Student Rights to Challenge Records

Students have the right to a hearing to challenge records and information directly relating to them. The challenge is restricted to inaccurate, misleading, or otherwise inappropriate records and information. The following procedures shall be followed.

A. Any student wishing to challenge records or information directly relating to him must notify the individual responsible for maintaining the record of the wish to challenge. The notice must be in writing and specifically identify the item challenged and the basis for the challenge. This written request must be filed in duplicate with the custodian of the challenged record.

All initial hearings will be informal and participants will be the custodian of the challenged records or information, the student and the author (if appropriate) of the material.

C. If any of the participants (record custodian, student or author) are not satisfied with the results of the informal hearing, a formal hearing will be conducted under the procedures adopted and published below:

1. The hearing will be conducted and the results decided within a reasonable period of time (seven business days) following the request for the hearing.

2. The hearing will be conducted, and the decision rendered, by an institutional official or other party who does not have a direct interest in the outcome of the hearing. The appointment of the official or party will be made by the Vice President to whom the record custodian reports.

3. The student will be afforded a full and fair opportunity to present evidence relevant to challenging the content of the educational records in order to insure that they are not inaccurate, misleading, or otherwise in violation of the privacy or other spits in appropriate data contained in the record and/or to insert into the record a written explanation of the student respecting the content of the challenged

As Students have the right to review confidential recommendations used in applications for employment or for admission to any educational agency or institution, or information concerning honors awarded, except when the student waives, in writing, the privileges of examination B. Under the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, the student does not have access to confidential letters and statements of recommendation which were placed in the education records prior to January 1, 1975, if the letters or statements are used for purposes for which they were specifically intended.

Speakers discuss education

A trio of authorities on adult, community and continuing educa-tion will arrive at Texas A&M University tomorrow for a two-day centennial academic assembly sponsored by the College of Education.

The assembly, "New Roles of Education: Lifelong Learning," begins at 1:30 p.m. with Dr. Ron Turner, development director of the University of Mid-America, who speaks on continuing education. At 8 p.m. the same day is an address by Dr. V.M. Kerensky, director of the Southeast Regional Center for Community Educational Development. The final individual speaker is at 10 a.m. Thursday. That features Dr. Douglas Procunier, Mott Foundation program officer who will discuss
