A&M class of '51 plans scholarship

The silver anniversary of the Texas A&M Class of 1951 graduation will be celebrated this weekend. Some 250 class members plan to attend, announced Mrs. Olive DeLucia, class program director for the Association of Former Students.

Along with a Friday dinner and dance before the A&M-Kansas State football game and a Sunday breakfast and campus tour afterwards, the '51 Aggies plan a special presentation.

An endowed scholarship fund will be given in memory of all deceased members of the class. Given during Texas A&M's 100th year, the presentation is in appreciation of what the university has meant to class members.

Attending will be '51 Aggies Gordon R. Flack, assistant commissioner on the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System; A. DeLoach Martin, president of A. D. Martin Properties of Dallas, and '51 Cadet Corps commander and Air Force Brig. Gen. Waymond C. Nutt.

Deputy chief of staff for logistics of the Tactical Air Command, Gen. Nutt will be the reviewing officer at the Corps march-in to the game.
