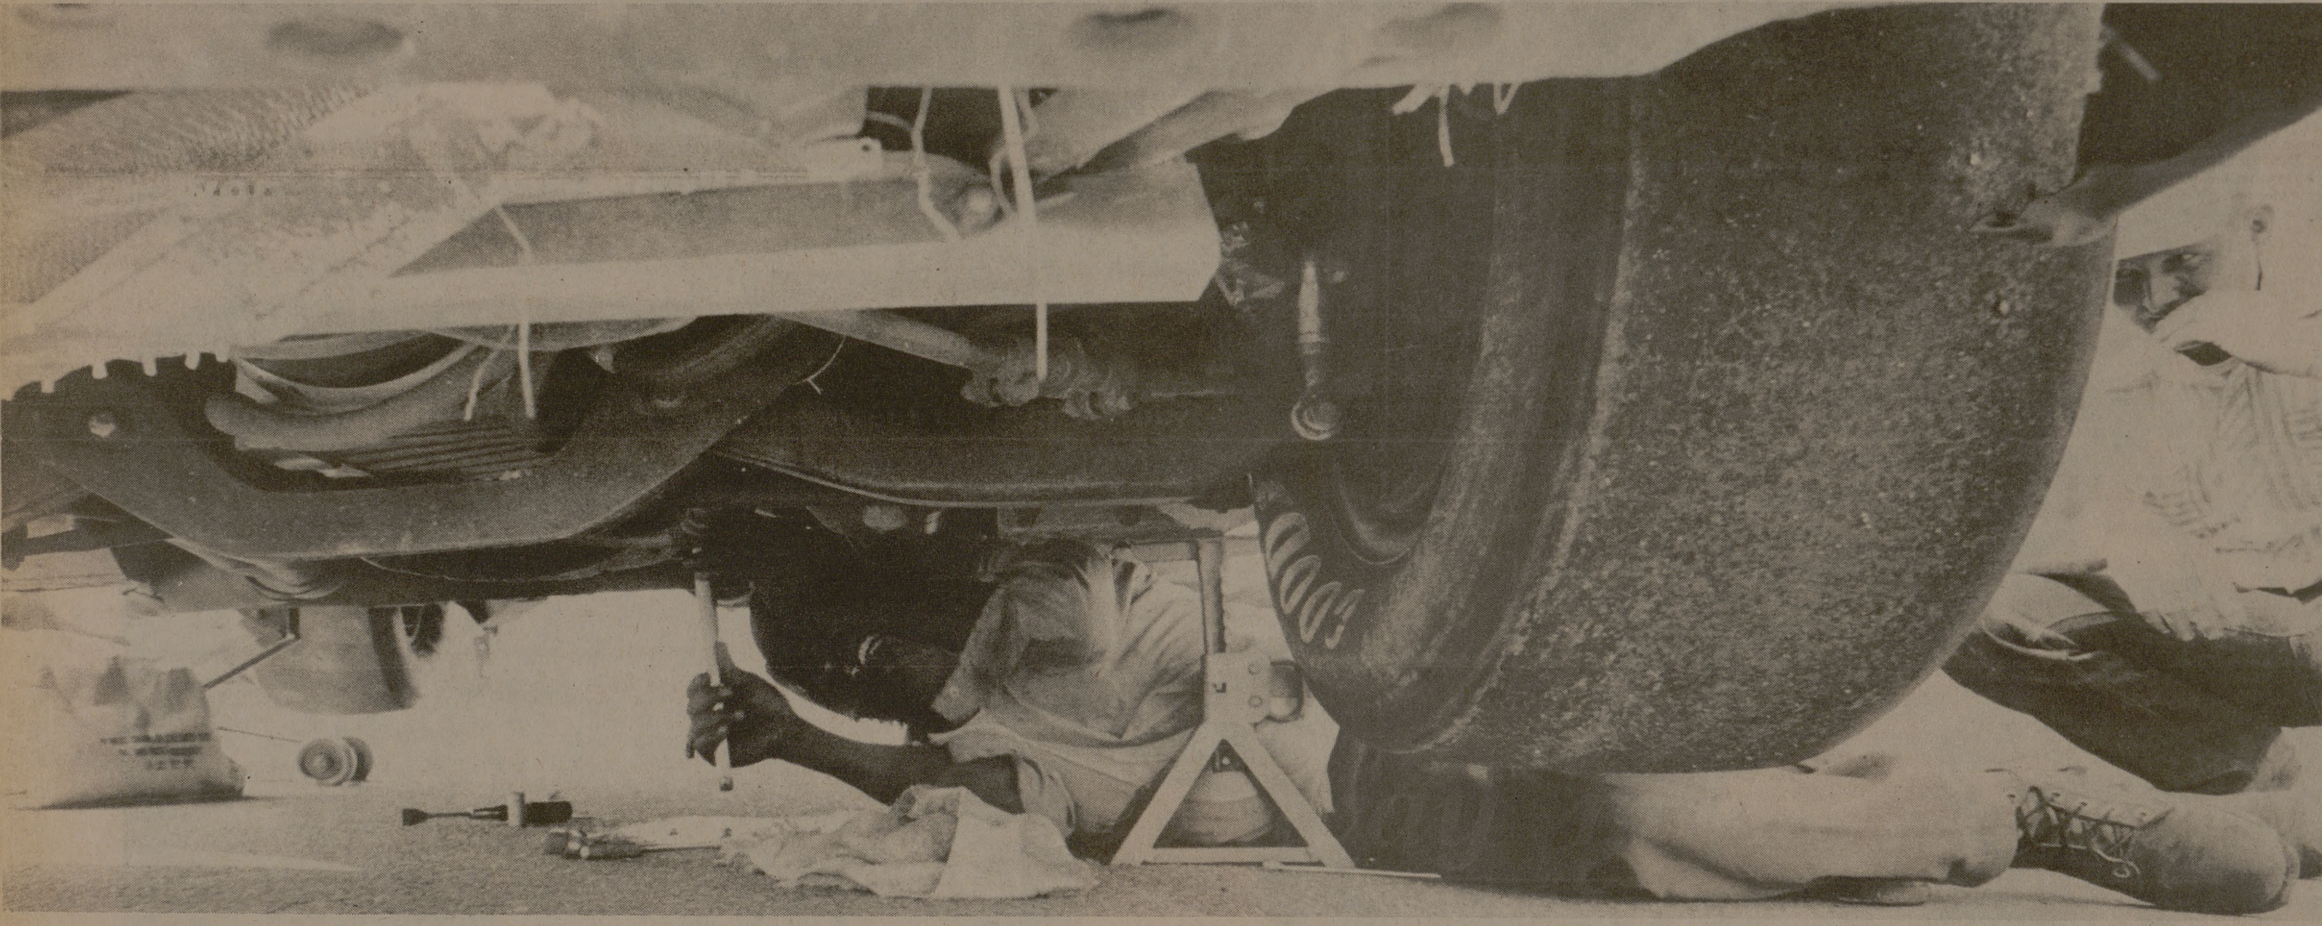

Picture-story by Steve Goble

There were those who watched for the inevitable accidents...

and there were those who watched for the inevitable accidents.

Not only was there the struggle with the high-powered offspring of Detroit...

there was also the sun.

For some, the day ended with the sweet taste of victory.

For others, like Don Bohlander and crew, it just... ended.
