

A&M University Press schedules eight books for fall publication

Eight books, including the first publications in three new series, are included in the fall list for the Texas A&M University Press.

Directed by Frank Wardlaw, is beginning its second year of publication. Leading off the fall offerings will be "Old Ranches of the Texas Plains," paintings by Mondel Rogers, followed by "Tales of the Big Bend," by Elton Miles, and "Regulating Competition in Oil: Governmental Intervention in the U. S. Refining Industry, 1945-1975," by Anthony Copp, all scheduled for September release.

"Governmental Controls and the Free Market: the U. S. Economy in the 1970s" edited by Svetozar Pejovich, and "Aspects of the American West," three essays by Joe B. Frantz, are planned for release in November.

The Rogers book is the first in the Joe and Betty Moore Texas Art Series, while the Copp publication launches the Texas A&M University Economics Series. The Frantz book leads the series of Essays on the American West sponsored by the Elma Dill Russell Spencer Foundation. Krueger's book is the fourth in the Centennial Series of Texas A&M's Association of Former Students.

Bryan High takes honors

Bryan High School won a first place, a third place and two honorable mention awards Friday at the high school journalism workshop at Texas A&M University.

Bryan's yearbook staff won first place for its cover and honorable mention for division page layout. Student Pat Synalschik captured third-best news feature in newspaper competition and Bill Gerber gained honorable mention in the same category.

More than 600 students and advisers attending the nation's largest journalism workshop saw Conroe, Houston Memorial High, Northbrook, Spring Branch and Stratford walk away with the lion's share of individual and school awards. Each won six to ten awards.

The workshop was hosted by Texas A&M's Department of Communications in cooperation with Taylor Publishing Co.

Council to discuss wards

The College Station City Council is scheduled to discuss the drawing up of ward boundaries within the city at their regularly scheduled meeting tomorrow night.

The council is also expected to authorize the mayor to sign a contract for the city's share of construction costs for improving Wellborn Road from University Drive to the north city limits.

A closed session to discuss personnel contracts is also on the agenda.

The meeting begins at 7 p.m. in the council chambers at city hall, 1101 Texas Ave.

C. S. Noon Lions Club will conduct driving course

The National Safety Council defensive driving course will be conducted by the College Station Noon Lions Club on Friday July 23 and Saturday July 24.

The eight-hour course will run from 6 p.m. until 10 p.m. on Friday and from 8 a.m. until noon on Saturday. Each driver who completes this course will be eligible to get 10 per cent off on their insurance over a three year period.

Tuition for the two-day course is $8.00. It will be held in the Mimosa Room of the Old College Station City Hall located on the corner of Church Street and Old College. For more information call H. F. Goldsmith, 846-4945.

The Bacardi Driver. Zippier than a screwdriver. Easy as 1,2,3.

1. Pour 1 1/2 oz. Bacardi light rum over ice in a tall glass.
2. Pour on ice cold orange juice.
3. Squeeze and drop in a lime or lemon wedge. Now you're ready to sip some zip. Because Bacardi and that hint of lime or lemon really turn on the OJ!
