Walker scores TD; A&M ticket sales way up

By PAUL McGRATH
Battalion Sports Editor

Former Texas A&M halfback Skip Walker added a touchdown to the West cause as they whipped the East 35-17 in the 16th annual American Football Coaches All-American game. Walker scored on a three yard burst early in the first quarter, tying the game at that point at 7-7. The West outscored their Eastern counterparts 21-3 in the second half to run away with the contest. Walker, surprisingly playing much of the game, was not spectacular however, as both teams had problems forming rushing attacks.

The AFCA all star game may have to find a new home next year as the city of Lubbock voted to discontinue as hosts for the game. Lubbock city fathers determined that the game, held in the West Texas city for the past seven years, was more of a liability than an asset.

No firm decision as to the location of the 1977 game has been made thus far.

Texas A&M hurdler Shifton Baker performed well, but not well enough, at the United States Olympic trials held last weekend in Eugene, Ore.

Baker, who will be a senior this fall, placed fifth in his quarterfinals heat with a 50.76 clocking, his second best time of the year. Unfortunately, only the first four finishers were allowed to go on to the semis.

Mike Bruton, a former A&M linebacker-linebacker who played for both Gene Stallings and Emory Ballard, has taken over as sports editor of a newspaper in Huntsville. Bruton, a journalism major and former sports editor of The Battalion, has also worked as a writer in Tyler and on the Bryan Eagle.

Charlie McClendon, Head Coach at Louisiana State University, says he has Texas A&M right where he wants them, "off the schedule."

The Aggies have defeated Cholly Mac's Tigers the past two years, 21-14 and 39-8.

The Lone Star State's annual football bible, "Dave Campbell's Texas Football" magazine should hit the newsstands sometime in the middle of July.

The Texas A&M Polo Club will hold an intra-squad scrimmage tonight at 6 p.m. on the polo field.

Those wishing to play summer lacrosse may satisfy their interest in the sport by going to the Main Drill Field tonight or tomorrow night at 8 p.m.

Texas A&M football ticket sales are up "tremendously" Assistant Athletic Director for Business Affairs Wally Groff said Wednesday.

Groff said there has been about 20 percent increase of sales over year. Over 14,000 season tickets have been sold compared to 12,000 last season. Three or four years ago Groff said, season ticket sales were barely over 3,000.

Sales for the Texas and Home games are "running neck and neck," Groff said, both in the neighborhood of 8,000 tickets.

The Aggies averaged 50,515 year at Kyle Field, which set a 48,000.
