II. Student Access to Education Records
All students (and former students) of Texas A&M University have the right of access to their education records for the purpose of review, with the exception of those records prohibited by the Act (see Section III).

A. Students have the right to obtain copies of records relating to themselves at the expense of the student. The reproduction charge shall not exceed the actual cost to the University.
B. The University will respond to all requests for explanations and interpretations of records or information, provided the response is not in violation of this Act.
C. The Act provides that a student may waive his right of access to confidential letters of recommendation in the areas of admissions, job placement and receipt of awards. Students seeking employment through the University Placement Office may have signed such a waiver. Information concerning the status of such waivers may be obtained from the Director of Placement. Consent to release personally identifiable information, such as rank in class, personal conduct, grade point average, academic progress, etc., to non-authorized personnel (see Section IV) should be obtained from the student by individuals releasing such information.

III. Records Not Accessible to Students
A. Instructional, supervisory and administrative personnel records and educational personnel records pertaining thereto in the sole possession of the author and not revealed to any person other than a substitute (i.e., grade books, notes of observation and notes for recollection purposes).

IV. Authorized Non-Student Access to Student Records
Under the following circumstances and to the following people, educational records (or personally identifiable information within a record) may be released without the written consent of the student:
A. Officials, faculty and staff employed by Texas A&M University, if they have a "legitimate educational interest."
B. Officials of other educational institutions in which the student intends "to enroll," provided the student is notified of what is being released and given a copy if desired.
C. Authorized representatives of the Comptroller General of the United States, the Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare, administrative heads of educational agencies, or state educational authorities.
D. Individuals needing this information in connection with a student's application for, or receipt of, financial aid.

items as grades, transcripts, financial aid and probation reports.

I. Appropriate persons, if the knowledge of such information is necessary to protect the health or safety of the student or other persons.
J. Individuals requiring such information by means of a judicial order or any lawfully issued subpoena, upon condition that the student is notified by the University of all such orders and subpoenas in advance of compliance.

V. Student Rights to Challenge Records
Students have the right to a hearing to challenge records and information directly relating to them. The challenge is restricted to inaccurate, misleading, or otherwise inappropriate records and information. The following procedures shall be followed:

A. Any student wishing to challenge records or information directly relating to him must notify the individual responsible for maintaining the record of the wish to challenge. The notice must be in writing and specifically identify the item challenged and the basis for the challenge. This written request must be filed in duplicate with the custodian of the challenged record.
B. All initial hearings will be informal and participants will be the custodian of the challenged records or information, the student and the author (if appropriate) of the material.
C. If any of the participants (record custodian, student or author) are not satisfied with the results of the informal hearing, a formal hearing will be conducted under the procedures adopted and published below:

1. The hearing will be conducted and the results decided within a reasonable period of time (seven business days) following the request for the hearing.
2. The hearing will be conducted, and the decision rendered, by a nonofficial official or other party who does not have a direct interest in the outcome of the hearing. The appointment of the official or other party will be by the Vice President to whom the record custodian reports.
3. The student will be afforded a full and fair opportunity to present evidence relevant to challenging the content of the educational records in order to insure that they are not inaccurate, misleading, or otherwise in violation of the privacy or other rights of students. The hearing also provides an opportunity for correction or deletion of any inaccurate, misleading, or otherwise inappropriate data contained in the record and/or to insert into the record a written explanation of the student respecting the content of the challenged record.
4. The decision must be rendered in writing to all interested parties within a reasonable period of time (seven business days) after the conclusion of the hearing.

VI. Release of "Student Directory Information"
Information on students, such as date and place of birth, participation in officially recognized activities and sports, weight and height of members of athletic teams, dates of attendance, degrees and awards received, and the most recent previous educational agency or institution attended, are referred to in this Act as "student directory information" (this is a category of information and does not refer necessarily to a publication known as a "directory"). The information mentioned above will be released by various campus offices periodically or upon request unless the student requests in writing that specific information be withheld.

A publication known as the Texas A&M University Directory is one type of periodical containing data classified as "student directory information." It will contain the student's name, address, telephone listing, major field of study and classification unless the student requests that part or all of the data be withheld.
Periodically the Registrar will publish official notice of the above policy so that students wishing to do so can make requests known to the Registrar (undergraduates) or the Dean of the Graduate College (graduate students). After the official notice has been published, the Registrar will inform offices concerned of the requests received.

VII. Destruction of Records
Texas A&M University constantly reviews education records; it maintains and periodically destroys records. In no case will the University destroy records if the action is prohibited by state and/or federal law.
Basic academic records are kept permanently in the Registrar's Office. Beyond these, the various departments and offices may determine their own policies regarding retention of records with existing laws.

VIII. Letters of Recommendation
A. Students have the right to review confidential recommendations used in applications for employment or for admission to any educational agency or institution, or information concerning honors awarded, except when the student waives, in writing, the privileges of examination under the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, the student does not have access to confidential letters and statements of recommendation which were placed in the education records prior to January 1, 1975, if the letters or statements are used for purposes for which they were specifically intended.

IX. Former Students
These procedures apply to all persons formerly enrolled at Texas A&M University as well as to those currently enrolled.

'Miss Kitty' takes role of Cattle Sally

By JAY SHARBUTT
Associated Press

LOS ANGELES — It was high noon. Amanda Blake, who was the Long Branch saloon on "Gunsmoke" for 19 years, leaned on the bar at the Old West parlor in Stage 29 and watched the cowboys and ladies chat.

The ladies were only knickers. Apparently the laundry was late. A brief fight broke out. A cowboy and a lady went upstairs to play whist or something. Then the director said rehearsal was over.

And the blonde actress millions know as a warm-hearted, straight-talking "Miss Kitty" repaired to her dressing room to explain how it comes to pass she is playing "Cattle Sally," a bawdyhouse operator. "It just happened," grinned Miss Blake, whose work will be seen this season in one episode of "The Quest," NBC's new Western series.

"When they called about the part, I about had a fit. They said she's a madam and I said — her voice rose half an octave for emphasis — 'No! I've done that number.' They said, 'Cool it, wait a minute, it's not really that kind of thing at all.'"

"They sent the script over and I read it and really liked it," said Miss Blake, who isn't playing an ordinary madam.

The "Quest" job is only her second TV role since leaving "Gunsmoke."

Her Cattle Sally part is similar to Miss Kitty, but it's much more explicit. Miss Kitty's saloon ladies are painted, but whether they partied was deliberately left under orders from the censor.

"We didn't have as much leeway on this show," Miss Blake observed. "Then, we were on early in the evening when the kiddies were up and around. Not so here."

Oddly enough, she said, she wasn't offered Miss Kitty jobs after leaving "Gunsmoke." She was offered other kinds of roles, including one as head-mistress of a girls' boarding school.

She was asked if that's how she wants things to continue after she finishes work at Cattle Sally's titular boarding school.

"Well, yeah," she drawled, twinkle in her eye. "I'll be very careful about the types of madams I play in the future."
